

RESOLUTIONS AGAINST LYNCHING

Colored Women Adopt Report
From Committee on Address
At Final Meeting.

COLORADO SPRINGS NEXT YEAR.

Final Session Sees the Adoption of Constitution—Federation to Meet Annually.

At the final session of the Western Federation of Colored Women yesterday the most important business transacted was the adoption of a constitution. The committee submitted a draft of a constitution, which was adopted by sections with a few unimportant amendments. The federation will meet annually in the month of May. The name and motto for the official paper of the federation were also selected. The paper will be published monthly in this city by the president of the federation. It will be known as the Western Women's Advocate, and the motto is: "Help the Fallen."

The session was opened by singing "Hail to the Nation" and a prayer by the chaplain, Mrs. Grace Murray. The minutes were then read and approved, after which a ballot was taken on the selection of a name and motto for the paper. The name "The Western Women's Advocate" was chosen. The motto "Help the Fallen" was also adopted. The constitution was then submitted by Mrs. Julia Emery, chairman of the committee, and was adopted by a large majority. The federation will meet annually in the month of May. The name and motto for the official paper of the federation were also selected. The paper will be published monthly in this city by the president of the federation. It will be known as the Western Women's Advocate, and the motto is: "Help the Fallen."

The following report from the committee on address to the colored women of the west was also adopted:

To the members of W. F. of C. W. We, your committee on address to the western women, report as follows: The Western Federation, in convention assembled, greet the women of the western states, upon the success attained by this movement, and the confidence of the many energetic race loving women. We invite the co-operation of all the women of our section and especially those who have the interest of our future welfare at heart. In the life of all nations there is a time when great events take place, and pressing measures demand concerted action, and in order to better understand and cope with the rapid march of civilization, we have come together for each other's benefit and have formulated plans and a perfect organization for the protection and mutual benefit of the western women.

We are now in a position to do much more for the women in our section and we have the associated efforts of the thinking women of our race. If there are any women in the world who should be justly proud of organized effort it should be us.

We are living in an age that the lynch mania has become so contagious in the different sections of our country, that threatens to sap the lifeblood of the American Republic, the innocent and feeblest of our race, a colored man and his wife in the state of Mississippi recently, is a burning and everlasting disgrace to Christian America. The tortures and barbarities practiced on the innocent and feeblest of our race, are in no way lessened by the fact that they are being committed in the face of the world. We must be organized, and we must be thrifty. We must be careful and prudent and build up strong moral character to stand the test at the hands of public opinion.

We earnestly invite all the women of this section of country to join with us in the work that we propose to do through the Western Federation. We must be organized, and we must be thrifty. We must be careful and prudent and build up strong moral character to stand the test at the hands of public opinion.

We earnestly invite all the women of this section of country to join with us in the work that we propose to do through the Western Federation. We must be organized, and we must be thrifty. We must be careful and prudent and build up strong moral character to stand the test at the hands of public opinion.

CO-OPERATIVE LAUNDRY.

Comes as the Result of Failing to Unify the Existing Laundries.

The Federation of Labor, through the Women's Label League, has begun co-operative building in Salt Lake by installing a laundry at 76 North 15th West street. It is the first movement of this kind in Utah and is the result of the failure to unify the city laundries, to do which an attempt was made last year. The movement was further inspired by the rapid growth of the Citizens' Alliance.

The laundry will begin work next Monday morning. The building was not used until last Tuesday. Charles Bird, a Butte laundryman, is in charge of the plant. The officers of the corporation are Thomas Watkins, president; J. Robinson, secretary, and Carl Ostby, treasurer. Fifteen employees will go to work Monday.

The women are very enthusiastic over

A Cough

Sometimes necessary. Generally useless. It tells of inflammation in the throat, bronchial tubes, or lungs. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral quiets the irritation, masters the inflammation, heals the bruised membranes. Your doctor will explain more fully. He knows. Trust him.

"We have kept Ayer's Cherry Pectoral in the house for 25 years. No medicine in the world equals it for lung troubles."—Mrs. A. Pomeroy, Appleton, Minn. 25c, 50c, $1.00. J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

the enterprise. They are all pledged to its support and the management declares that work will be done at less cost than any other place in the city. But it isn't so much a question of money. The label people swear they will not patronize non-union laundries. Rather than do so, they will send their clothes to Ogden each week.

