FLOATING FRAGMENTS.

The western "auroral" yet continue. A coal famine is threatened in Logan.

A drunken soldier was taken in last night by the police. Brigham City and Willard haul coal from Ogden in teams.

A case of assault and battery was today filed No. 10, including costs. A hoggy belonging to Swanner Bros. was taken off last night, while the driver was in a saloon.

Gibbert's brewery at Virginia City, Montana, burned down on Saturday morning. Loss $9,000 to $7,000.

A login boy confidently informed a schoolmate that the thermometer was down to zero the other day.

A Chinese section-hand on the Northern Pacific was run over near Avon a few nights since and instantly killed.

During November seven patients were admitted to the Montana Insane Asylum and two others discharged as cured.

Walter Matheson, of Billings, Montana, lost three buildings, valued at $3,000, by fire last Friday morning. Insurance $1,500.

See what H. A. Reed has to say in our special columns about his sale to-morrow, Friday Dec. 14th, at 11 a.m., No. 133 Main Street, up stairs.

A waiter in Coffee John's, was robbed of $10 last night, it is ascertained by a room mate. The money was taken from a trunk in the absence of the owner.

Two shawls, a large double one, and the other a brown, with brown and white mixed border, were stolen from a buggy in front of Gen. D. H. Wells' residence last evening between 6 and 7 o'clock.

A young man named Hoxie, near Sulphur Springs, Montana, while out cutting wood in the mountains, accidentally cut his knee, and after crawling to his cabin with much exertion, lay there three days waiting for help. He came nigh bleeding to death.

The Indian murderer, K'lah, was before U. S. Commissioner Gilchrist yesterday, to undergo examination, but owing to the difficulty of getting an interpreter and the desire to give the defendant a fair hearing, the case was postponed till January 14, 1884. He will abide till that time in the Pen.

A series of good, old-fashioned social dancing parties will be held in the Twelfth Ward Assembly Rooms, commencing to-morrow night and continuing for each of the four following Friday nights. The committee are all sterling people, full of vim and sociability. The series is bound to be a success.

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Watch, Chain and Locket Lost.—This morning a lady lost a gold watch and chain with locket attached. The initials E. A. are on the locket. The finder will be rewarded on leaving the articles at this office for the owner. See advt.

Y. L. M. I. A.—The Conference of the Y. L. M. I. Association of this State of Zion will be held in the 14th Ward Assembly Rooms on Saturday, the 15th inst., commencing at 2 p.m. A prompt attendance is requested by the President, Mrs. Mary A. Freeze.

A Generous Act.—The officers of the Deseret Hospital Association most gratefully acknowledge the donation of ten tons of coal from the generous and benevolent gentleman, A. G. H. E. of this city, whose kindness to the needy at this season of the year has become proverbial. E. R. WELLS, Sec'y.

United in Wedlock.—To-day Brother Joseph Mayne and Miss Emily E. Keop, of this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony. Both were formerly of London, England. They are an amiable and worthy young couple, and have our best wishes for their future happiness and prosperity.

Funeral.—To-day we were shown by Mr. O. F. Day a quantity of embalmed and preserved flowers which were used at the funeral of Bishop Hunter. They are in the form of an anchor and a couple of wreaths. The flowers largely possess their natural original freshness of appearance, and have been skillfully manipulated by Mr. Day.

School Teachers Organization.—The following has been handed in for publication:

To the Teachers of Salt Lake City: Your committee appointed by the meeting on the 7th inst., will be ready to report at the meeting appointed for the 14th at 4 p.m. at the Thirteenth District school house.

All the teachers in the County are expected to be present to take part in the organization and election of officers. CHAS. H. WILCOX, JOHN MORGAN, LYMAN WELLS.

In His New Premises.—Mr. W. L. Hickard, the well known harness, saddle and leather merchant, has opened out with a splendid stock in the new premises to which he has recently removed in the Alta Block, adjoining the Walker Opera House. Among his stock are a few attractive specialties, including Light's patent harness rack, which keeps harness in complete order and dress. He also keeps a patent horse blanket rack, with a capacity for holding from 30 to 40 blankets. We understand those kept by Mr. Hickard are its only rivals of the kind on sale in Utah.

THE LADIES' FAIR.

A BEAUTIFUL AND VARIEGATED DISPLAY.

The Fair held under the auspices of the Committee on Ways and Means of the Deseret Hospital, acting conjointly with the ladies of the Unity Club, for the benefit of that worthy institution, was thrown open to the public at 10 o'clock this morning. The dedicatory services took place last evening at 7 o'clock.

They were of a simple and semi-private character, consisting of a prayer by President George Q. Cannon, followed by brief addresses from President Joseph F. Smith, Mayor William Jennings, President George Q. Cannon, President Angus M. Cannon, and Counselor D. H. Wells, delivered in the presence of the committee and a few invited guests.

The Fair is the first one held under these auspices, and is really a credit to all concerned. The front of the Social Hall, where it is taking place, is ornamented with the Stars and Stripes, with the one word "Fair" conspicuously placed in the centre. The exhibition occupies the hall floor and stage of the interior.

Four large booths and six tables, covered with a profusion of all that is rich and rare in ladies' fancy work, are ranged round the sides and in different parts of the hall, at each of which stands a lady attendant, handsome, smiling and amiable. All of the city and most of the country wards are represented through the Ladies Societies and Young Ladies' Associations, who have contributed most liberally to the exhibition.

