

WALKER'S STORE.

End of the Year Clearance of Women's Ready-to-Wear.

MONDAY and all the Week. Hundreds of women have been waiting for this announcement. The year-end sale of women's garments comes with such regularity that the passing of Christmas ever finds earnest seekers awaiting the bidding to come. The stock has been kept wonderfully complete in variety of styles and sizes in all the lines of coats, suits, skirts and waists, so the choosing is better than most end-of-season sales can usually offer. Entire stock is included and has thorough-going reductions, but you will have to read all that follows in order to get full detail. READ—

Entire Stock of Furs One-Third Off Regular Prices.

Some superb fur pieces are here. Fashionable beauties that will never be anything less than choice because genuine. Short and long scarfs in the season's favorite shapes, collarettes, muffs and coats made of Persian lamb, sealskin, mink, marten, electric seal, sea otter, beaver, krimmer, etc. Included are all furs for misses and children. Prices Monday and the week—

All $4.95 fur pieces—$3.30.	All $20.00 fur pieces—$13.34.
All $6.00 fur pieces—$4.00.	All $25.00 fur pieces—$16.67.
All $10.00 fur pieces—$6.50.	All $40.00 fur pieces—$26.67.
All $15.00 fur pieces—$10.00.	All $75.00 fur pieces—$50.00.

And up to $200.00 garments—ONE THIRD OFF REGULAR PRICES.

Silk Dress Skirts to $32.50 for $18.75. Walking Skirts to $3.50—$1.95.

The silk skirts are fashionable and pretty, en train, as they should be and made of the best taffeta silk or soft peau de soie. Many elaborately trimmed, tucked and with full flare flounce, drop skirts or lined with fine quality of percaline. $25.00, $27.50 and $32.50 silk dress skirts reduced for this end of the year sale to—$18.75.

The walking skirts are made of fine melton cloth in dark oxford gray and brown mixtures, with flare flounce plentifully tailor stitched; the group is made up of $2.45, $2.95 and $3.50 skirts, reduced to—$1.95.

ENTIRE STOCK OF SEPARATE SKIRTS REDUCED.

Besides these told of every separate skirt here, whether beautiful silk or cloth, and they range in price $6.75 up to $65.00 for this end of the year sale has—ONE FOURTH TAKEN OFF REGULAR PRICES.

Women's 22.50 and 25.00 Tailor Suits 14.75. 13.00 and 15.00 Suits 7.85.

The $22.50 and $25.00 dresses are made of handsome broadcloth, Panama cloth, covert and fine chevrons in black, navy blue, castor, red and green; perfectly tailored every one. Jackets are tight fitting with silk faced lapels or have fancy vests of velvet and silk or satin lined; skirts are the new seven gone with graduated flounces. Reduced from $22.50 and $25.00 for this sale to—$14.75.

The $13.00 and $15.00 suits are made of navy blue, castor and black chevrons with tight fitting jackets nicely trimmed with straps of satin or taffeta silk, collars of velvet; skirts flare shape and lined with good percaline. Stylish, genteel suits that have sold until now at $13.00, and $15.00, reduced for the end of the year sale to $7.85.

OTHER SUIT REDUCTIONS.

The entire stock of tailor dresses priced up to $50.00 for this sale—ONE FOURTH TAKEN OFF REGULAR PRICES.

All imported gowns, $65.00 to $135.00 at—HALF PRICES.

Women's Jackets all Half Price.

There's many a beautiful jacket here yet—smart, stylish, the season's best fashions in 27 or down to the 42 inch lengths—and many a woman has deferred the purchase of a winter coat in order to benefit by this end of the year sale. Monday and the week choose from

All $10.00 jackets at—$5.00.	All $40.00 jackets—$20.00.
All $15.00 jackets—$7.50.	All $50.00 jackets—$25.00.
All $20.00 jackets—$10.00.	All $75.00 jackets—$37.50.
All $25.00 jackets—$12.50.

In the Carpet Store, some Fourth and Half Off Prices.

