Prest. Wilford Woodruff spoke of the prosperous condition of the people and the great abundance of the harvest—fruits being matured the present season in localities where they had never grown before. The blessing of the Almighty was with the people, and would continue so to be if they were faithful to their duties; spoke favorably of the exertions of the people in Temple building.

Bishop George D. Snell reported

Rishop George D. Snell reported favorably of Spanish Fork Ward.

President George Q. Cannon, in his remarks, dwelt upon the blessings promised the observers of the Word of Wisdom, which were verifled, as could be proven by the experience of many; quoted the recent experience of a Bishop who had close ly observed in his Ward, that members of those families observing the Word of Wisdom, when attacked with the diphtheria did not die, but recovered. The speakers' own experience proved that when it was observed, there was less sickness and greater faith, and the ordinance for nity from a the sick more efficacious.

Saturday, 2 p.m. After the presentation of the genwho were unanimously sustained by Cash Paid For CLEAN, ALL WOOL the vote of the congregation, Bishop Halliday, of Santaquin, reported favorably of his Ward, followed by Elder K. G. Masser, president of the temporary organization of Seventies for the Stake, who reported that body of priesthood as having now gained a better understanding of the new arrangement or organization and its aims. In re-ferring to his visit through the southern portion of the Territory in the educational interest, said he had discovered a great scarcity of good Latter day Saint school teachers, but hoped this defect would soon be sup-plied through the endeavors of the normal departments of the various educational institutions of the Ter-

President John Taylor said in regard to the Seventies, they occupied a rather singular position in our present organization; it became necessary that something should be done that they might be represent-ed in their scattered condition from the headquarters of their presidenthe headquarters of their presiden-cles; this temporary organization will give them proper representation; it is not intended to break their quo-rum organizatious, for the reason that we believe theirs is one of the orders of the Priesthood that will en-dure forever. The speaker made some valuable remarks on the educational interests of the people.

President Cannon was impressed with the importance of the educational interests of the Latter-day Saints, not only with a view to the progress of knowlege among the daints themselves, but to the carry-ing of the gospel through our mis-sionary service to the highest educat-ed circles of society in the nations of the earth. The morning's meeting was occupled by Prests. Jos. F. Smith and Geo. Q. Cannon. The former dwelt PULLMAN PALACE CARS upon the ordinance of Baptism and the necessity of its observance by all the necessity of its observance by all; the latter referred to the gathering dispensation and the great and unnumbered blessings enjoyed by the Saints through obeying the impressions of its spirit.

The afternoon was occupied by Prest. John Taylor in a discourse full of interest to the Saints. The speaker was listened to with marked attention by the congregation, who, towards the close of his remarks, unanimously raised their hands in sanction of the condemnation of those of our faith who will sue their those of our faith who will sue their brethren at law contrary to the gos-
