

SALOONS RUNNING WITHOUT LICENSE

Council Suddenly Takes on a Moral Tone With Political Color.

MARTIN RANTS AT STEWART

In Characteristic Prize Ring Eloquence, Designer of the Stockade Says Other's Word Is Not Good.

Every saloon in Salt Lake City is doing business today without a license as the result of a squabble in a special meeting of the city council last night when the license committee sought to have 24 applicants refused a renewal of their license on the ground that they had committed perjury in filing affidavits that they owned the fixtures in their places of business. After a harangue which lasted for more than an hour, Councilman L. D. Martin moved for a reconsideration of the report, which was adopted, laying it over until tonight when another special meeting will be held to hear from the rejected applicants. Behind the report of the license committee is a game of politics, the saloon men say, to whip the liquor interests into line for the municipal campaign this fall.

All the saloon licenses expired at midnight last night but the saloons were opened promptly at 6 o'clock this morning. The special meeting was held last night for the purpose of granting licenses. As soon as the council was called to order, the license committee presented its report. The committee recommended the renewal of 10 saloon licenses and rejected the application of 24 saloon men. This was done after a careful examination, Councilman J. J. Stewart said, of the records in the county recorder's office. The records showed that the fixtures in the saloons were owned by the Salt Lake brewery, Fisher's Brewery or Wagner's brewery, and not by the saloon-keepers as required by the ordinance. These saloonmen had not been living up to the spirit of the liquor ordinance, Mr. Stewart further stated, and for this reason the applications had been rejected.

SOLD LIQUOR TO MINORS.

Councilman F. S. Fernstrom was in favor of rejecting these applications and then presented a list which he asked to be considered. These were saloonmen who had been fined for selling liquor to minors. It included the names of Fred Kluster, 171 South Main street, fined 16 on March 11; Harry Hanson, proprietor of the Germania saloon, 79 west First south street, fined $10 on March 18; W. P. Clark, fined $50 May 19; Charles Harvey, case pending; Frank Ahl, case pending; and John Lundberg, case pending.

It was decided to hold up the granting of these licenses and the committee will meet with Judge E. G. Gowans of the juvenile court and discuss the cases with him.

Mr. Stewart also said that the committee had turned down the applications of the drug store at Seventh South and Seventh East streets, the Doull Drug store at Postoffice Place, and the George T. Price drug company in the Kenyon hotel building, because of their record for selling liquor on Sunday.

Councilman Martin, who had met with the committee yesterday afternoon and agreed to support its action, took a sudden change and declared that he doubted Stewart's word that the saloons held up were controlled by the three leading breweries. He moved that the saloonmen be given a chance to appear and present their side of the case. Then the debate became general and Councilman Hall declared that he did not believe that the council had a right to go behind the affidavits filed by the saloonmen and accuse them of perjury. He said that Fred C. Looftbourrow, district attorney, who was present, should take cognizance of this perjury if there be any.

TRIES TO PROVE OWNERSHIP.

Mr. Looftbourrow asked permission to use the floor for a moment and it was granted him. He said that he was there in behalf of a client whose license had been rejected and not in the capacity of the district attorney. He declared that Hanak & Rumph, who have been conducting a saloon in the city for 10 years, were not guilty of perjury and that he could produce the receipt in payment of the fixtures which was dated April 1.

Stewart declared that the records did not show such a transfer, saying that his client had made affidavit that they owned the fixtures five days before they made the purchases. Mr. Looftbourrow retorted, saying that he could produce proof that Stewart's statement was not so.

At this point Mr. Martin secured the floor and delivered an oration, directed against Councilman Stewart and Black.

"It has come to a pretty pass," he said, "that two members of this council can dictate to it and attempt to put citizens out of their business. What kind of a hierarchy is this you are running? The applications of these 24 men whom Stewart and Black are trying to turn down were brought up here in three different places and in the corner were initiated, respectively, Salt Lake Brewing company, Wagner Brewing company and Fisher Brewing company."

GROWS MORE ELOQUENT.

