TER-DAY SAINTS.

March 8, 1876. Editor Descret News: On the 8th of February, myself and Elder D. H. Greer started for but a short stay in that county.

On our return from Hamilton we called at the town of Iredell, in the music on the occasion. upper part of Bosque Co. Here learned there were some who desired to hear a "Mormon" elder We accepted and gave an appoint-ment for the fellowing Sunday at 11 a.m. Pursuant to appointment we, accompanied by my wife (who came with me here) and Brother Thos. L. Greer and his wife, went ten miles on Sunday morning to fill said appointment, finding when Ended-Suit Commenced Against we arrived on the ground the largest concourse of people (as we were told) that had ever met in that told) that had ever met in that place, so many that they could not all obtain room to sit or stand in a good sized meeting house. After speaking an hour and twenty minutes, followed by Eiders D. H. and Thos. L. Ureer, who because a faithful testimony, I arose and asked the people to rise and be dismissed. Just as I was in the attitude of dismissing, a Rev. G. W. Roberts, a Baptist minister (as lafterwards learned), jumped up, called to the congregation to take their seats, and without asking liberty proceeded to harangue the andience, telling them he could not permit that vast audience to depart without entering his solemn protest against such a delusion. The reverse gentleman (if such I should call him) seemed horrified that we should quote from "that holy Apost tle Paul." He could show they were saved by grace, and that there was "a regular apostolic chain of authority through the Waldenses and Abbigenses down to the present he bolted for the door, drying out as he went, "You are dismissed, as far as I am concerned." I had risen to my feet to report to some things he had said, and cail on him for proof of his assertions, but he would not stop, calling on those inside to "open that door," like one hadly frightened As a portion of the land and of the verses hadly frightened As a portion of the land and seal and se would not stop, calling on those inside to "open that door," like one

Editor Deseret News; A two days' Conference was held here on Saturday and Sunday, April 1st and 2ud, Bishop John Rowberry presiding, at which were represented eleven branches of the Church in this county. The meetings were well attended, a good spirit prevailed and much valuable instruction was given by Bishop Rowberry, Prest. Jeffries of Grantsville, Prest. Geo. Burridge of St. Johns, Elder James Ure of Toocle, and others, who occupied the time during the Conference. The First Presidency and the Quorum of the Twelve were unanimously sustained, likewise the local authorities.