Isn't a half price saving on carpets worthy the anticipation of even months hence—to the spring cleaning time if there be no sooner need? Or a fourth off the price you will have to pay in a few short months? Read of these good offers for Monday and week—

A collection of carpet remnants—not a great number so choosing will have to be done early—left from Axminster that sold at $2.00 a yard and between grades down to ingrain at 25c and in 6 to 20 yard lengths—HALF PRICES.

These at one-fourth off:
Two patterns of Body Brussels with border to match, $1.40 a yard for—$1.05.

Two patterns of Wilton Velvets without borders, $1.25 a yard for—95c.
Two patterns of ten-wire tapestry $1.00 a yard—75c.
One pattern Wilton Velvet with border to match, $2.00 a yard for—$1.50.

Drapery, Upholstery Remnants.

Cretonnes, denims, alkolines, satens, swisses, etc., for curtains, sofa pillow covers and other uses, in remnant pieces of 1½ yards up to 6 and sold at 10c to 40c a yard—HALF PRICE.

Tapestry pieces for cushion or chair covering, values to $1.00—50c.
Tapestry table covers, stand sizes, $1.00 kinds—50c.

Exquisite Drawn Work, Linen Lunch Cloths One-Fourth Off Regular Prices.

Most likely you've seen the beautiful Japanese drawn work, so little need is there to tell about it—how exquisitely fine the linen and what intricate patterns are worked out by these wonderfully inventive people. All we have—and there's a goodly number of pieces in doilies, center and lunch cloths, but with these we include every hand embroidered lunch cloth in stock, to go this week at—

The $1.50 pieces—$1.13.	The $1.75 pieces—$1.32.
The $2.00 pieces—$1.50.	The $4.00 pieces—$3.00.
The $5.00 pieces—$3.75.

Woven tapestry cushion covers—red, blue, green combination colors, reduced from 60c each to—35c.
All tinted canvas cushion covers, those that sold at 65c, 75c and 85c each—49c.

Girl's Jackets and Long Coats, A Third Under Regular Prices.

As well as being the most fashionable favorites of this season, there's a lot of warmth and comfort in each one of these little coats. Made of rich Melton cloth, covert or cheviot, cosily lined or unlined, with box or tight fitting backs, short and long kinds. Tan color, castor and blues. For girls of 1 to 14 years. Prices on entire stock Monday and the week—

The $4.95 coats—$3.30.
The $5.75 coats—$3.83.
The $6.50 coats—$4.34.
The $6.75 coats—$4.50.
The $15.00 coats—$10.00.

Children's 75c and 85c White Lawn Dresses, 25c.

Pretty made with tucked yokes or gathered from the neck; the lawn a fine quality neatly trimmed with embroidery. Cute little dresses for 2 and 3 year olds, reduced from 75c and 85c to—25c.

Boys' Suits, Reefers, Caps, Drastic Reductions.

A group of choice little reefers and Russian coats—novelty garments they are called so you may know they are quite out of the ordinary. Smart in style, beautifully tailored. Made of very fine kerseys and fancy tweeds in red, brown and blue colors. For the small mal of the household, 3 to 8 years. Were $7.50 up to $10.00 each, sale price—$4.95.

Boys' reefers made of heavy chin-chilla, melton and cheviot, with warm plaid lining and high storm collars. Sizes 11 to 16 years. Reduced from $2.50 and $3.50 to—$1.95.

Boys' caps that are sold down to small sizes only, melton and cheviot, silk or satin lined with ear laps, instead of 50c and 65c—25c.

Women's Kid Gloves and Mittens Much Under Regular.

A lot of odds and ends of woman's fine French Kid Gloves, gathered in a way to give every size, but not in every color. At regular they were $1.50 and $2.00 a pair. Monday and while they last—$1.00.

All of our "Premiere" Kid Gloves, first favorites with many women, hand sewed, well cut, reds, browns, tan, slate, opera, but only a few white, two clasp; instead of $2.00 a pair—$1.50.