"You are trying to take a fall out of the breweries, but instead of that you are really taking away the livelihood of 24 citizens whose affidavits are surely better than Stewart's word. Why not give them a chance for their life? They have made the proper affidavits. It is up to us to show that they are lying, and I don't believe that they are. You will hear from me on this, and I intend to make you eat it. If a single one of the 24 men whom the committee refused licenses are put out of business, every single liquor dealer who was recommended for license must close up. I give you notice now that I will move a notice of reconsideration of the adoption of the report right now, which holds the whole thing up."

After he sat down the vote was called for an adjournment and Stewart raised an objection that Martin could not move a reconsideration at this time. President Davis ruled that he was in order and it was moved to hold a special meeting this evening to hear from the saloon men whose applications were rejected and who are accused of perjury. They are as follows:

Hanak & Rumph, 40 east First south street.

Kooregaard & Nelson, 62 Commercial street.

Hill & Burkland, 568 west Second south.

Ren Hendrickson, 217 west Temple street.

Elmer, 278 south Main street.

Charles S. Swain, 24 west Third south street.

Guy Capuccio, 254 west South Temple street.

G. W. Winnett, 168 west South Temple street.

Piccolo & Cerra, 66 east First South.

Rizzuto & Ruga, 149 south West Temple.

Bepko & Kyrios, 553 west Second South.

Nick Butkovich, 121 south Third West.

Corio & Filicetti, 537 west Second South.

W. Frank Corio, 222 south Sixth West.

Fuglusio & Caro, 142 west South Temple.

Bombino Bros., 71 Commercial street.

Charles G. Sinder, 49 west First South.

Nick Tedesco, 152 west Second South.

Walker & Bianco, 427 west Second South.

Bianco & Curran, 21 Commercial.

L. H. Goullet, 395 east Thirteenth.

John A. Peters, 25 Commercial.

F. X. Latulippe, 339 south State.

John Gerch, 102 south West Temple.

Colds that hang on weaken the constitution and develop into consumption. Foley's Honey and Tar cures persistent coughs that refuse to yield to other treatment. Do not experiment with untested remedies as delay may result in your cold settling on your lungs.—F. J. Hill Drug Co., (The never substitutes) Salt Lake City.

ELK FUEL CO., 14 W. THIRD SO. Cleanliness and heat. Phones 553.

JULY FOURTH RATES.

Via Oregon Short Line.

Tickets on sale July 2, 3, 4 and 5; limit July 6th. City Ticket Office, 201 Main Street.

SECOND BOYS' CAMP.

The Y. M. C. A. boys are having a fine time at the Utah Lake camp. The excursions included a trip to the summit of Timpanogos where a snowball contest was indulged in, a trip to Pelican Point on the western shores of the lake. In the games during the week the First Presbyterian church boys' baseball club defeated the Burlington club, two games out of three. However, the latter won the track meet. The boys return to town Saturday. Several senior members of the Y. M. C. A. will spend Sunday and Monday at the camp. The second boys' camp company will leave Salt Lake Tuesday morning, and parents desirous of getting their boys into the camp, can do so by calling at the offices of the association and making the necessary arrangements.

We don't care if you are skeptical, we don't care if you have no confidence. It makes no difference to us. Holister's Rock Mountain Tea will do the work or no pay—that's fair. 35 cents. Godbe-Pitts Drug company.

Run From the Heat.

Go to Saltair and cool off in the lake. Round trip 25c.

EXCURSIONS EAST.

Via Denver & Rio Grande R. R., June 4, 5, 11, 12, 16, 26, July 2, 3.

Chicago and return $55.00

St. Louis and return $49.00

St. Paul, Minneapolis & return. 52.00

Omaha, Kansas City and return 40.00

Denver, Colo. Springs Pueblo.. 22.50

Other points in proportion.

Tickets good returning October 31st

City Ticket Office 301 Main St.

SYRIANS ENTER COMPLAINT.

