AMERICAN SUFFRAGIST MEETS DENMARK'S QUEEN.

The third conference of the International League of Woman Suffraging The third conference of the International League of Woman Suffraging held this year in Copenhagen adjourned on August 11. During the confer-ence the Queen of Denmark granted an audience to Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, the American president of the league. The queen said she regretted that the term of mourning for the late king prevented her entertaining the delegates. She expressed admiration of American women, saying they were so active and progressive, and the women of other countries should take them as their model.
