At the meeting of the new board of trustees of the Unitarian society fast evening the following officers were elected: Dr. H. A. Whitney, president; J. B. Timmony, vice president: Geo. B. Greenwood secretary and trassurer arcenwood, secretary and treasurer Messrs, Whitney, Timmony and Green Material Being Gathered for the food were named to constitute the excoutive committee, and Messrs, Zulick, Groeger and Greenwood a committee to arrange for the musical part of the Sunday services. Services will be held in the Theater until the summer vaca-tion, which will probably include the months of July and August, The Woman's Republican club met yesterday afternoon at the home, of Mrs. Arthur Brown, Mrs. Johnson read a paper on "The Subsidy Bill," and Mrs. Frank Hines read a paper on the Grout bill. The musical program was very pleasing, including solos by Mrs. Geo. A. Snow, Mrs. Fraser, Miss Mabel Geo, A. Snow, Mrs. Fraser, Miss Mabei Clark and Mis. Bradley. It was decid-ed to give a card party at the home of Mrs. Ezra Thompson on the afternoon of May 22nd. A committee, consist-ing of Mesdames Thompson, Brown and Bradley was appointed to confer-with the general committee to see what the club can do by way of entertaining the presidential party or the ladfee of the presidential party or the ladles of the party. A vivil service examination was held A civil service examination was held in this city today for the position of farmer in the Indian service. alary, $2,000. For some time past City Jailor Sol Kimbali has been missing valuable chickens from his place and he was unable to account for their strange dis-appearance. A few days ago, however, Mrs. Kimball noticed a neighbor's dog running away with a chicken in its mouth. When Jailor Kimball went home he made an Investigation and found that the dog had been feasting on his fowls, and a small boy in the neighborhood said: "Why Mr. Kimball, that dog don't eat nothing but chickens and rabbits;" and indeed such proved to be the case. The owner of the dog said that for the last week the canine refused to cat anything at home, and it was thought rather strange that it kept fat on nothing. But the mystery was all clear to "Uncle" Sol, and he at once notified the dog catcher that he had better cremate the animal.

'About noon the fight became Titanic, and people at the ticker tape held them breath, while a yard of Union Pacific sales rolled out like cotton from a gin. Up, up, up, the stock elimbed, until it showed a gain of eleven points. "Both sides were buying; both sides were holding to what they had. It looked for a while as if the stock would cross the 130 line, when, from source hidden source, came a tremendous sale, which sent it back four points. It rose during the day from 117% to 159, and played for the greater part of the day just below the latter figures

"Just before the close there were yells on the floor of the exchange when the stock reached 130. The wise men in the street believed that this fig-ure nierked the consummation of Vanderbilt's scheme.

WHY MILLER QUIT.

Bitter Antagonism Against E. H. Harriman and His Policy the Cause.

A special to the Spokane Spokesman Review from its Wali Street represen-tative throws some additional light upon the resignation of the St. Paul chairman from the directorate of the Union Pacific. It is as follows: An interesting fight has developed in the northwestern transcontinental rallad situation. It is primarily between E. H. Harriman, who in spite of all rumors to the contrary, controls the Un-ion Pacific, and President Hughit of the Northwestern, the Union Pacific's western connection. Incidentally there has developed bitter antagonism between Mr. Harriman and Chairman Miller of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, as a result of which Mr. Miller resigned from the Union Pacific board six weeks ago, although this fact did not come to light until today, Wall street regards this row as one of the evfls accompanying the new com-munity of ownership scheme, and expects to see it reach a critical stage.

TUNE'S FRIGHTFUL DEATH. Young Man Killed at Highland Boy Smelter-Funeral This Morning.

Thomas A. Tune, an employe of the Highland Boy Smelter at Murray, was killed in a most frightful manner at the smelter yesterday. He was elevating a car of roasted ore from the ground floor to the furnace on the second floor, a istance of fifteen feet. On reaching the top, Tune ran the car off of the elevator and then gave the signal for the latter to be lowered. The entire ma-chinery is operated by electricity and fune by a fatal inadvertence reversed the car and it ran backward forcing the terrified man down the elevator shaft and failing down upon him. The life was crushed out of him instantly and his body was burned almost beyond recognition. Tune was an Australian by birth, was 28 years of age, and so ar as is known had no relatives it this country. The funeral was held at Murray this morning, under the aus-

VANDERBILT VS. HARRIMAN.

Story of the Battle of the Railroad Giants on Wall Street.

The New York Journal in a four-column article upon the fight of the rall-read glants on Wall street has the felowing to say in regard to the Union Pacific phase of the battle; Pacific 'The mere railroad view of the remarkable changes that are taking place in the western railway situation is of small interest, compared with the dramatic feature of the Vanderbilt acquisi-

"There is, it is declared, a hostility years' standing between Edward Harriman, the controlling power in the Union Pacific, and William K. Vanderbilt. It related, the story has it, to an attempt made several years ago by Mr. Vanderbilt to secure this same Union Pacific. But at that time Mr. Harriman held the hand and played the cards, and Mr. Vanderbilt was euchred.

"The Vanderblit blood, however, is of the 'learn to labor and to wait' kind Besides, W. K. Vanderbilt has had the advantage with stockholders, He, H is said, notwithstanding the popular notion, has had much to do with the manipulation of railroads, insomuch as he stands before the stockholders as a conservative manager of railway properties, not as a speculator.

'It is said on good authority that Mr. Harriman was, in a measure, caught napping; that, before he recognized the en hand reaching out after Union Pacific, he thought it would be an excellent speculative idea to take advantage of the boom in the market make a lot of money and buy back con-trol, if he should lose it, when the mar-ket went down again, which, it is asseried, he regarded as inevitable. "The Vanderbilt agents worked with great energy and greater caution, and day before yesterday, before Mr. Harriand man had fairly awakened to the situa-tion, it is stated, Vanderbilt had practically secured control of the Union Pa-

"It was one of the greatest coups the street has seen since the days of Jay Gould, and all the big men are giving William K. Vanderbilt full credit for the conception and execution of it.