Half Prices on Bric-a-Brac.

Christmas selling ever leaves a quantity of oddments in the bric-a-brac way, so that usually the profits which were are submerged by the losses that follow. A whole hundred or more pieces in these left-over lots for the party favor giver to reap a rich harvest from or others who have a liking for such oddities—

Vases; ash trays, pipe racks, match stands, powder boxes, ink stands, pen pads, desk sets, steins, pin trays, smelling bottles, paper weights, novel tape lines and many, many other quaint shaped useful things that have been selling at 25c, 35c, 45c, 65c, and 75c each, Monday and the week—HALF PRICES.

Embroidered French Flannel Waist Patterns, Flannelette Reduced.

A few handsomely embroidered French flannel waist patterns, choice kinds that are boxed, only one each of these colors here now—pink, blue, sage and red; so reduced from $7.50 each to half price—$3.75.

Another small lot, not quite so elaborately embroidered, $3.75 kinds—$1.95.

The entire stock of fleece lined flannelettes, 15c a yard regular—10c.

All plain color French flannels—very nearly every color in stock—sold regularly at 75c a yard—60c.

Fine Correspondence Papers Underpriced, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday.

A splendid little lot of the choice Hurlbut's Old Dorchester Bond and Flexine Bond in white and three days; these desirable kinds—tints, letter and note sizes, three Royal Highland linen, Venetian, Old London Bond and Old Amsterdam; in cream and delicate tints. Three days instead of 35c a box—23c.

Parisian novelty paper, note size only, in all tints, 20c a box regular—15c.

Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co.

were Misses Savage, Duncan, Carson, Huffstetler, Lawton, Preshaw, Weston, Jones, Buhler, Siegel, and Mesdames Carson, Lawton, Eggleston, Duncan, Reader, and Messrs. Judge How-Cole, Reader, and Messrs. Curby, Savage, Brunnett, Foster, Curby, Savage, Duncan, Thompson, Reader, Siegel and Eggleston.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. met with the state president, Mrs. Smith, Thursday afternoon, at her home on Adams avenue. A "mother's meeting" was held at that time which was largely attended and some very interesting talks were given on various topics interspersed with vocal and instrumental music.

The State School for the Deaf and Blind gave two very enjoyable entertainments on New Year's eve and night in honor of the pupils. At each of the entertainments very pleasing programs were rendered, much to the delight and interest of the pupils and great satisfaction of the authorities in charge. The children were also given a sumptuous dinner by Prof. Briggs.

The ladies of the Church of the Good Shepherd gave a reception to all members and friends at the church guild rooms on New Year's afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Forrester of Salt Lake were spending a few days in Ogden this week on their return trip from the coast.

Foster's military band gave a very enjoyable dance New Year's eve in the Union opera house. The band intends giving dances regularly during the winter months, and hopes to raise sufficient funds with which to purchase full equipment for the organization.

The Wednesday night club of Dignan's Dancing academy gave one of the most delightful balls of the season New Year's night at the Dignan hall. The Year's night was very large, composed of some of the leading society people of the city, and everybody present had a most enjoyable time.

George C. Patch and Miss Nellie Christy, both left for their home of Ogden, were married Tuesday night.

A quiet home wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock when Miss Rosemary May Casmore was married to Mr. Seth E. Thomas, formerly principal of one of the Ogden schools, but now a prominent stock raiser of Idaho. Justice Joseph Hall performed the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Mary Garner, 2226 Jefferson avenue. After the ceremony a sumptuous repast was served. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas left for their future home, Blackfoot, Idaho, Thursday. They are both popular in Ogden society.

Misses Gertrude and Ida Pratt of Salt Lake were Ogden visitors this week, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pratt.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hanson are visiting in Salt Lake with Hon. W. H. King and family.

Chris Larsen, a popular school teacher of Logan, Utah, was visiting in Ogden this week, the guest of David Harris.

A very enjoyable dance was given at Southwell's hall Thursday evening. The Ogden high school will give a dance this evening at Dignan's Dancing academy.

