Daughters Were Killed While
Two Others Are Dying.

When Proceeding From Scene of Accident It Collided With Another Car.

Los Angeles, Cal., Nov. 25.—Nicholas Jacobs, a real estate dealer of this city, and his two daughters and his two sons were killed and Mrs. Jacobs and her two-month-old baby are dying as the result of a collision tonight between an automobile in which they were riding, and a trolley car on the Los Angeles-Santa Ana line six miles from the city.

Two other sons of Jacobs, Peter and John, and Miss Josephine Solon, aged 18, escaped from the automobile and escaped with slight injuries.

While an electric car, in which the injured persons and the bodies of those killed, were being placed, was proceeding along the track from the scene of the accident, it collided with a car on the Central and Central avenue in this city and eight more people were injured.

The accident occurred at the corner of

KEPT PRISONER BY AWFUL HUMOR

Whole Body Covered and Head So Bad She Could Not Comb Hair—Sight Affected—Neighbor Begged Her to Use Cuticura—It Cooled the Itching Flesh and

BROUGHT REST, SLEEP
AND A PERFECT CURE

"Words cannot express the awful skin disease I suffered with. My whole body was covered with it. My head broke out so that I could not comb my hair.
For a month or more I suffered with a terrible sore throat. When I should lie down at night my eyes would stick together and I would have to bathe them before opening them each morning. I saw nothing for my eyes had failed me from the effect of the skin disease. I tried three doctors, but they gave me no relief and then I tried all kinds of things that I thought would do me good but I could find nothing. I was a perfect prisoner with the awful humor.

"One of my neighbors begged me to try the Cuticura Remedies, and I made up my mind to try them but not thinking that I would ever be cured. I would take a hot bath with Cuticura Soap and then apply the Cuticura Ointment. I found relief in a few days and in a month you could scarcely see a spot on my face. I felt like a new person. When I first began to use the Cuticura Remedies they cooled the itching flesh and brought me real good sleep and rest at night. I had suffered fully two years with the skin disease but now I am a woman and in good health. I beg everybody to use the Cuticura Remedies because I thought that I would never get well again. Mrs. Cordelia C. Pitts, Newborn, Ga., Nov. 24 and Dec. 21, '08."

Keeping the Hair

To prevent dry, thin and falling hair, remove dandruff, allay itching and irritation and promote the growth and beauty of the hair, frequent shampooing with Cuticura Soap and occasional dressing with Cuticura are usually effective when all other methods fail. The special and full directions accompany each package of Cuticura.

Cuticura Soap (25c), Cuticura Ointment (50c), and Cuticura Resolvent (50c) for the hair of children. Cuticura Soap (25c) per box of 40 and Cuticura Ointment (50c) per box of 40 are sold everywhere. Write for free literature to

GIRLS BID LIVELY TO SAVE OLD HOMESTEAD

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Stirred by a sentimental love for the ground on which stood the old homestead in which they were born, three daughters of the late Patrick McCarthy fought successfully to retain possession of the property yesterday in one of the most exciting bidding contests ever witnessed in the rooms of the Chicago real estate board. They finally bid in the property, which is located at the northeast corner of Dearborn and Washington streets, for $700,000, a price $340,000 in excess of the value fixed by the court appraiser. This price breaks all records for values in the loop district, except for a few sites which have been sold in recent years on State street, and is declared by realty owners to have been caused more by sentiment than actual value.

The property was placed on the block in accordance with a decree for partition sale, in a suit begun by James J.
McCarthy, a brother of the three sisters who bid in the property.

A BOY'S OWN STORY OF HIS HEROISM

Chicago, Nov. 25.—"Do girls was so little I need there wasn't no chance 'em getting out of the way and somebody had to do something. If I knew I was going to be bunged up dis way I guess I'd laid down on the job, but I didn't think then. Dis ain't nothing, though. I'll be all right in du morning. Don't pipe me off in du paper, mister; de kids 'll guy me."

This is a youthful hero's statement of the part he played in a runaway accident on Oakland avenue, where a mother and two little girls were threatened with perhaps fatal injury. "Happy" Fuller, a 14-year-old newsboy,

PROFITABLE CROPS FOR INDIAN RESERVATIONS

Washington, Nov. 25.—What crops can be most profitably grown on the Indian reservations of the southwest, out the work the civil service commission is preparing to hold three different examinations for specialists in various branches of agriculture.

Most of the experimental work will be done by the Indians under the supervision of experts to be selected

TOO MUCH PUBLICITY

Spoiled Nineteen-Year-Old Girl's Plans For Third Marriage.

Defiance, O., Nov. 25.—Too much publicity spoiled the plans for the third marriage of Mrs. Beulah Speck-Williams-Larum, aged 19, on Thursday Thanksgiving event.

The girl was divorced Monday in the probate court from her second husband, Edward Larum, and announced she intended to be married at once to Benjamin Hill, who had been a boarder at her parents' home and had advanced money to pay for the divorce proceedings.

When Hill applied to the same court for a license, it was refused and he was informed that the formal decree of divorce would be withheld while the court looked further into the circumstances.
