

SOLDIERS HAVE LOST TWO GAMES

Having Played But Two, This Sends Them to the Bottom.

SALT LAKE HEADS THE LIST.

Murray and Ogden Share Second Honors in Utah State Baseball League—Good Sport Coming.

UTAH BASEBALL LEAGUE.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Salt Lake	2	0	1.000
Murray	1	1	.500
Ogden	1	1	.500
Fort Douglas	0	2	.000

By downing the Fort Douglas team Saturday and then the Murray team next, Salt Lake occupies first position in the Utah baseball league. Murray and Ogden are even in the per cent column because each has lost one game out of two played. Murray beat the Junctionites on their own field Saturday and Ogden defeated Fort Douglas in Ogden. None of the teams have their final line-ups yet and the brand of ball goes so far as to be betted with each game. The fans are satisfied, however. Utah's lovers of baseball have been wanting a league formed for a long time and the seemingly impossible was accomplished after a long, hard fight against countless obstacles.

GOOD UMPIRES SIGNED.
With the line-up of no team complete, it is too early to begin mapping out "dope" on the players. A number show surprising form and when the league machinery is running smoothly some excellent baseball is to be seen. And.

WITH THE LEAGUES

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Chicago	23	16	.592
Pittsburgh	22	20	.523
Cincinnati	20	20	.500
New York	24	23	.511
Philadelphia	21	22	.488
Boston	22	25	.468
St. Louis	22	30	.423
Brooklyn	16	31	.341

No games were played in the National yesterday.

WESTERN LEAGUE.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Omaha	20	22	.475
Lincoln	20	22	.475
Denver	20	25	.442
Sioux City	20	26	.435
Des Moines	19	31	.380
Pueblo	17	32	.347

Omaha did great work yesterday in taking a double-header on the home ground. The first game came out 7 to 1, and the second 3 to 2. Lincoln and Des Moines played at the latter city any the home team suffered the ignominious experience of being left behind one run in the ninth. To tell the story, Sioux City ran up her percentage by winning two games in a double-header. Sioux City introduced two twirlers who were twirlers. In the first game and Crutcher pitched a shutout game in the second. A couple of errors and a nice single at the right time led Denver have a look-in.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

	Won.	Lost.	P.C.
Chicago	20	20	.500
Cleveland	22	22	.500
St. Louis	22	23	.488
Philadelphia	24	26	.480

as much depends upon the umpire, it might be well to mention the fact that three crackcrack men have been obtained to officiate at the games. They are "Billy" Dutch, McGee and a new man named Johnson. Johnson showed up in great shape in the week-end game between Murray and Salt Lake. He rendered a decision which had both sides and the crowd up in the air for awhile but when the rule book was consulted it was found Mr. Johnson was right.

PECULIAR PLAY.

The puzzler came about in this way: It was the first inning and Salt Lake was at bat. Second and third were filled and McKean walked to first, thus filling the bases. Castro came to bat and drove out a long fly. McKean raced down to second and stopped there to see if the fly would be caught.

Weak Heart Action

There are certain nerves that control the action of the heart. When they become weak, the heart action is impaired. Short breath, pain around heart, choking sensation, palpitation, fluttering, feeble or rapid pulse, and other distressing symptoms follow. Dr. Miles Heart Cure is a medicine especially adapted to the needs of these nerves and the muscular structure of the heart itself. It is a strengthening tonic that brings speedy relief. Try it.

"For years I suffered with what I thought was stomach trouble, when the doctors told me I had heart trouble. I tried many remedies, when the Dr. Miles' Heart Cure came into my hands, and I concluded to try it. I have taken three bottles, and now I am not suffering at all. I am cured and this medicine did it. I write this in the hope that it will attract the attention of others who suffer as I did."

804 Main St., Covington, Ky.
Your druggist sells Dr. Miles' Heart Cure, and we authorize him to return price of first bottle (only) if it fails to benefit you.

Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Castro, however, left first, passed McKean on second and was caught between second and third. The men who had been on second and third went while trying to get back to third. Murray said McKean was out and none of the runs could count but Johnson called McKean safe, but Castro out for passing.

COAST LEAGUE.

San Francisco met Los Angeles twice on the bay town's diamond yesterday and twice Los Angeles went to the dust. Both games were stubbornly fought. The scores were 5 to 4 and 4 to 3, close enough to suit anybody. Portland beat Oakland by a score of 5 to 2.

NORTHWEST LEAGUE.

Butte and Seattle put up a poor game yesterday. Butte drew 8 to Seattle's 4. Tacoma was among the vanquished yesterday. She lost two games to Spokane after three hits were scored. The game resulted in a score of 2 to 1 and the second of 2 to 0. This is baseball and kept an overflow crowd on its feet during the greater portion of the day.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

At Louisville—Louisville 6, Kansas City 5.

To Toledo—Toledo 3, Minneapolis 4.

At Milwaukee—First game—Milwaukee 6, Indianapolis 3. Second game—Milwaukee 0, Indianapolis 1.

At Columbus—Columbus 4, St. Paul 1.

RACE PROGRAM FOR OGDEN THIS EVENING

Now that there is three saucer tracks in Utah, Ogden will hold races Monday evening, starting with tonight. The O. S. L. race special will leave at 6:15 o'clock for the Junction city and will leave Ogden for this city immediately.

Beware of Any Physic That Brings Pain

Gripping and pain will never occur unless there is irritation. Salts and harsh pills bring their results by irritation—by causing the bowel fluids to flow.

