Swift Justice. - An account ap peared in the NEWS some three weeks ago concerning a homicide at Soda Springs, a cowboy having shot a citizen in a saloon and made his escape. We learn from a contieman just arrived from Idaho that the murderer was subsequently captured, indicted, tried, and on Saturday last convicted of mansia ighter, all within one mouth from the time of the killing. The extreme penalty for the crime is ten years in the penitentiary, and it is presumed the defendant will receive the full ben- holding spellbound her audience by her fit of it.
