FRAGMENTS.

No District Court until Jan. 2nd, 1885.
 The Sixth Ward Sabbath school convenes at 9 o'clock to-morrow morning.
 The Sunday Schools throughout the city will meet at 9:30 instead of 10 o'clock to-morrow morning.
 Ernest S. Penrose and Robert L. Anderson, started out this morning on a business trip through Wasatch, Summit and Morgan Counties.
 The holiday number of the magazine called Outing has arrived, and is well filled with sporting news and articles, as well as with pleasing illustrations.
 The Second Quorum of Seventies will hold their meeting on Monday evening next at half past seven o'clock in the Fifteenth Ward School-house.
 Philip Hall entered a complaint before Justice Spiers, this morning, against Martin Burd, for disturbing the peace. The case was set for this afternoon.
 At the Baptist Church—H. G. De Witt, D. D., pastor—services begin at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Morning subject, "Christmas;" evening subject, "The Mystery of Life."
 Henry Meyers, the soldier who stole a turkey from the store of James Lucas on Christmas eve, was up to answer for the act this afternoon, but no decision was reached when we went to press.
 We had a short but pleasant call this morning from Prof. Karl G. Maeser, of the B. Y. Academy, Provo. He is intended to be present at the dedication of the B. Y. College, Logan, on New Year's day.
 We have received, in pamphlet form, the address of Hon. John T. Calne, delivered at the People's mass meeting, held in the Theatre, November 23, 1884. It is an able address and well worth perusing.
 R. W. Maden is beginning to fill up his new and elegant store a few doors west of the Theatre with new furniture that has just arrived. In about two weeks this store will be fully stocked. He will continue business, however, at his old stand, 40 Main Street, and will be pleased to see his old patrons at either place.
LOCAL NEWS.
 Fined.—In the Police Court this morning Andrew Kelley, who was arrested for larceny on Evans Conk, was fined $10.
 Patrick Fernal was fined $7.50 for drunkenness and profanity.
 Placed Under Bonds.—Yesterday afternoon the coroner Taylor held an inquest upon the body of Joseph Bagley. The facts in the evidence presented to the jury were substantially the same as we published last evening and a verdict was rendered as follows:
 "That deceased came to his death from strangulation by his own hands, while temporarily insane, in the northeast room of house number 771, E. Third South street, between the hours of 10 p.m. of December 24th and 7 p.m. of December 26th, 1884."
 The jurors were Hyrum J. Smith, George Spiers and George H. Pope.
 Dedication of the B. Y. College.—The News acknowledges with thanks the following invitation from Logan:
 "The dedication of the Brigham Young College will take place at 11 o'clock (noon) on New Year's day, Jan. 1st, 1885, and the presence of yourself and ladies is desired."
 There will also be a complimentary hall given in the evening at Rees Opera House, to which you are cordially invited.
 We congratulate this institution on the completion of so fine a structure, and are gratified to see the advancement made toward putting the college on the high plane which its founder intended it should eventually occupy.
 The Driftwood Case.—It appears that the "driftwood case," which has been brought to a sudden termination, so far as the criminal courts are concerned. On appeal to the District Court, the acting prosecuting attorney found that there was no case against Henry Lamoreaux, who was found guilty by the Logan Justice's Court of stealing the driftwood. He declared the case ought never to have gone into court, and so the affair is dismissed. The case will fall on Cache County. It was an unfortunate suit, and probably those who pushed it to such an issue will learn a valuable lesson. The young man is cleared from the charge of larceny, but the question as to the ownership of the driftwood remains an open one.
 Conductor Beesley Surprised.—Last evening after the usual rehearsal of the Tabernacle Choir, Conductor E. Beesley was tendered a very pleasant surprise. It seems preparations for this surprise party had been going on for some time and were full and complete. While the choir members gathered into the room where practice is held, their invited friends, with the lunch baskets, etc., were quietly conveyed to the ante-room, where they remained until the piano for the Sabbath service was rearranged, when they were ushered into the main room to the astonishment of their respected leader. He was presented with an autograph album containing an appropriate address, which was signed by the members of the choir. The entire choir, which followed consisted of music, dancing, songs, etc., and a splendid supper, all of which were enjoyed by the surprised and surprised.
 Additional Particulars.—We have received a communication from J. H. H. of Pinto, giving the particulars of the death of Wm. and Milo Tullis, of that place, who it will be remembered, were killed by the falling in of the roof under which they were sleeping. As the particulars were given in the telegram published, we deem it unnecessary to repeat them.
 They were the sons of David W. Tullis, and aged respectively 12 and 9 years. At the time of the fatal occurrence, Bro. Tullis was not at home, but the neighbors being summoned worked as fast as possible to clear away the debris and get out the bodies, but did not succeed until after life was extinct.
 The funeral services were held last Sunday, and the two brothers were buried side by side in one grave. The family have the sympathy of the whole community.