Besides those above mentioned, the principal features of the Fair, which is literally full of attractions, are a large and heavily loaded Christmas tree and three side exhibitions, viz: "Model of the Temple at Jerusalem," "Ruins of China," and the "Fishing Pond." A handsomely decorated lemonade stand is placed in prominent position. The refreshment department is a special feature, occupying the whole of the stage.

National flags are profusely displayed about the interior, from various parts of which depend Chinese lanterns, designed to be lit up in the evening, which will doubtless heighten materially the spectacular effect of the brilliant and well-colored exhibition. The admission fee is placed at 25 cents. The Fair will be open during the rest of the week.

Third District Court.—Proceedings on Thursday, December 13th, 1883, Chief Justice Hunter presiding.

H. S. Reedall vs. G. M. Pierce; motion of defendant to dissolve the attachment heretofore submitted; Court considers the grounds set out in the motion, holds that the defendant, by reason of the premises, is not in a position to ask dissolution of attachment, and denies the motion to dissolve.

J. C. Wilmerding et al. vs. John H. Hurd et al.; Court refuses motion to dissolve attachment.

Heber Elwood vs. Robert Reader; in certiorari; motion to quash writ and return writ and heard heretofore; writ sustained and motion to quash overruled.

Jane N. Sholes vs. G. M. Pierce et al.; motion for dissolution of attachment, overruled. Exception. Defendants may have 60 days to appeal.

Chas. L. Rice vs. James Bradwell ten days allowed plaintiff to amend complaint.

Edward Kimball vs. Empire Mining Co., two cases; dismissed for want of prosecution, with leave to re-instate at December term, 1883, on proper showing made.

Local Matters in Lewiston.—Bishop William H. Lewis, of Lewiston, Cache County, made us a pleasant call this morning. He reports things as progressing in his neighborhood. Splendid crops have been raised the past year; and about 80,000 bushels of grain realized. The canal from Cub River, a distance of fifteen miles, has done much for irrigation. The work cost $80,000, and this at a time when the resources of the people were drawn upon heavily by other improvements.

Since Conference a new meeting house has been erected, a structure 32x60 feet, the roof of which is now on and work on the inside going ahead rapidly. By New Year's it will be all done except plastering, and entirely completed by next Spring. It will cost $4,000. A Co-op. granary is also among recent improvements.

The population of the settlement is about 415, in ninety families, but is much scattered. Mutual improvement and other meetings are well attended. The weather is pretty cold at present, with three to four feet of snow on the level. Bishop Lewis came down to the city yesterday and will return to-day or to-morrow.

The Halley Country.—This afternoon we received a pleasant call from Mr. John Pearce, cashier at the Halley, Idaho, Station of the Oregon Short Line. We learn from him that many of the mines in the neighborhood of that town and in the vicinity of Caldwell, the present terminus of the road, are among the richest in the country. There is also a good deal of excellent farming and grazing land in that region. Mr. Pearce is of opinion that that section has a prosperous business future before it, and that the Caldwell boom is likely to be permanent. His views are based upon a personal inspection of a number of the mines and the surface of the country.

Look After Your Soles.—Mr. Teasdel has an advertisement in our paper to-day in relation to the sales of men. That joke may be somewhat antiquated, but the boots and shoes he offers for sale are brand new. Just look at the figures he shows. They are surprisingly low. Such a combination of cheapness and excellence is not to be met with in these times when the weather demands that all should be possessed of good understandings.

The performance of "Ingomar" at the Theatre last evening was witnessed by an audience which, though small, was perhaps equal to the general merit of the presentation. The best acting of the evening was by Miss Adams and Mr. Lindsay, who, however, seemed to feel the lack of efficient support, and not without cause. Some parts of the play were quite thrilling and effective, but the performance was marred at frequent intervals by the weakness of most of the subordinate characters, many of whom were not "up in their lines," and depended too much upon the prompter. More rehearsal might have corrected much that was only half way satisfactory.

Burglary.—The residence of Mr. Harkness, of the law firm of Bennett and Harkness, was entered by a burglar or burglars during last night and about $100 in money and two mineral bricks stolen. Nothing was known of it until this morning, when Mr. Harkness, on arising, missed his clothes which he had left in a chair at his bedside on retiring. The chair and clothes were afterwards found in the lower part of the house. The sum above named had been taken from the pockets, but the robbers had considerably and with thoughtful policy, left a gold watch which the apparel also contained. It was subsequently ascertained that a cabinet of specimens had been rifled, and the two bricks, one of them of silver belonging to Mr. Harkness' daughter, included in the plunder. The thief evidently got into the house by a window which was found open.

Mr. I. G. Hoops, traveling correspondent of the Brooklyn Journal, of Chicago, is in town.

"Goliath" Gilbert & Sullivan's latest and most tuneful opera, will be given by the Chicago Church Choir Opera Co., at the Walker Opera House on Monday evening next.

The box office for the sale of reserved seats for the C. O. C. Opera House, will open to-morrow morning at the Walker Opera House.

Miss Mary Beebe, of the Chicago Church Choir Opera Co. was prima donna of the Boston Ideal for several years.