The endorsement of the new laundry will be asked at the next meeting of the Federation of Labor. A charter has already been applied for at Troy, N. Y., for a laundry workers' union.

UTAH-IDAHO CATHOLICS.

New York Editor Makes Enthusiastic Report of Meeting at Ogden.

The following about Utah and Idaho Knights of Columbus, appeared in a recent issue of the Register of New York City, a weekly publication devoted to the interests of the order:

What was probably the greatest and most enthusiastic assemblage of the Catholic laity ever held in the fair city of Ogden was the gathering of the Knights Sunday. A large number from Boise, Pocatello and Salt Lake City were present to witness the conferring of the first and second degrees on a class of forty-five candidates by Ogden council and the exemplification of the major degree by T. D. George J. Gibson, assisted by the degree team of Salt Lake council. Just one year ago this month Salt Lake degree team instituted Ogden council and conferred the three degrees on a class of thirty-five.

Today Ogden council can proudly boast of being the banner council of Utah and Idaho, with a membership of over one hundred and twenty-five. This was the third time within the year that the Salt Lake degree team have visited Ogden and conferred degrees. Sunday marked the dawn of a new era for the Catholics of Utah and Idaho, when the brothers of Boise, Pocatello, Ogden and Salt Lake councils gathered round the feast board and with hearts filled with brotherly love renewed the pledges of fraternal charity.

ENGLISH ORGANIST HERE.

Played on Tabernacle Instrument Last Evening—Tomorrow's Recital.

Bruce Gordon Kingsley, Mus. Bach., of London, was the performer on the Tabernacle organ at yesterday's recital. He is a graduate in music of the University of London, is an associate of the Royal College of Organists, and for some time was organist of Kilbourne Parish, London. He is traveling through the United States giving organ recitals and also accompanying himself with musical conditions as existing in this country. Mr. Kingsley presented the following program: Organ Concerto in B flat, first movement, Handel; Aria, "The Lullaby," Bach; Prelude in G sharp minor, Bachman; Dance de la Fee-Drage, Tchaikovsky; Overture, Die Meistersinger, Wagner. This is a program calling for musicianship and skill as an executant, and Mr. Kingsley proved himself equal to the task. He is a ready and accurate performer, and the facility with which he manipulated the registration of an organ that he had not seen until that day was simply evidence of the artist's ability to adapt himself to new and untried conditions. Mr. Kingsley was happy in his treatment of the selections, especially in the dance number which was clever and striking. The Meistersinger number showed the man's capabilities as an artist, particularly in technical powers, for the close harmonies and dissonances at times came so thick and fast and were massed up so, that the closest attention to the score is imperative to avoid errors—and yet, Mr. Kingsley played this as he did the other numbers, entirely from memory. The Prelude brought out well the powers of varied treatment for which the Tabernacle organ is noted as an exceptional instrument, and the performer seemed thoroughly at home. He made an excellent impression, and is evidently a young man of musical promise. Mr. Kingsley is very free from all affectation, which of itself lends a charm to his work.

Tomorrow's recital by Prof. McClellan will be one of unusual interest. It begins at 8:20 o'clock in the evening, closing the doors, at each performance.

YEE GET WILL NOT GET.

Young Chinaman Proves His Legal Right to Remain in United States.

Yee Get was before Commissioner Twomey yesterday afternoon as a subject for deportation. He won his case, however, proving his right to reside here by showing that his father was a merchant in San Francisco at the time Yee Get came into the country. Get is living with an uncle in this city. He is a bright young Chinese and showed the commissioner that he could write a fair hand in English, even though this is but his third year in America. He is 18 years of age.

WEDDED CLANDESTINELY.

Young Salt Lake Couple Who Chose Provo Instead of Farmington.

Miss Frances Louise Lowe and Samuel Walter Westerfield were quietly married at Provo on July 4 and have just made it known. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Lowe, 550 east Third South street, and the groom a son of S. B. Westerfield, the real estate man. The young people have been betrothed for some time. When the Loves went camping in Provo canyon, the ardent lover determined to have the knot tied at once. He visited the canyon, brought his affianced into town and the rest was easy. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Goodwin.

