RAPID TRANSIT IN OGDEN CANYON

Work on Extension to Ogden Valley Points Now Under Way.

BIG FOUR COUNTY EXHIBITION

Primary Election Sept. 9—Farewell Meeting of S. S. Workers—Funeral Services—News Briefs.

Ogden, August 24.—Saturday afternoon the preliminary work upon the extension of the canyon branch of the Ogden Rapid Transit company's line through Ogden canyon was commenced. Although no large crew was put to work a small force is at work clearing the track which is laid to about the first bridge in the canyon and at which point the company will put in its first bridge.

As was announced in the columns of this paper more than a week ago the work would be rushed through so that as much as possible can be accomplished before the snow flies. The heaviest work will be between the canyon and a point on the north side of the river and opposite the saw mill.

From the information at hand it is the company's intention to keep on the north side of the river all through the canyon after crossing and recrossing the river at the mouth of the canyon. This will only require two bridges and which will be within 100 yards of each other. After the river is crossed the second time there is an opportunity to build the grade to the Oakes on the north side of the river. It is believed that the line will reach Hartsdale and other points in Ogden valley within a year.

Elaborate Preparation for Auspicious Opening September 30.

Ogden, Aug. 24.—The officials of the Big Four County fair are making elaborate preparations for the opening of the fair on Sept. 30. Smith and members of the presidency and members of the quorum of apostles will be the guests of the fair association on that day. The state fair in Ogden will be one of the greatest for entertainment ever undertaken by the city. The attractions will be the best obtainable besides the races and exhibits that have already been announced. It is the intention of the officers of the fair to give plenty of free shows and exhibitions for its patrons.

The Big Stock-Reducing and Cash-Getting Carnival will End This Week

There are five more shopping days in which to avail yourself of the grand bargains offered. Time is passing. The bargains still on our counters and shelves beckon and call to you to join the throngs of people who have realized the advantages of the past three weeks and who appreciate THE OPPORTUNITIES THE COMING WEEK OFFERS.

BUT A FEW DAYS MORE and this Great Clothing Event will have passed into history. The savings of the people have been phenomenal and the prices we have named and the values we have given will be remembered by the people for all time to come. All short lots which have accumulated from the past three weeks of this tremendous carnival are now assembled in special offerings throughout the store and sacrificed for what they are worth to you. Money has been stretched to the limit of its purchasing power here. Every article in stock has had the blood let out of its prices. Every offering in the store spells—and you must see with your own eyes the offerings we quote. We have notified the people and they have gathered in multitudes. We have proved to them the advantage of buying from ROWE & KELLY and that every one gets a square deal, and now as a final call for things you still want, which can be purchased here at less price than ever offered before—including every article in the house—we ask your attention to the following offerings, and there are numerous clerks to wait upon you in an intelligent and able manner.

BARGAINS==BARGAINS==BARGAINS

A lot of 100 Suits, worth $13.50 to $20.00, choice $6.75.
One lot of two-piece suits and three-piece suits, half price.

BOYS' HATS, worth from $1.25 to $1.75, choice 95c.

ANOTHER SLICE OUT OF PRICES ON SHIRTS AND TROUSERS—Competitors say we are losing money. That's none of their business—we expected to. We intended to—but the people got the benefit.
Boys' khaki suits, worth $1, for 48c.

UNDERWEAR.
Unprecedented values will prevail during the last week of the carnival.

RUSKIN SAYS: "True economy no more means saving money than spending money," and the opportunities offered in our great carnival show the truth of this saying. It is true economy to spend judiciously, and extravagant and expensive not to spend while such bargains are offered you. You should make a practice to come every day and it will pay you to come many miles to attend.

REMEMBER—This big stock-reducing, cash-getting Yellow Carnival closes next Saturday, August 29. You have seen what we have done—that we have lived up to our advertisements to the letter—and the coming week the offerings will overshadow every previous effort.
