Foraker Willing to Abide by the Verdict of the People While Taft Has Nothing to Say.

Cincinnati, O., May 8 .- Party harmony with Taft for president, J. B. Foraker for United States senator, and L. Harris for governor, is the program advanced by Georg B. Cox, forner Republican leader in Hamilton county, in a statement given to the Associated Press today. Reports from Columbus and Washington had named Mr. Cox as engaged in the conduct of negotiations looking toward a compromise between the Taft and Foraker forces, but Mr. Cox denied such sugrestions, "As far as I am concerned," he said, there is absolutely nothing to this alk. I have retired from active par-icipation in politics. Of course, I can-not absolutely refuse to advise with friends.

not absolutely refuse to advise with friends." As to the Ohio situation, he said: "In my judgment the time has come for the good of the Republican party that something should be done. We are on the eve of next fall's election. Noth-ing should be done to endanger party success. If you will recall, two years ago we had factional differences in the party and our ticket went down to de-feat. This I hope will not occur again. Our differences should be settled within the party and we should go forward as one man, which will mean victory all along the line. Ohio has a great future. We have had great men in the past and have great men now. We should take care of them. The nomination of good clean men for the municipal offices means their election and party success, next fall will be the foundation for next year's work. I would advise all my Republican friends in Ohio to take these matters into their own hands and advist them without interference by inthese matters into their own hands and adjust them without interference by individuals or factions.

adjust them without interference by in-dividuals or factions. "We must not forget that we must carry the legislature next year to elect a United States senator and get much-needed legislation, and must elect a governor and other state officers. The way to do this. I believe, is for all Republicans to put their shoulders to the wheel in their several neighbor-hoods and see to it that none but true Republicans represent them. Our watchword should be: 'Success of the Republican party,' and to 'achieve this we should support W. H. Taft for presi-dent, J. E. Foraker for senator, and A. L. Harris for governor. "I know of no personal differences that I have with Secy. Taft. There may have been some political differences, but they are things of the past, and will not be permitted to stand in the way of party success. My friends, I Foraker for senator and Harris for governor." When the attention of Senator Fore.

When the attention of Senator Fora-er was called to Mr. Cox's statement,

I have just read what Mr. Cox says. "I have just read what Mr. Cox says. If I understand him correctly, he makes a specific recommendation addressed to the Republicans of Ohio, as to what their action shall be in the convention of next year. I am not sure it calls for any response from me, but inasmuch as you seem to think it does, I will repeat that I don't want any political bonors at the hands of the Republi-cans of Ohio except with their hearty indorsement. Therefore, if what Mr. Cox suggests and recommends should meet with their approval, no one will support Secy. Taft more cordially than I shall."

Charles P. Taft, editor of the Cincin-nati Times-Star and brother of Secy. Taft, when shown the Cox interview, said "Mr. Cox takes a broad view of the matter. He sees the opportunity to elect another Ohio president, and very wisely urges that we get together."

CHAIRMAN BROWN'S POSITION. Toledo, O., May 8.--Walter F. Brown, chairman of the Republican state cen-tral committee, said tonight he would issue a call tomorrow for a meeting of the committee at Columbus Wednesday. May 15. A large number of other prom-inent Republicans will be invited. An effort will be made to secure an expres-sion in regard to the party's choice for the presidential nomination and to re-store party harmony.

sion in regard to the party's choice for the presidential nomination and to re-store party harmony. "While various party leaders." said Mr, Brown, "were urging the wisdom of a primary election to be conducted by the state central committee, there was obvious impropriety on the part of a member of that committee who might be required to assist in formulating the rules governing such a primary, se-lecting the judges and clerks of election, fixing the polling places, deciding con-tests and canvassing the returns, in arraying himself on either side. "Now that such a primary has been definitely abandoned, I am very glad to put an end to any apparent mystery about my position. Since the state con-vention in 1905, over which Seey. Taft presided as chairman, I have believed him to be the legical choice of the Re-publicans of Ohio for the presidency in 1908, and I heartily favor the move-ment to secure for him an unequivocal indersement at this line. "In my judgment, the meeting of the party leaders in connection with the state central committee will result in an unanimous expression in favor of Secy. Taft." TAFT IS SILENT.

Secy. Taft." TAFT IS SILENT.

Washington, May 8.—Secy. Taft, upon being shown the dispatches from Cin-climati containing the statements ac-credited to Senator Foraker and George B. Cox relative to his candidacy for the presidency and the situation in Ohio, declined to discuss the subject. To a group of newspaper men who sought an interview with him the secretary said: said:

Denver, May S.—The trial of Ben-jamin C. Wright, charged with the murder of his wife and 5-year-old daughter, was brought to an abrupt conclusion today when, after hearing the testimony of Prof. W. D. Engle, instructor of chemistry at Denver university, counsel for the state, at the request of the district attorney, announced that the case against Wright would not be continued, and the jury, in accordance with instruc-tions from the court, returned a ver-dict acquitting the defendant. Prof. Engle said that he had ex-smined the visc-ra and other organs of the woman and her child and testi-fied that carbon monoxide poisoning, generated, he believed, by a gas heat-er, was the cause of death. The bodies of Mrs. Wright and her daughter were found in their home on Feb. 25, last. Wright himself, ap-parently unconscious, was taken from the knews by the authorting and ther gines.

on Feb. 25, last. Wright himself, ap-parently unconscious, was taken from the house by the authorities and after-being placed in custody confessed to the chief of police that he had com-mitted the crime. However, he can give no reason for the double murder and persisted in the statement that he had no recollection of how it was accomplished. This confession he afterward repudiated and it was not referred to at his trial. The Wrights came to this city sev-eral years ago from Benton Harbor, Mich. A NARROW ESCAPE. G. Washingtonf May 8.-Afty. Join bon-aparte today gave out a statement re-ferring to the publication in a number of newspapers this morning that he might retire from office because of ill-health. It was also published in sub-stance that the department was at a low state of efficiency in consequence of the statement successful to the CLERK CHARGED WITH THEFT. New York, May S.-William O. Doug-ass, assistant loan clerk of the Trust Company of America, was indicted to-lay on three counts for larceny. He is charged with stealing bonds valued at $86,150, low state of efficiency in consequence of the attorney-general inattention to the public business. Mr. Bonaparte's statement follows: "In so far as the publications in ques-tion reflect on me personally I do not care to say anything at all about them but they reflect by implication upon my subordinates as well, since they allege that the work of the entire department is languid and ineffective, and it is my duty as its head to pronounce this statement a baid faisehood, originat-ing either in malice or else in gross and wilful ignorance of the facts. The work of the department increases every day, and I do not believe it has ever received more zealous and faithful attention than it receives now from the offi-cers and employes of the department, with the exception, of course, of the de-partment's duty to furnish a liberal daily supply of headlines for newspa-pers, and the department is not admin-istered with that laudable end in view, but for this opinion and its practical application no one is responsible or should be blamed but my unworthy self."
