LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

Correspondents writing for publication are requested to write on one side of the paper only. No notice can be taken of anonymous communications. Correspondents' names must accompany their communications, but not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of reliability.

THEATRICAL.—"The Streets of New York" was well received yesterday evening by a large audience. Our space does not permit us to go into elaborate details as regards the performance and the performers. We confine ourselves to a brief notice of the impersonations of the principal characters. Madame Scheller gave us a faithful picture of the self-willed proud Belle of Fifth Avenue, and dressed splendidly. Mr. Graham was successful as Tom Rader. Mr. Lindsay is the best representative of Gideon Bloodgood we have seen. Mr. Thorne evinced considerable talent in his rendition of Captain Fairweather, and will no doubt prove a valuable acquisition to our Theatre. Mr. Margetts was an excellent Puffy. In one scene he broke a long "ominous silence" by a well applied pun, and the public was certainly thankful for it. Mrs. Clawson could not be excelled as Mrs. Puffy. Mr. Hardie played the part of Mark Livingston with good taste, and Mr. Paul distinguished himself as Dan. Paul Fairweather and Mrs. Fairweather were well represented by Mr. McLendon and Mr. Bowring. Miss Adams played Lucy with charming sweetness. The Union Square scene with the Street cars running was received with great applause. "The Streets of New York" will be repeated, for the last time, this evening.

To-morrow evening the pet drama of our theatre-goers, "The Pearl of Savoy," will be produced, with Madame Scheller in her great role of "Marie," with songs. The cast in some respects has been changed. Miss Adams will shine in the part of Chonchon, and Mr. Hardie plays Father Lonsdale. New scenery has been painted expressly for "The Pearl of Savoy."

"Tenderloin," the gorgeous fairy Spectacle now in rehearsal, and will shortly be produced in an improved style.

FROM CEDAR.—By letter from Bishop Henry East, to President George A. Smith, dated Dec. 20th, with which we have been favored, we learn the following items: Peace and prosperity prevail in Cedar. The weather has been unusually fine and mild for the season, allowing hay to be cut and wheat sown the day of writing. Two grist mills are in successful operation and doing good business. The grave yard was being fenced in with excellent picket fencing. A co-operative and mercantile association was formed and considerable ready cash raised to purchase goods. The Female Relief Society was doing well. Three day schools and a large Sunday school were prospering. The dramatic association was favoring the citizens with performances. Elder Levi W. Hancock had visited Cedar, spent several days and held five meetings at which the people enjoyed themselves much, and Bro. Hancock left for his home in "Dixie" full of good feelings and blessings to the brethren of Cedar. B. Larkin, President Young's shepherd, had passed through Cedar about three weeks previously with the sheep he had in charge, and their condition fully sustained the superiority of the course adopted in their treatment. The Indians from Beaver to Santa Clara had been having a huge rabbit hunt in Iron county during the two months of November and December, and honored the Bishop with frequent calls, as they found a little flour quite an addition to their rabbit meat.

POISON.—This morning, Alderman Clinton had quite a love, and found a number of individuals generous enough to add the City Treasury with a portion of their spare greenbacks.

William H. McFall, handed over $10 for being drunk and disturbing the peace.

Carl Hanson expended $5 and costs for the privilege of getting "tight."

William Van, not having the fear of the newspapers in his heart, committed a cowardly assault yesterday on Mr. J. Dwyer, of the Railroad News Depot, for which he this morning paid $25.

Rev. Henry L. Foote, for breaking the City ordinance by fast riding, paid $5 of a fine.

August Wolf, a soldier, while rejoicing with a number of lately discharged comrades over their release imbibed too plentifully and disturbed the Theatre, for which he paid $10 and costs.

Charles Tels, also a soldier, paid $5 and costs for interfering with a police officer in discharge of his duty. Wolf was the matter.

Two "gentlemen" of the sporting fraternity, were each fined $100 for indulging in their peculiar proclivities.

SAN FRANCISCO EXCHANGE.—We have received the following communication from Mr. J. A. Coolidge, Superintendent of the Merchants' Exchange, San Francisco, which we publish, believing that it may be of some interest and importance to the business men of this Territory:

Dear Sir.—It is, perhaps, not understood in your district, that gentlemen, not residents of San Francisco, are entitled to free admission at the Merchants' Exchange in this city.

The Exchange furnishes every facility for business, or to become acquainted with business men. It is the most central business point in the city, and contains more information in the way of news than can be found elsewhere. The latest Telegraphic Dispatches, Papers, Magazines, Local and Ship News, together with a variety of valuable information make it the rendezvous of the multitude. Strangers will find the Exchange most interesting at one o'clock daily, the hours of Chicago, and by leaving their names and address on the register they can be found more readily and business expedited. Telegraph Office, Mail and Express boxes in the building.

By publishing the above information you will promote the public welfare.

Very respectfully yours,
J. A. COOLIDGE,
Superintendent.
