MARK AUSTIN TO IDAHO BEET GROWERS.

Special Correspondence.
T. ANTHONY, Nov. 22.—Mark Austin, general manager of the Idaho sugar factories, and an expert in the propagation of sugar beets, has issued the following bulletin to the growers of western Idaho:
"It is certainly very gratifying to know that the greater number of our growers have harvested a very large crop of beets this season, and it has been thoroughly demonstrated that beet culture in western Idaho is a thorough success where the proper preparation of the land is made and proper care is given the crop; therefore, we desire to urge upon the growers the absolute necessity of the plowing of their soil this fall as soon as the beets are harvested.
"If you have any manure to put on the land it would be well to do so before plowing. If the land is too dry to plow properly it should be irrigated before it is plowed, which should be done at the earliest possible moment, for fall irrigated land contains the moisture for the care of the crop the following season much better than land which is not sufficiently moist. The fall from the fact that it is a good thing to do as little irrigating as possible during the irrigating season.
"Farmers having alfalfa land to break up, it would be an excellent thing to break same as soon as possible this fall to get it ready for next spring's seeding. It may be done by just skimming two or three inches off the top where the land is not too clayey, with a sharp plow and then replot, taking care that there is no clay left on the top that was not there before to deposit the seed in.
"A year ago this fall land that was seeded with alfalfa and clover was only plowed once and it was pretty hard to get a good stand of beets.
"Contracts for all those that require an increased acreage or those desiring to make new contracts should get in touch with the company agents or the office at once so arrangements can be made at once to take care of them. The growers should also make arrangements to secure their Japanese labor as soon as possible so we will not have a shortage next year like we had during the present season. It will be well to make your contracts direct with the Japs who are in your district, such of them as are good workmen, and where there is an insufficient supply we will arrange to get more to take the additional acreage. The contracts will be much better for next year than it was for this, and the growers will get a 12-ton haul instead of a 10, for $250 the contract provides for much better work being done, and we are certain that we will get better results. It will be the best thing to do."

"Blank forms of contracts for this purpose will be given out by the company in a few days and may be had by calling at the sugar company's office or by writing."

A FEW FAMILIES HAVE SAMPLES OF COAL AT MALAD

Special Correspondence.
MALAD CITY, Nov. 22.—The coal famine has struck Malad. Only a few families have any of the prized article.
Three inches of snow fell Tuesday and the weather is now somewhat moderated. Tuesday morning the thermometer registered 9 below zero.
Dr. Wright, an eastern man, has come to Malad, where he will practice. The prime cause of his change in location was his wife's health, which has improved already.
Ethel, the little child of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Peck, died Tuesday morning from the whooping cough. Funeral services will be held tomorrow.

News reached Malad yesterday of the death of Mr. Benjamin Evans at Salt Lake City. For the past two months the deceased has been suffering from a complication of diseases. Mr. Evans was born in Malad where he has always resided and his death will be deeply regretted by all. He leaves a wife, mother, sister, brothers and hosts of friends and relatives to mourn his demise. The remains will be brought to Malad for interment.