STILL THEY COME.

Fourth of July Accident Reports Continue to Pour In—Roman Candle Ball.

Alma N. Russell, a veteran engineer of the Rio Grande, came near losing his sight at Thistle Junction the other day through the reckless firing of a Roman candle. Mr. Russell was standing on the station platform and the fireworks in the hands of a man at the lunch counter. One of the balls from the candle struck the engineer in the right eye. He was brought to this city and treated and it is hoped his sight will not be impaired on account of the accident.

DALE SUCCEEDS WOOD.

New Salvation Army Captain Royally Welcomed Last Night.

Salvation Army people in this city held a grand welcome and justification meeting last night at local headquarters in honor of the arrival of Capt. John T. Dale, who has come from Oklahoma to take charge of the Utah and Idaho divisions in place of Capt. W. P. Wood, ordered to California for station. Capt. Dale has been in the army 23 years, beginning at Paterson, N. J., and afterwards laboring in a number of far eastern fields. He will give active attention to the spiritual wants of this part of the country; and for one thing he proposes to establish fresh air camps where the old and feeble among the poor can be cared for under healthful conditions. He also wants to give the poor children outings, and intends to establish new corps in Utah, Wyoming and Idaho. The captain is accompanied by his wife, and Capt. O. M. Gallagher and family.

SUNDAY SALOON MEN.

County Attorney Pressing Charges Against Bess and Levy.

County Attorney J. J. Whitaker has filed complaints against George Bess, M. Levy and his two bartenders at the Calder's Park bar, charging them with selling liquor on Sunday. The arrests were made several days ago as reported in the "News." Bess is presently in a saloon on the corner of Twelfth South and West Temple streets and his preliminary hearing will probably be held this afternoon before Justice of the Peace Bishop, of Farmers ward, and Mr. Levy and his bartenders will have their preliminary hearing before Justice John Rider of Mill Creek.

FOR THOSE WHO WORK.

Cheap Lodging House Opened by Rev. John E. Andrews.

A home for workmen has been established at 274 south East Temple street by Rev. John E. Andrews, superintendent of the Christian Crusade movement, which is national in character. The place has been fitted up with beds, reading room and a mission hall. It is the intention to charge the minimum cost for the beds so that the poorer class of workmen can have suitable lodging quarters. It is the intention also to assist the lodgers in any way possible to secure employment and otherwise advance their interests.

A GOOD SOUL CALLED HOME.

Friend of the Elders Falls a Victim to Paralysis.

Mrs. Marie Portmann, a faithful member of the Church and a good friend of the missionaries in her native land, died yesterday at her home in this city, 221 B street, at the ripe age of 80 years. A few weeks ago Mrs. Portmann was stricken with paralysis, which finally terminated in her death. She was one of the first to join the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Switzerland, and her home was ever open to the Elders who labored there, and who always remembered her for her open-hearted hospitality and kindness in many ways. So attentive was she to their every want that when some of them were afflicted with smallpox she took them in and nursed them till their recovery. She came to Salt Lake a little over a year ago, and leaves three daughters, all residents of this state. The funeral will be held from her late residence Saturday, July 9, at 1 p. m. Friends are invited.

HOW UTAH COLONY SPENT THE FOURTH

Students, Missionaries and Friends Have a Joyous Celebration In Chicago.

SCENE WAS WASHINGTON PARK.

Program of Patriotic Exercises Carried Out—President Woodruff's Condition.

Special Correspondence. Chicago, July 5.—One of the most delightful events in the history of the Utah colony in Chicago, was the Fourth of July celebration held in Washington park yesterday. Near 300 students, Elders, Saints and friends gathered, with well filled lunch baskets, at 10 o'clock. Old friends were met, new ones were made and everybody started in to have a genuine good time.

After lunch an impromptu program was carried out. Elder German E. Ellsworth acted as master of ceremonies and introduced Walter Cluff as orator of the day. Mr. Cluff, in a jocular manner, said he laid no claim to the honor and recited the "Rising of '76." Mr. N. T. Porter was then called upon and responded in a very able manner, speaking upon the meaning of patriotism. A glowing tribute to "Utah and Her Patriots" was given by Mr. R. F. Cummings, followed with a quartet by four Elders.