A. Baltia, a Syrian who follows the business of a salary and loan agent with an office in the D. F. Walker block, was arrested yesterday on complaint of one of his clients and fellow-countrymen. He will appear in court today on a charge of violating the liquor ordinance. Baltia, it is said, assumes the role of confidential adviser and agent for his countrymen and in many instances charges exorbitant fees for his work.

GRASS FIRE NEAR HOSPITAL.

A grass fire in the vicinity of St. Mark's hospital with its dense smoke caused much discomfort to the patients there for several hours yesterday afternoon. The fire started about 1:30 o'clock and it was not until 8 o'clock that the firemen with a steamer and hose succeeded in quenching the blazing grass. No damage resulted, nor was the hospital in danger at any time.

FUNERAL OF THOMAS LAMBERT

Will be Held Saturday at the Home of Dr. Seymour B. Young.

The funeral of Thomas J. Lambert will be held at the residence of Dr. Seymour B. Young, 45 Fourth East, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Friends and relatives are invited by the family to attend. Mr. Lambert was the son of Mary Jenkins and Richard Lambert and was born in Hawaii while his parents were in the mission field there. His birth occurred in 1876. He was educated in the public schools of this city and then in the Latter-day Saints' college. His first employment was with the Oregon Short Line and at the time of his death was associated with the Kemmerer Fuel company. In October, 1901, he was married to Ada Lucile Young, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Seymour B. Young. Three children, three daughters and one son, survive. The children are Lucile, Marian and Richard.

The Road to Long Life

Is through the stomach.

Grape-Nuts

FOOD

Strengthens the stomach, and nourishes body and brain with its pre-digested pure food elements.

"There's a Reason"

Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

POSTUM CEREAL CO., LTD., Battle Creek, Mich., U. S. A.

FUNERAL OF MARY J. S. AUER.

The funeral services for the late Mary J. Spencer Auer were conducted yesterday afternoon at the Tenth ward chapel, with Bishop Christensen presiding, and opened with a number by the choir, "I Need Thee Every Hour." Prayer followed by Elder Keddington, and Miss Esther Davis sang "Oh, My Father." Bishop Christensen then gave a brief talk upon his knowledge of the deceased during her residence in the ward, having found her always a consistent Latter-day Saint, a devoted mother and wife, and an estimable woman. He was followed by Elder W. N. Williams and Elder Schoenfeldt, both of whom had known Mrs. Auer almost from the time of her arrival in the valley, the first during her early residence in this city and the last more intimately at Pleasant Green, both friends paying a tribute to the qualities of the deceased and of sympathy for her surviving relatives. Fine musical selections were interspersed, including a solo by Mrs. Smith, "Face to Face," and one also by Miss Maud Harrison Strong, "Sometime We'll Understand." Elder Joseph E. Taylor also spoke of his long acquaintance with Mrs. Auer and her family and his knowledge of her character as a devoted Latter-day Saint. Benediction was offered by Elder George W. Spokes, the choir singing as a closing selection "Shall We Meet Beyond the River?" The usual services were held at the cemetery.

Let us eat, drink and be merry. With never a thought of aches or pain. Let us forget every sorrow that might be. For we still have Rocky Mountain Tea. Godbe-Pitts Drug company.

POOL A MENACE.

In a communication filed with the city recorder yesterday to be presented to the city council, A. V. Thompson calls attention to a stagnant pool of water at Ninth North near the Jordan river. He declares that it is a menace to the health of the residents in the neighborhood and that although his place at 873 Oakley avenue is some distance away, it can detect a strong odor from the pool. It is filled with dead fish, tadpoles and decaying vegetation. He asks the council to take the matter up and drain the water off.

TORTURED ON A HORSE.

"For ten years I couldn't ride a horse without being in torture from piles," writes L. S. Napier, of Rugless, Ky., "when all doctors and other remedies failed, Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured me." Infalible for Piles, Burns, Scalds, Cuts, Boils, Fever-Sores, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Corns, 25c.—Guaranteed by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept. 112-114, Main St., Salt Lake City.