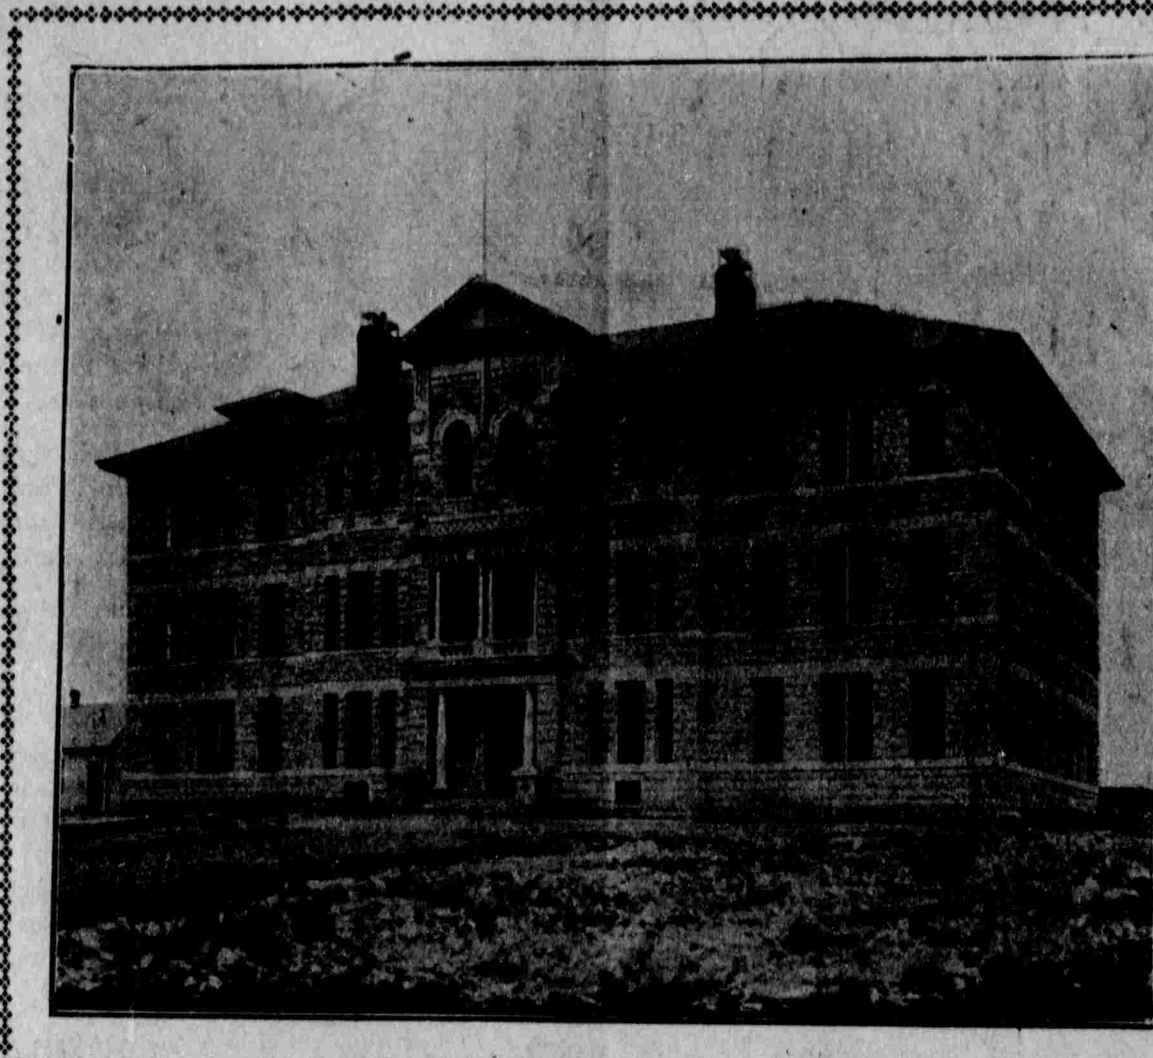

Mrs. William W. Richards left yesterday for Logan to be at the bedside of her son, John, who is very sick of typhoid fever.
Monday evening the marriage of Mr. Clyde Hanson and Miss Maggie Jones was solemnized at the parsonage. Rev. Mr. Stewart of the Presbyterian church officiating. A free dance was given at the pavilion the same evening in their honor.
The Malad state Sunday school union meeting was held at Portage, Sunday, where it was decided to discontinue the union meetings for the winter. The Sunday schools of the Malad state were reported to be in good condition.

MRS. JAMES H. BRADY DIES IN PORTLAND, OR.

Special Correspondence.
POCATELLO, Nov. 22.—Mrs. James H. Brady, wife of Chairman Brady of the Republican state central committee of Idaho, died this morning at 11 a. m. in Portland, Oregon, where she has been the last five months for her health. Mr. Brady, who was by her side at the time, wired the sadness to Mr. W. S. Chaney, his manager here.
The body is due to arrive here next Saturday morning, in the mean time proper arrangements will be made for the funeral.