"Utah's Students" was responded to by Mr. Henry Peterson. "The Unfurling of the Stars and Stripes on Independence Day" was given by Mr. J. McChie, and Miss Alice Reynolds responded to "Utah Women." Crowds gathered from all around and before the program was over the audience was almost twice as large as at first. All listened with eagerness and many strangers remained at the close to become better acquainted and join in the games. The principal feature of the sports was a contest between the students and Elders. After a double defeat by the students the Elders decided to continue in the more serious walks of life.

PREST. WOODRUFF'S HEALTH.

Perhaps the most important event of the past few days and one in which the colony is most deeply interested, is the operation through which President Woodruff has been forced to go. The readers of the "News" are already familiar with the fact that he has suffered the loss of his right eye. Elder B. W. Naughton, president of the Utah colony, was in the hospital only three days. He was preaching on the street the Monday night before the operation and was out again the following Friday night. In two weeks' time Dr. Wilder promises him another eye.

INTERESTING GOSSIP.

Mr. B. F. Cummings of New York, having come this far with his wife and family, who are on their way to Utah, is remaining in the city for a week. He gave a very interesting talk Sunday evening at the Latter-day Saints' meetinghouse. The subject was "The Literature," paying special attention to Prof. N. L. Nelson's new book. He is at present 14 Elders in the city, 173 Saints and about 10 students. Elder B. W. Naughton, president of the branch, Elder Harrington, former president, having been called to labor in Michigan. Thirty street meetings are held each week.

Mr. Donnie Call and Mr. Don B. Colton were visitors at the university last week. Mr. Call was on his way home from Ann Arbor, Mich., to spend his summer vacation. Mr. Colton has returned to continue work during the summer. Both are law students.

Mr. George B. Hendricks and Mr. Osborn Wilder spent a few days last week with their friends here. They were on their way from England to spend summer vacation at home. Miss Jones, from the Brigham Young college, who has been ill for a few days, is able to be at work again.

Miss E. and Miss Swan of Salt Lake, cousins of Mr. Convey Ashton, are spending a few very pleasant days with students and friends.

Last Friday evening Miss Reynolds, Miss Adams, and Miss Kelley entertained in a delightful way the Utah students at their home, 2732 Jackson.

DYE WORKS ROBBED.

Burglars Ransack the Place and Stock Up With Coats and Pants.

The Model Dye works, 148 South West Temple street, was broken into last night, and eight pairs of trousers and 12 coats stolen. The burglars gained entrance through a rear window, and took their time in ransacking the place. The police were informed of the burglary, and they have a description of the stolen property.

Sleeplessness

Is akin to insanity. Many a woman realizes this as she lies awake hour by hour peeping through darkness with phantoms, standing by the bed, and the rustle of the bedclothes. Such symptoms in general point to disease of the delicate womanly organs, and a constant drain of the vital and nervous forces. This condition cannot be overcome by sleeping powders. The diseased condition must be cured before the consequences of disease are removed. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures the womanly diseases which cause nervousness and sleeplessness. It is the best of tonics and invigorants, nourishes the nerves, encouraging the appetite and inducing refreshing sleep. $500 Reward for Woman Who Cannot be Cured. Proprietors and makers of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription now feel daily warranted in offering to pay $500 in legal money of the United States for any case of Leucorrhoea, Female Weakness, Protrusion, or Falling of Womb, which they cannot cure. All they ask is a fair and reasonable trial of their means of cure. "My wife was sick for over eight years," writes Albert H. Smith, Esq., of Albion, N. Y. "I read about Dr. Pierce's medicine and we decided to try his 'Favorite Prescription.' It sent her to the drug store and got one bottle and the first dose gave ease and sleep. She had not slept any for three nights. Being sure that it would cure her I sent for five more bottles and when she had taken the sixth bottle she was sound and well." Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets should be used with "Favorite Prescription" whenever a laxative is required.

School trustee elections were held in all parts of the state.