EXCURSION TO ELY, NEV.,

Via Oregon Short Line. July 2, 3 and 4. Return limit, July 6th. Round trip $18.45. City Ticket Office, 201 Main Street.

KEITH O'BRIEN Co.

Seventh Annual Round-Up

THE ROUND-UP

Distinctly Western. Born of the West. a Custom of the Plains.

Men living close to nature, free from restraint, throw off artificial customs and are themselves—perfectly natural, working for love of work, doing things because they want to, and don't give a rap.

ABOUT The ROUND-UP

Once a year an outfit comprising men of a given range, move hither and thither on the broad sweeps of their particular domain, to round up cattle and calves and brand them, that their ownership may be known. The cattle graze everywhere. Tirelessly the cowboy rides. The duration of this ride depends on the number of beeves on the range, but usually occupies from one to two weeks time.

The cattle, gradually bunched, are finally rounded up into one large herd. The yearlings are sorted out and branded. Each outfit cuts out its own brand.

There is always danger of a stampede. Of docile characters individually, when bunched into nearly countless hundreds the cattle are easily frightened. Then under high tension, they stampede in mad disorder. Woe to the cowboy whose broncho is not alert. Then follows the tireless chase, day and night.

During the pleasant months of the year the outdoor life, though arduous at times, is fascinating. But when the rigors of winter come, with its cold rains and blinding blizzards, only the cowboy knows what it means to traverse the awful wastes in search of stray cattle.

Fierce winds, sweeping snows which prick the face like needles, bitter cold which benumbs, must be endured. The cattle must be found.

The cowboy life is one of monotony, of drudgery, of hardship. The pentup energies of the men find escape through valves of recklessness, of wildness. They live in the saddle. Through practice they become skillful with the lasso. They delight in feats of extraordinary horsemanship. But there is a deep sense of honor among them. In heart they are real men. Living close to nature, away from the refining influences of women, these men are their real selves: rough and gentle in turn, care free, reckless, quick to anger and quick to resent insult fancied or real—or they shoot.

Sale Starts Saturday, July 3rd.

As the Fourth comes on Sunday and will be observed Monday, the sale will resume Tuesday and continue the balance of the week

Every year the Round-Up sale grows bigger
The whole city waits for it.
Our customers wait for it.
People in four states wait for it.
For it will be a fruitful week of economy.
Every department is striving to offer features that will draw shoppers to the store regardless of selling prices--regardless of cost.

Therefore one-fourth to one-half reductions will stampede regular prices.

Three things give force and confidence to the Round-Up sale--the character of the house, the high grade goods carried, and the very low prices.

☐ Hundreds of extra salespeople.
☐ Every facility to handle trade quickly
☐ No rushing, no crowding; extra salespeople to insure one ample time to look around.

☐ Saturday will be a big day--a long, hard day--so come out in the forenoon.
☐ In the evening, orchestra music.

If you want dress goods or silks, come.
If you want gloves, parasols or umbrellas, come.
If you want domestics and summer wash materials, come.
If you want linens, come.
If you want art needlework goods or pyrography materials, come.
If you want lace, embroideries and trimmings, come.
If you want ribbons, come.
If you want dainty neckwear, come.
If you want veils or handkerchiefs, come.
If you want candies, come.
If you want belts, leather novelties, etc., come.
If you want little notions, come.
If you want jewelry and jewelry ornaments, come.
If you want druggists' sundries, come.
If you want men's accessories to dress, come.
If you want oxfords or shoes, come.
If you want women's and children's underwear and hosiery, come.
If you want muslin underwear, come.
If you want undershirts, kimono, etc., come.
If you want corsets, come.
If you want ice cream and cooling drinks, come.
If you want little house furnishings, garden and lawn supplies, kitchen utensils, china, cut glass, etc., come.
If you want furniture, metal beds, framed pictures, etc., come.
If you want suits, dresses, skirts and waists, come.
If you want millinery, come.
If you want carpets, rugs, draperies, etc., come.
If you want boys' and girls' apparel, come.