EIGHT DEGREES BELOW ZERO AT RIGBY THIS WEEK.

Special Correspondence.
RIGBY, Ida., Nov. 22.—King Winter is asserting his supremacy at present in a manner that causes all opponents to stand back. Good weather prevailed right along up to the 18th inst., when a cold north wind blew all day, followed by a hard frost; the thermometer showing that the mercury had settled down to eight degrees below zero at 7 a. m. on the 19th. Yesterday evening the snow began to fall, and now three or four inches covers the earth. Winter would not be so unwelcome now if it were not for the scarcity of coal. There is very little of that article in town, and not much prospect of relief for some time. Most of the threshing of grain is done at Rigby, but there is considerable in the neighborhood not done yet.
School has filled up in all departments, about 270 being in attendance under the care and guidance of six teachers. Already the school board is discussing the necessity of finishing and furnishing more rooms. Besides the eight grades, Principal Hammond is teaching a ninth grade and quite a number of students are coming from the surrounding settlements to avail themselves of educational facilities.

Daily shipments of grain, potatoes, hogs, etc., are a characteristic of our busy railway station. Several residences and one fine business block are having the finishing touches put on them.

TALK OF HOLDING UP COAL TRAINS AT IDAHO FALLS.

Special Correspondence.
IDAHO FALLS, Ida., Nov. 22.—So cold has been the weather here this week that the farmers have been compelled to suspend threshing operations owing to the pipes in the engines freezing from time to time. Such cold weather at this time of the year has not been known for years. Many of the ranchers are feeling pretty blue over the situation as there is yet considerable grain to be threshed. Fortunately the beet growers one and all have pulled their crop so the big storm of last week did not hurt them to any appreciable extent.

The coal famine here has reached such dimensions that the people are seriously talking about holding up the coal trains that pass through and helping themselves to a car or two. It is argued that this could be done in a perfectly "lawful" fashion, as everybody has the money to pay for the fuel and is more than willing to do so but the trainloads of coal continue to go through without helping out the situation here to any appreciable extent. As it is the residents here are running around collecting old boxes and anything that will burn for fuel until such time as the railroad will condescend to leave a car or two of coal on the side track.

The public school was compelled to shut down here for lack of coal on Tuesday.
During the week the population of Idaho Falls has been added to. Among the new arrivals are a girl to Mr. and Mrs. James Kerr; a 12-pound boy to Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Wright; and a girl to Mr. and Mrs. Sigard Johnsen.
The new Davis block is now completed. The big new ball room was formally opened by a grand dance on Thursday evening. Downstairs is devoted to a couple of commodious stores.

HAULED STUFF IN WAGONS.

Bold Operations by the Gang—Sad Death of Mrs. Anna Kittle—Carnegie Library.

Special Correspondence.
POCATELLO, Nov. 22.—Robbers out for loot by the wholesale were much in evidence last week when ranch houses outside of the city limits, and temporarily abandoned by city residents, were entered by men who carted off by the wagon load furniture and other stuff. Houses belonging to "Billy" Trapp, Dr. Howard, Charles Lamreaux, John Kane and Deputy County Clerk Delos Campbell, were nearly depleted. The latter says he feels grateful for having the stovepipe hole left as a souvenir.
On Thursday night the tailor shop of Ed Pace, on the east side, was entered. A suit of new clothes and three pair of pants were taken. The entrance was effected through the door, probably by a skeleton key. So far there is no clue to the guilty parties.

PETIT JURORS.

The funeral was held at the residence Tuesday afternoon. Rev. F. E. Whitham officiating. The local machinists turned out in a body as a mark of respect. Mrs. Kittle is survived by her husband and daughter Mayme. The family has resided here about four years and are most highly esteemed by all who have made their acquaintance.