ON THE WAY TO DETROIT.

BROTHERS TENNEY, KEMPE AND CHRISTOFFERSON INTERVIEWED.

The following from the Albuquerque, New Mexico, Journal, will be perused with interest by many of our readers:
 "The readers of the Journal will remember that a few days ago we published the account of the conviction and sentencing of three Mormons by Judge Howard of Arizona. These three were Tenney, Kempe and Christofferson, passed through this city last night on their way to the penitentiary at Detroit, Michigan, where they will be confined for the next three years and a half. They were in charge of United States Marshal Tibbals, of Arizona.
 The readers saw the trio at the depot, and at once sought an interview. They did not seem at all averse to being questioned, and in fact, were eager that they should be thoroughly understood.
 Bishop Tenney said that he was the first Mormon that had ever gone into Arizona, and that he had gone there with the idea of settling on the land and making good citizen. He said that he even now, after conviction, he just felt as firmly as ever that his religious belief was the right one. When Judge Howard had asked him if he had any thing to say in his defense, he said that he would not say a word, but would leave the case to the court. He said that he was not a lawyer, and that he was not a Mormon, but a man who had come to this country to make his home and to be a good citizen. He said that he was not a Mormon, but a man who had come to this country to make his home and to be a good citizen.
 He did not believe, so he said, that a man could be imprisoned in America for following his religious belief, and he felt that such was the case of all the men in his case. He would not be near as hard to bear were it not for the fact that some of those convicted were even well fixed in this world's goods, so that now their families must suffer. Mr. Kempe had two wives and twelve children, while one of the others had three wives and twenty-two children. All three seemed to the reporter to be very much cast down at the position in which they now find themselves, and we could not help believing that they had little hope in the courts."
 Inexcusable Misrepresentation.—The Salt Lake Tribune takes occasion to reflect upon Mr. Fred Clawson, one of the gentlemen ushers of the Salt Lake Theatre, and Mr. C. H. Wilken, one of the police officers of this city, by giving a false statement regarding an incident that occurred in the Theatre on Wednesday night.
 The genuine facts reflect credit rather than otherwise upon those gentlemen. Mr. Clary Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Idaho Legislature, and Judge Willard Crawford, also from Idaho, both being under the influence of liquor, entered the dress circle of the Theatre, carrying with them a quantity of refreshments, which they handed about and kept talking during the performance, much to the annoyance of people near them who had come to be entertained. The usher twice requested them to keep quiet, but they merely made offensive remarks to him, and then, when spoken to a second time by Mr. Wilken one of the two merely pushed a handful of candy towards him. Messrs. Clary and Crawford were then requested by the officer to leave the building, which they did.
 James A. McKnight, a Tribune reporter, stepped up and interposed, saying, "These men have not done anything offensive," or something to that effect. The officer told him to leave or he would slap his face, so he retired.
 In the meantime Sheriff Homer, of Idaho, had come and intervened for Messrs. Clary and Crawford, and the officer said he was quite willing that they should re-enter the Theatre if they would pass their word that they would keep still. Crawford then again begged the officer to let them go, and the officer, causing the latter to change his mind, and the two were marched toward the City Hall. They begged to be let off, and on Sheriff Homer agreeing to be responsible for their good conduct, the officer let them go, and the sheriff took them to the Metropolitan.