Saturday afternoon, December 28th, Mrs. J. C. Nye entertained at her beautiful parlors in honor of Mrs. M. A. Breeden of Salt Lake. The reception was one of the social events of Christmas week, and an afternoon of much enjoyment was spent by those present, in chatting of olden times and listening to sweet vocal and instrumental music. At 5 o'clock a dainty repast was served in the dining room. The parlors were very artistically decorated with holly and La France roses. Attorney-General Breeden and family returned to their home on Sunday.

Mrs. H. H. Spencer gave a "watch" party Tuesday evening, which was a delightful social event.

A benefit ball will be given in the Fifth ward amusement hall Thursday evening, January 16th, in honor of Bernard Denker, who is to depart on his second mission to Holland January 24th. The affair promises to be a very pleasurable one and should be largely attended by the young men's friends.

Miss Myrtle Banks of Salt Lake is visiting in Ogden this week, the guest of Miss Veda Eccles.

PROVO SOCIAL NEWS.

Provo, Jan. 4.—Miss Julia Tyler, who has been visiting Mrs. W. H. Dusenberry and daughter for some time, returned to her home in Denver Thursday.

Miss Emily Whitney is down from Salt Lake, visiting relatives.

Guy Eldredge is visiting his sister, Mrs. Reed Smoot.

Sunday evening about forty young people, mostly members of the party that came down to attend the sociable given by some of the Provo young ladies Saturday evening, surprised Miss Ada Dusenberry by a visit to her home and enjoyed a pleasant social evening.

Miss Vera Hardy entertained a number of friends New Year's eve in honor of Miss Margaret Snell, of Salt Lake. The evening was most delightfully given, with song, music, games and dancing. Dainty refreshments were served. The guests were: Miss Margaret Snell and Mrs. G. H. Naylor of Salt Lake City; Misses Lulu Gates, Hazel Taylor, Lydia Thurman and Birdie Clark, Mrs. D. A. Swan, Jr., Raymond H. Clayton and Bert Busath.

Miss Clarice Thatcher, of Salt Lake City was the guest of Prof. and Mrs. E. D. Partridge, this week.

Mrs. Cornelia H. Clayton gave a birthday party at the home of Prof. and Mrs. E. D. Partridge, Monday evening in honor of her son, Raymond H. and William, the occasion being the twenty-first anniversary of the birth of Raymond H. and the eighteenth of William. A large number of the young men's friends, including many Salt Lake young people, were present, and enjoyed a delightful evening of song, music and readings. Delicious refreshments were served.

A most enjoyable birthday party was given Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. C. H. Taylor, of Pleasant View ward, in honor of Mr. Taylor's birthday anniversary. About a hundred guests enjoyed the generous hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, and welcomed the new year with music, song and merry games.

Mr. and Mrs. Alma Van Wageningen entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening. A very pleasant evening was passed in music and games, and enjoying delicious refreshments.

Mrs. Louisa McBride was the hostess of a party of friends assembled at her home Tuesday evening to welcome the New Year and enjoy holiday festivities.

Proctor Robison and Ira Frampton, of Salt Lake City, visited Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Robison Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert S. Hills, of Salt Lake, visited Mr. and Mrs. Sam A. King New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Poulton gave a card party Monday evening. A delicious luncheon was served and a most enjoyable evening was passed. The guests were: Messrs. and Mesdames Thomas John, D. H. Plalstead, W. D. Roberts, Jr., John Taylor, O. W. Hyde and J. M. Jensen.

The officers, teachers and members of the theological class of the Second ward Sunday school enjoyed a delightful sociable last evening in the Franklin school, with a fine program of a musical and literary nature, and luncheon.

The children of the Second ward Sunday school were entertained in the ward house Tuesday afternoon with a dance; candy and nuts were distributed and the young people had a very pleasant time.

Mrs. Mary P. Silver visited her son, Councilman Wm. P. Silver, this week.

