Twenty-five People Burned to Death or Suffocated in a New York Building.

SOME PECULIAR FEATURES.

Fire Put Out in Twenty Minutes, but Police Could Learn of Only One Person in the Fire.

New York, Nov. 1 .-- Twenty-one men, three women and a 10-month-old baby were burned to death or suffocated in a fire that started early this morning in the "House of All Nations." a five-story tenement house, at 426 Eleventh avenue, and which the police and coroner believe to have been of incendiary origin.

Some of the peculiar features of the disaster. In addition to the startling loss of life, are that the fire was practically extinguished in 20 minutes; that the police could learn of but one person being injured, other than those who lost their lives, and that the property loss was only $7,000. The dead are mostly Italians.

The only person injured, so far as can be learned, is Mary Jane Quinn, who was burned about the face and hands and severely bruised by leaping from a second floor fire escape to the ground.

In several apartments in the tene-ment Hallowe'en parties were in prog-ress, and the guests at these added greatly to the number of persons in the house and made the crush and fam the house and made the crush and jam to escape more than it ordinarily would have been. Although plenticully provided with fire escapes, front and rear, escape here was cut off a few minutes after the fire started by the bodies of the dead becoming wedged in the openings leading to the ladders. The fire had been burning for some minutes before it was discovered. It minutes before it was discovered. It had started in the basement and, rush-ing upward, had attacked the stairway leading to the apartments. In a short space of time the flames had so en-

When the firemen reached the scene there was a mass of flame bursting through the middle of the roof, while the air was filled with the heartrending screams of the women and the curses of the men. Many daring rescues were made by the firemen, who at times had to use violence in their attempts to disentangle the mass of writhing human being struggling in vain ef-forts to reach safety from the crowded fire escapes.

forts to reach safety from the crowded fire escapes. One fireman climbed to the fourth floor where a window was filled with a mass of people, jammed in and fight-ing to get out. He struck the heads of all the men he could see with his fist, and they fell back. He then handed down to the firemen on ladders below three women and a baby. Another fireman performed a similar feat and rescued two girls from the fourth floor. Life nets played a prominent part in Life nets played a prominent part in the work of rescue. The firemen dropped men and women, dead and finally the men standing on ladders on the first floor let them fall into the nets held by policemen and firemen in

Five Men Killed by Explosion at Hayden, Mont.

Kalispel, Mont., Nov. 1.—Coroner Wiloughby yesterday received a tele-gram from the justice of the peace at Hayden, saying that five men had been blown to pieces in an explosion at that place, and that $500 had been found upon them.

He left the westbound passenger for Jennings, where he will receive the bodies, they having been sent to that place from Hayden this morning, How the explosion happened and the emes of the men killed cannot be earned at this time. It is supposed b have been the explosion of a magazine belonging to grading contractors, who have powder stored at that point, Further particulars will not be known until some one arrives from the scene which will be late tonight.

Mining Man Recovering from Result of Automobile Smashup.

Nicholas Schmittroth, manager of he Jefferson Mining company of this city and Little Cottonwood, was runaway with by his automobile early Saturday evening, near the corner of K and Seventh streets, and as the machine struck a rat, the unfortunate driver was thrown high in the air, and landed on his head. The machine was running at railroad speed, probably at 25 miles an hour, though in the imag-ination of witnesses it was running at 125 miles an hour. Mr. Schmittroth was knocked senseless. He was picked up at once and carried into the resi-dence of V. S. Peet near by and medical aid summoned, and afterward the sufferer was taken to St. Mark's hos-pital. It was found that he had sustained concussion of the brain, and H was feared he had also two ribs brok en; but it develops today, however, that his injuries are much less serious than was feared, and his recovery

ONLY A SUGGESTION.

But It Has Proven of Interest and Value to Thousands.

Common sense would suggest that if one wishes to become fleshy and plump it can only result from the food we eat and digest and that food should be albuminous or flesh forming food, like eggs, beefsteak, and cereatis; in ota-er words the kinds of food that make flesh are the foods which form the greater part of our daily bills of fare. But the trouble is that while we eat enough and generally too much, the stomach, from abuse and overwork, does not properly digest and assimilate it, which is the reason so many people remain thin and under weight; the digestive organs do not completely di-gest the food forming beefsteak and eggs and similar wholesome food.

There are thousands of such who are ally confirmed dyspeptics, although

There are thousands of such who are really confirmed dyspeptics, although they may have no particular pain or inconvenience from their stomachs. If such persons would lay their prejudices aside and make a regular practice of taking, after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tab-lets the food would be quickly and thoroughly digested, because these tab-lets contain the natural peptones and diatase which every weak stomach lacks, and by supplying this want the stomach is soon enabled to reach its natural tone and vigor. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets digest tvery form of flesh forming food, meat. Ages, bread and potatoes, and this is the reason they so quickly build up strengthen and invigorate thin, dys-peptic men, women and children. Invalids and children, even the most delicate, use them with marked benefit as they contain no strong. Irritating drugs, no cathartic nor any harmful ingredient.
