BALFOUR CROSSES TARIFF BRIDGE.

Takes His Position Practically on Chamberlain's Protection Program.

AGREEMENT ALL-EMBRACING.

Fiscal Reform is and Must Remain First Constructive Work of the Unionist Party.

London, Feb. 15 .-- Former Premier Balfour finally has crossed the bridge which Joseph Chamberlain held out for him, and jate last night he took his position practically on Mr. Chamberlain's tariff reform program,

The fact is heralded in the Liberal newspapers this morning as "Balfour's Surrender." "Chamberlain's Victory, etc., while the Daily Graphic, speaking on behalf of the Unionist free traders, deplores Mf. Balfour's "journey to Canossa," as the price of his reten tion in the leadership of his party. The Chamberlainite journals express complete satisfaction and attach no importance whatever to the Balfourium instructions whatever to the Balfourium Importance whatever to the Balfourian limitations which the former premier places upon his acceptance of the pro-posed duty on corn and a tax on manu-factures. The Standard says that the agreement between the two foremost statesmen of the party is absolutely light provided in the state of the party is absolutely all-embracing.

SOME CORRESPONDENCE.

Interesting correspondence between A. J. Balfour and Joseph Chamber-lain, dated today, and published on the eve of the Unionist party meeting at Lansdowne House, disposes effectively of the report that serious difficulties exist between the factions of that par-

Mr. Baifour's letter is as follows: "My Dear Mr. Chamberlain: The controversy aroused over the fiscal question has produced, not unnatural-ly, the impression that the practical differences of fiscal reformers are much deeper than in fact is the case. The exchange of views which has constantly exchange of views which has constantly taken place between them leads me to hope that this misconception may be removed and with it the friction be removed and with it the friction which has proved so injurious to the party. My own opinion, which, I be-lieve, is shared by the great majority of the Unionist party, may be briefly

"While at present it is necessary to prescribe the exact method whereby these ends may be attained, it is in-expedient to permit of differences of opinion regarding these methods to di-vide the party. Though other means be possible, the establishment of a mod-erate general tariff on manufactured goods, not imposed for the purpose of raising prices or giving artificial pro-tection against legitimate competition, and the imposition of a small duty on foreign corn are not in principle ob-jectionable and they should be adoptjectionable and they should be adopt-ded if it can be shown that they are necessary for the attainment of the ends in view for the purpose of revenue

A QUESTION OF COST. In any number of stores you'll see various preparations of cod liver oil at as many different prices. You'll wonder, perhaps, why Scott's Emulsion costs more than some other kind in as large a bottle. Hearing only one side of the question you may be led into buying the "just as good as Scott's" at the lower price. That's false economy. Scott's Emulsion costs more because its more expensive to make. Every ingredient is tested and guaranteed of the purest quality. No adulteration, no shaving of quality. There's no economy in bargain medicine. If you can afford to experiment with your health, substitutes may satisfy you. We take it, however, that you want a pure preparation, a reliable remedy and something that's going to help you. That's what you get in Scott's Emulsion. Thirty years the standard.

It is Most Intense, Growing and An Uprising is Predicted.

THE RIOTING IN SHANGHAL

Eye Witness Described it, Americans Using Revolvers and Rifles.

San Francisco, Feb 15 .-- C. E. Young, an eye-witness of the recent riot in Shanghai, arrived here yesteray from the Orient on the steamer Doric. He tells of the intense antioreign sentiment that exists among the Chinese and predicts that an uprising will take place within the next w months. Young says that 200 Chinese were killed in the riot in Shanghai, and that only the presence of the foreign gunboats at shanghai prevented the wholesale slaughter of Americans and Englishment. Young represents a lo-cal firm, but, because of the boycott, he was unable to transact any business with the Chinese merchants. Young "The riot in Shanghai had its in-

"The Fiot in Shanghai had its in-ception because of the action of the British consular court. I was in Shanghai on Dec. 18, the day of the outbroak and remained there for the few days following, during which all foreigners were compelled to carry rifles in order to protect themselves from harm. from harm.

POISONS AND ADULTERANTS. Chicago, Feb. 15.—Poisons and adul-terants will be a feature of the gov-ernment exhibits at the national dairy and food show which opened at the Coliseum today. The exhibits are in charge of Paul Pierce, superintendent of the food exhibit. The exhibits have been brought here to furnisif convincing proofs of the poi-sonous chemical preservatives and col-orings placed in food products by un-scrupulous manufacturers. Poisonous chemicals extracted from foods will be on exhibition and chemi-cals analysis of certain products to show the degrees of their adulteration will be shown. Pleces of cloth painted with the same kind of poisonous dyes used in color-ing tinned and bottled goods will be exhibited. Side by side with this ar-ray will be shown an exhibit from the government commissary department, which prohibits the use of all kinds of colorings and preservatives. colorings and preservatives.