Tuesday evening, Manager Taft, of the Z. C. M. I. gave a banquet at the Hotel Roberts to the employees of the store, their wives and a few friends. The spread was in the perfection of the caterer's art, for which this popular hostelry is famous, and the guests enjoyed to the full the choice viands and appreciated highly the fraternal feelings which caused the feast to be provided. After the banquet, the guests related to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Taft, where the remainder of the evening was spent in happy sociability.

The "63" club was entertained Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Rob. R. Irvine, Jr. Mrs. George Havercamp and Mr. Ben Schwab were awarded the prize.

Judge and Mrs. Booth spent New Year's day with relatives and friends in Alpine, Judge Booth's old home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Smoot will move over from Europe Monday and will be domiciled at the C. A. Hedquist residence.

Mrs. R. S. Hines and son, Cliff, and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hedquist will take a trip to California at an early date to remain for a protracted visit.

Miss Bertha Bateman of Alpine, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Jensen.

The members of the Odd Fellows lodge and their wives enjoyed an oyster supper at Hyde's cafe Thursday evening.

The B. D. P. O. club were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dangler Tuesday evening. The time was spent in music, games and jolly sociability.

Mr. and Mrs. John Grier, Jr., of Salt Lake, visited Provo relatives this week.

The Nineteenth Century club met yesterday with Mrs. Rosetha M. Seale.

An interesting paper on current literature prepared by Mrs. Katherine B. Subr, was read by Mrs. Seale. The remainder of the program consisted of short stories and music contributed by various members of the club.

A number of invited guests were in attendance and at the close of the program delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

CLUB CHAT.

The monthly meeting of the Utah Woman's Press club was held on Monday evening, December 30, at the home of Mrs. C. C. R. Wells. It was a social evening and there was a large attendance.

Quotations from the Bible were given in response to roll call.

Prest. Alder called the meeting to order and the invocation was given by Mrs. E. B. Wells.

Mrs. Lydia D. Alder gave an excellent paper, descriptive of the palace of Frederick the Great at Potsdam, Germany. A poem, "The Pioneer's Christmas," was read by its author, Dr. Ellis R. Shipp. "In Memoriam," a tribute of love to the late Mrs. Phoebe C. Young, which had been drafted by the committee, Mesdames E. B. Wells, Lydia D. Alder and Ellis R. Shipp, was read by Mrs. E. B. Wells. She was a valuable member of the club, of bright and superior mind, and possessed a beautiful spiritual nature. Miss Orla Shipp favored the company with "The Lord is My Light," which was beautifully rendered.

Miss Lane gave a fine instrumental selection, and Miss Nettie Raleigh sang in her charming style. The guest of honor of the evening was Mrs. Elmer B. Jones.

Mrs. Jones is chairman of the industrial committee, and favored the club with a talk on the Consumer's League, its labor and what it can and will accomplish, touching on the conditions which led to its origin, and what had been accomplished.

Mrs. Jones is fully conversant with the topic she discussed. Questions were asked by some of the ladies in regard to the sweatshop labor and how we, the women of the West, can be of assistance to our Eastern sisters. Great interest was manifested in the important question under consideration.

That the club will prove helpful is certain.

At the close the hostess, assisted by her sister and daughters, served dainty refreshments amid friendly conversation, and good wishes that were expressed to all present for a happy and prosperous new year.

The Press club met with Mrs. C. C. R. Wells on Monday night and a most enjoyable program was rendered consisting of a paper by Mrs. Lydia Alder an original poem by Dr. Ellis Shipp, and musical selections. Mrs. Elmer B. Jones was present and gave some interesting data concerning the Consumer's League. Dainty refreshments were served.

There will be no meeting of the Tourists section of the Ladies' Literary club on Monday.

FIGPRUNE Cereal

54%
Fruit
46%
Grains

A Perfect Food Drink

The beverage made from Figprune Cereal is smooth, palatable and nutritious. Because of the large percentage of natural saccharine matter in figs and prunes, Figprune requires less sugar than any other cereal coffee. 50¢ All Grocers Sell It.