"HANGING PLAYED OUT." THE CRIMINAL RECORD OF SAN FRANCIECO.

have been committed in this city since California was admitted into the Union in 1850, it is impossible to ascertain, as the records thereof are incomplete, but it is known that during the past decade they have averaged twenty-five a year.

A carefully prepared record, collated from official records of the number of legal executions and the number of convictions for homicide of various grades in San Francisco since the State became one of the Union shows that in all sixteen legal executions have taken place. Union shows that in all sixteen lagal executions have taken place. One more would have been added to the list, but the night before the day set for execution the prisoner committed suicide. This prisoner was George W. Colmere, who strangled Bridget Colmere, his wife, to death in April, 1862. He killed himself February 5, 1864. Besides these, there were eight executions by the Vigilance Committees of 1851 and 1856—four by each.

Those executed were John Jen-

Those executed were John Jenkins, hanged June 11th, 1851; James Stuart, hanged July 11, 1851; Robert McKinsey, alias McKenzie, and Samuel Whittaker, hanged August 24, 1851. Charles Cora, for the murder of Gen. Richardson, and James P. Casey, for the murder of James King, was hanged May 22, 1856. Philander Brace, for the murder of Joseph B. West, and Joseph Hetherington, for the murder of Dr. Andrew Randall and Dr. Baldwin Andrew Randall and Dr. Baldwin were hanged July 29, 1856. A total of 189 persons have in a period of 32 years suffered imprisonment for homicide where the conviction was less than that carrying with it the penalty of death.

Since the organization of the Supreme Court there have been thirteen convictions in Department 11 and sixteen in Department 12. Of these there were murder in the first degree, fourteen; murder in the second degree, two; manslaughter, thirteen. Four were sentenced to be hanged, but in none of these cases has the penalty been inflicted. Six were sent to prison for life, and the others were sent for terms ranging from three to twenty years. There are now eighteen individuals in the County Jali awaiting either trial, sentence, or the action of the trial, sentence, or the action of the Supreme Court in relation to the appeal they have taken. There is no means of approximating the number of slayers who avoided arrest, or who, being arrested, managed to get cut on straw bail or became insane.—S. F. Call.

Table Etiquette.

There are a great many people who behave well otherwise, but at table they do things that if not absolutely outer and entemble, are planissimo and sine die.

It is with a view to elevating the popular taste and etherealizing, so to speak, the manner and customs of our readers, that we give below a few hints upon table etiquette. If by writing an article of this kind we can induce one man who now wipes his hands on the table cloth to come up and take a higher ground and wipe them on his pants, we shall feel amply repaid.

If you cannot axcept an invitation to dinner do not write your regrets on the back of a pool check with a blue pencil. This is now regarded as ricochet.

A simple note to your heet in blue reucii. This is now regarded as ricochet.

A simple note to your host informing him that your washerworman refuses to relent is sufficent.

On seating yourself at the table, draw off your gloves and put them in your lap under your napkin. Do not put them in the gravy, as it would ruin the gloves and cast a gloom over the gravy. If you have just cleaned your gloves with benzine, you might leave them out in the front yard.

If you happen to drop gravy on your knife blade, back near the handle, do not run the blade down your threat to remove the gravy as it might injure your epiglotis, and is not considered embospoint anyway.

When you are at discussion.

When you are at dinner do not take up a raw oyster on your fork and playfully sak your host if it is dead. Remarks about death at dinner are in very post taste.

Pears should be held by the stem and pealed gently, but firmly, not as though you were skinning a dead torse. It is not bon ton. oranges are held on a fork while being peeled, and the facetious style of squirting the Juice in the eye of your hostess, is now au revoir.

Stones of cherries or other fruit should not be placed upon the table-cloth, but slid quietly and unostentatiously into the pocket of your neighbor or noiselessiy tossed under the table.

John Ruskin gives the following advice to young ladies: "In order to investigate one's self, it is well to find out what one is now. Don't think vaguely about it. Take pen and paper and write down as accurate a description of yourself as is possible, and if you dare not find out why you dare not, and try and get strength of heart enough to look yourself in the face, mind as well as body. Always have two mirrors on pleces and eaten with an even, graceful motion, not absorbed by the yard. In drinking wine, when you get to the bottom of your glass, do not throw your head back and draw in your breath like the exhaust of a bath tub in order to get the last drop, as it engenders a feeling of the most depressing melancholy among has been kept unchanged in all its original purity and After eating a considerable strength. It has received the amount, do not rise and unbuckle highest testimonials from the most eminent chemists in the your vest strap in order to get more room, as it is exceedingly au fait and dishabille

If by mistake you drink out of your finger-bowl, laugh heartily and make some facetious remark which will change the course of converse tion and renew the friendly feelin among the members of the party.

Ladies should take but one glass of wine at dinner; otherwise there might be difficulty in steering the male portion of the procession home Do not make remarks about the eaten. If the lady who is your company at table, whether she be your wife or the wife of some one else, common article of food, and the simplest and best modes of their preparation; help poor families in their cooking, show them how to make as much of everything as possible, and how to make their niceties; coaxing and tempting them into tidy and pretty ways, and pleading for well-folded table dorp a raw oyster into his bosom and cloths, however, coarse, and for a he should have trouble in fishing it

In view of the many murders committed in this city, particularly of late years, and the few legal executions that have followed the unlawful taking of human life, the New York prisoner's remark, "Hanging is played out," will apply to San Francisco.