The teachers examination is being held in room 10 Eastside today, tomorrow and Saturday. Miss Margaret Pomroy was sent to Soda Springs to conduct a class in examination there. Miss Milvina Kohlhepp of Neeley, but formerly of this city is attending the examination here.

CARNEGIE LIBRARY.
Mrs. Dr. Minnie F. Howard, vice president of the Carnegie Pocatello public library, has received a letter from Andrew Carnegie, who is willing to give $12,000 to the same, conditioned on a free site, and the city to guarantee to furnish a maintenance cost at not less than $1,200 per year. The site was purchased last summer opposite the Methodist church; $2,500 had been raised by popular subscription.

JOTTINGS BY THE WAY.
Mrs. James Astle, presented her husband with a fine baby girl Saturday night; both are doing well.
John McIntosh head clerk in the O. S. L. supply department, is laid up suffering with a sprained ankle.
Mrs. Amy Hooper Duffin, wife of Richard Duffin, presented her husband with a fine baby girl Saturday night. It is their first born. Mother and babe are doing nicely.
Miss Viola Monroe of Dempsey, and Commodore E. Moss of McCammon were united in wedlock Tuesday by Judge White.
Ephraim C. Winn, a Short Line car repairer, sustained a sprained back yesterday while at Blackfoot, when he was sent alone to repair a bad order box car. He attempted to carry a heavy car jack, but the weight was too much for him and his back gave way with the above results. He was obliged to return to this city for medical aid, and reached home only with the greatest difficulty. Mr. Winn was formerly a resident of St. Charles, Idaho.
Jack Frost visited Pocatello Saturday night, and the first part of this week, covering the Portneuf river with a coat of ice. A trace of snow fell in the city, while the mountains received a beautiful supply. Pocatello is experiencing a coal famine, an appeal is being made to the Short Line to release a small quantity of their storage coal, as it arrives from the mines, which has been granted, at local price, $6 per ton. A fire this afternoon destroyed the residence of Edward Thomas, near the eastern foot hills, about 4 o'clock. The fire company responded, but there was no watermain here and but little could be done to save the house. The cause of the fire is not known at this time.

Miss Agnes Rowland and Prof. John Gage, dancing master at the Eagle hall, were married last night by Rev. P. W. Reed, at the residence of the bride's parents, 830 north Main street. Mention must also be made of the wedding of Mrs. Emma Sells Rowland and Homer Lane, which occurred privately one day last week at Blackfoot.

NAMPA SUGAR BEET GROWERS GET $200,000.

Special Correspondence.
NAMPA, Ida., Nov. 22.—According to Thursday at the sugar factory checks amounting to $200,000 were handed out to the growers in this section. In September $21,000 was paid out, and T. R. Horne, the local manager, estimates that $200,000 will be paid out for beets altogether. The number of tons of beets sliced will reach 45,000, which is a splendid record for the season.
The officials of the company pronounce the run on the Nampa factory to be the most successful of any first year run. The tonnage has been larger and the amount of purity in the beets greater than in other localities, and southwestern Idaho will soon have the record for beet growing.

Under the efficient management of Supt. Peters the work of converting beets into sugar at the factory has been very successful. There have been very few shut downs since the machinery was first started and the factory has been run steadily to its full capacity and over. The season's work will end about the middle of next month. Contracts for next year's crop are being rapidly signed up and the outlook at present is for the acreage to be nearly doubled which will insure Payette a factory in 1908.

ABOUT BRITISH EXPORTS TO THE UNITED STATES.

The London Commercial Intelligence prints the following:
Mr. Mahin, the American consul at Nottingham, in a communication to the local export and import committee, is giving a very gratifying increase in the exports from that town to the states. The bulk of Nottingham's exports is, of course, lace goods. For the first nine months of this year the value of these goods exported is some $375,000, a sum which the consul believes to be the highest on record since his office was established. His explanation of this great export is that lace is in fashion and that prosperity prevails in the states, a fortunate state of things which no other industry in the world, perhaps not excluding even the state themselves, is reaping more benefit from than the British textile industry.