Spread Rapidly Over Body-Limbs and Arms Had to Be Bandaged and Scalp Looked Dreadful --Suffered Untold Misery for Three Years-Better in Two Months

MARVELOUS CURE BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"My son, who is now twenty-two years of age, when he was four months old began to have eczema on his face, spreading quite rapidly until he was nearly covered. We had all the doctors around us and some from larger places, but no one helped him a particle. The eczema was something terrible, and the doctors said it was the worst case they ever saw. At times his whole body and face were covered, all but his feet. I had to bandage his limbs and arms; his scalp was just dreadful. I used many kinds of patent medicines before trying the Cuticura Remedies, all to no avail. "A friend teased me to try Cuticura.

At last I consented, when my boy was three years and four months old, having had eczema all that time, and suffering untold misery. I began to use all three of the Cuticura Remedies; the Cuticura Soap helped as well as the Ointment. He was better in two months; in six months he was well; but I gave him the Cuticura Resolvent one year, - using twelve bottles. I think, - and always used the Cuticura think, — and always used the Cuticura Soap for bathing, and do now a good deal. He was four years old before he was well, and his skin became per-fectly fair when cured. I give you per-mission to publish this letter for I am always glad to do good when I can. ALEX LEGLER ARRESTED FOR BROTHER'S MURDER.

Jersey City, N. J., Feb. 15 .-- Alexander Legler, 22 years old, of 403 Washington street, Hoboken, N. J., was arrested yesterday and locked up, charged with the murder of his brother Carl in a boarding house at 419 Summit avenue last December.

boarding house at 419 Summit avenue last December. Chief Murphy said last night that Legler was held in connection with the death by burning of his brother, who carried $3,000 insurance, payable to Alexander. Carl died in a boarding house kept by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rutherford at 419 Summit avenue. The prisoner is em-ployed in the equipment department of the New York & New Jersey Telephone company, in New York. The young man took his arrest coolly. He said that he came home at 10:30 p. m. on Dec. 14 and went to bed. He was in the habit of sleeping on the outside and his brother on the inside of the bed. He said he was sound asleep when Carl climbed in beside him. About 11:30 o'clock, according to the prisoner, he suddenly found himself on the floor, and betteved he had been kicked out of bed. He saw Carl, enveloped in a "fillar of flames," leap over the foot-board.

Alexander said he ran downstairs in Alexander said he ran downstairs in his excitement and returned with a pail of water which he poured over his brother. Carl died on Dec. 19, five days later. Chief Murphy says that Alexan-der was given a powder shortly before he died. Before the fire Alexander is al-leged to have asked Mrs. Rutherford what would take out paint stains on clothing. She told him that benzoin was as good as anything. He bought some and Mrs. Rutherford has informed the police that when she ran into the was as good as anything. The bought some and Mrs. Rutherford has informed the police that when she ran into the young men's room on the night of the fire she kicked over a benzoin bottle lying on the floor. The chief says that the clothing was burned on Carl's side of the bed only. The prisoner toil Chief Murphy that he and his brother agreed to have their lives insured in each oth-er's favor. Carl was insured for $2,000 in the Metropolitan and for $1,000 in the Fidelity & Casualty company. When he fluished making his statement. Chief Murphy asked: "How do you suppose your brother got on fire in bed?" "I think it must have been two matches rubbing together," was the re-ply.

The day of working miracles, I'm sure is far from past. And now to show you what I mean, I'll tell you of the last Great one that happened right to me, For I was part of it, you see.

You know the life I used to lead-O God, a living death. A drunkard of the hopeless kind-For, scarce a sober breath I ever drew, and hope and pride Were lost to me and nearly all beside.

One friend alone was left-my wife, God bless her ev'ry hour! She saved me from a drunkard's grave, And whiskey's wicked power. Just how she saved me you shall see-This is the way she told it me.

When hope was almost dead within * Her faithful, constant breast, She read of Dr. Haines' Cure, Then without stay or rest. She sent for one Trial Sample free, And gave it unbeknown to me!

I drank of it at ev'ry meal-I ate it in my bread, While Mary watched me anxiously, But ne'r a word she said: Until one day I stopped to think. That I had jost my jove for drink!

When, quite unconscious I was cured, My Mary told me all; It seemed the very act of God. A modern miracle; I call it this, because my wife And Haines' Cure had saved my life.

And now my little story's done. My evry word is true, And what this treatment did for me, The same 'twill do for you; And wives and mothera-one and all, Take heart of Mary's Miracle. Save those near and dear to you from a life of degradation, poverty and disgrace. You can do it by cutting out this coupon.