 Yesterday morning both Clary and Crawford called upon Mr. Wilken, prevailed upon him to ride out in a carriage with them, and apologized for their unbecoming behavior. At their desire he also accompanied some of the parties interested to the Tribune office, to request the conductors of that paper not to mention the affair of which they professed to be ashamed. Crawford, who was under the influence of liquor again yesterday, became somewhat abusive once more to the officer, who then left. The facts as here related, were in substance, told in the interview at the Tribune office, as Sheriff Homer and Mr. Theives would be willing to verify, notwithstanding the unvarnished statement made by that paper this morning. But the drunken anti-Mormon politicians from Idaho must be sustained under all circumstances, even when in their offices they disturb the peace of a public audience, and fill with unutterable disgust all respectable people who witness their indecent doings.
 Neither the usher nor the officer excused his duty a bareheaded, for if either failed, it was on the side of leniency.
 Sisters' Quarterly Conference.—The Quarterly Conference of the Relief Society of this State of Zion, was held in the Fourteenth Ward Assembly Rooms yesterday, Mrs. M. I. Horne, presiding. After the usual exercises the minutes of the Conference were read and the remainder of the time was occupied in hearing reports from the several wards of the condition of each society. The afternoon was devoted mostly to instruction in the duties pertaining to the organization, and in hearing testimony, etc. The meeting was addressed by the President, Mr. M. I. Horne and Counselor E. T. Taylor, also Sisters Prescinda L. Kimball, Sarah M. Kimball, Bathsheba W. Smith, E. B. Wells, Sarah Jane Cannon, and Dr. E. S. Barney. Conference adjourned for three months. Benediction by Sister Mary W. Pratt.
 This morning the quarterly conference of the Primary Association was held in the same place, Mrs. Ellen C. Clawson presiding. There was quite a good attendance of children from the wards in the city and some excellent singing. The hymns selected for the occasion and sung by the children were "Dearest Children," "Words of Wisdom," "Hope of Israel," and the "Lord's Prayer."
 After reports from the several Presidencies of Primaries, remarks, general instructions, were made by President Ellen C. Clawson and Counselor Lydia Ann Wells.
 Conference adjourned for three months. Benediction by Elder Richard Horne.
 The Y. L. M. I. A. Conference holds its session this afternoon.
 There will be a meeting of the Sunday School superintendents and teachers at the 15th Ward Assembly Hall to-morrow at 11 o'clock a.m. A full attendance is requested.
 The D. & R. O. R. E. is now open and trains arrive on time.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.

Snow is so deep in Montana that the stage running between Silver Star and Butte, was four hours in going four miles.
 A convention, to discuss and take action on the silver question, is to be held at Denver on the 28th prox. Adjacent States and Territories interested in the question are invited to send representatives.
 Five engines were attached to the snowplow Tuesday morning, at Silver Bow, and started north. They only went three miles before they were all tightly packed in the snow at the mouth of the canon.
 Last Monday evening, Luis Lamb, of Omaha, aged 4 years, was sitting on a trunk with a ball of yarn and a crochet needle in her hand. By some means she fell, face downward, and the needle entered her mouth coming out through the cheek near the cheek bone, making quite an ugly and painful wound.
 Last Saturday evening a fatal accident occurred at the Rocky Island mine in Montana, by which Joseph Toulton lost his life. He was coming up the shaft in a bucket hoisted by a mule, but instead of stopping when the surface was reached, the bucket continued to ascend some fifteen feet, when it came in contact with the pulley over which the hoisting-rope runs. This tipped the bucket in such a manner as to cause its occupant to fall down the shaft, a distance of 175 feet. Both legs were broken and he was badly crushed. Death was almost instantaneous.