So pepper in the eyes or nostrils will cause fluids to flow. But it is wise to treat a delicate membrane thus? Do so for a time and the membrane will harden. That is how Nature wards off such attacks. The you need larger doses.

Eventually the calloused bowels fail in their functions entirely. Then you have chronic constipation.

No wise person will ever abuse the bowels in that way. They will use Cascarets.

Cascarets never cause pain. That proves that their action is natural. Yet they are just as effective as harsh physic.

If the bowels are calloused, you may need a Cascaret twice a day at the start. But you soon cease to need them at all.

Those who know the injury done by harsh physics never use anything but Cascarets.

Cascarets cure the trouble. Cathartics only make it worse.

Cascarets are candy tablets. They are sold by all druggists. Be sure you get the genuine, with CCC on every tablet. The box is marked like this:

The rest-pocket box is 10 cents. The full-treatment box 50 cents. 12,000,000 boxes sold annually.

27-29 WEST THIRD SOUTH ST.

Our New Stock is Arriving Daily

Let us furnish you with anything pertaining to

Hardware, Stoves, Refrigerators, Cutlery & Kitchen Utensils

Under the management of CHAS. O. KING, has succeeded the Monarch Hardware Co. at

27-29 WEST THIRD SOUTH ST.

Our New Stock is Arriving Daily

Let us furnish you with anything pertaining to

Hardware, Stoves, Refrigerators, Cutlery & Kitchen Utensils

Under the management of CHAS. O. KING, has succeeded the Monarch Hardware Co. at

27-29 WEST THIRD SOUTH ST.

Our New Stock is Arriving Daily

Let us furnish you with anything pertaining to

Hardware, Stoves, Refrigerators, Cutlery & Kitchen Utensils

Under the management of CHAS. O. KING, has succeeded the Monarch Hardware Co. at

27-29 WEST THIRD SOUTH ST.

Our New Stock is Arriving Daily

Let us furnish you with anything pertaining to

Hardware, Stoves, Refrigerators, Cutlery & Kitchen Utensils

Under the management of CHAS. O. KING, has succeeded the Monarch Hardware Co. at

27-29 WEST THIRD SOUTH ST.

Our New Stock is Arriving Daily

Let us furnish you with anything pertaining to

Hardware, Stoves, Refrigerators, Cutlery & Kitchen Utensils

Under the management of CHAS. O. KING, has succeeded the Monarch Hardware Co. at

27-29 WEST THIRD SOUTH ST.

Our New Stock is Arriving Daily

Let us furnish you with anything pertaining to

Hardware, Stoves, Refrigerators, Cutlery & Kitchen Utensils

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the sight of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is such that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with dread. Every woman should know that the danger and pain of child-birth can be avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a liniment for external use, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, assisting nature in its work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this crisis in safety and with little pain.

Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Valuable book to women sent free. BRADFIELD'S REGULATOR CO. Atlanta, Ga.

OLDEST NEWSPAPER IS TO SUSPEND

It is reported from China that the oldest newspaper in the world, the Peking Gazette, is about to suspend publication. The first number appeared in 161 A. D. and since 1351, more than a century before the discovery of America, it has appeared regularly.

The Peking Gazette has published a daily budget of the imperial court news and has been a repository of edicts from the throne, memorials from provincial governors and reports from Chinese officials. It would be wrong to infer that its contents were always dry. Frequently the Gazette has contained news of great interest to the world and information on one phase or another of Chinese character or the government regime.

Perhaps we read one day that not only the soldier who had stolen thirty boxes of bullets had been severely punished, but the officer whose duty it was to inspect the stores and see that they were intact was condemned to eighty blows and dismissed from service. This showed the grave responsibility imposed upon Chinese officials.

It was Li Hung Chang who reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the sight of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is such that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with dread. Every woman should know that the danger and pain of child-birth can be avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a liniment for external use, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, assisting nature in its work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this crisis in safety and with little pain.

Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Valuable book to women sent free. BRADFIELD'S REGULATOR CO. Atlanta, Ga.

OLDEST NEWSPAPER IS TO SUSPEND

It is reported from China that the oldest newspaper in the world, the Peking Gazette, is about to suspend publication. The first number appeared in 161 A. D. and since 1351, more than a century before the discovery of America, it has appeared regularly.

The Peking Gazette has published a daily budget of the imperial court news and has been a repository of edicts from the throne, memorials from provincial governors and reports from Chinese officials. It would be wrong to infer that its contents were always dry. Frequently the Gazette has contained news of great interest to the world and information on one phase or another of Chinese character or the government regime.

Perhaps we read one day that not only the soldier who had stolen thirty boxes of bullets had been severely punished, but the officer whose duty it was to inspect the stores and see that they were intact was condemned to eighty blows and dismissed from service. This showed the grave responsibility imposed upon Chinese officials.

It was Li Hung Chang who reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

We learned from the Gazette that the explanation of moral maxims to the people was a favorite prescription for mending their shortcomings. One day a memorial in the paper said that as the inhabitants of one of the provinces were turbulent, competent persons had been ordered to explain the maxims of the sacred edicts, with the hope of improving their character.

The Gazette often told of cases where the flesh of a son or daughter were cooked and eaten by a parent afflicted with obstinate illness. It was believed that their lives might thus be saved.

A few years ago a report in the Gazette from the governor of Yunnan said that in some of the country districts

the people were so poor that they could not even afford to buy a pig. The Gazette reported that the officials along the Yangtze river had risked their lives in their efforts to prevent it from inundating the surrounding country, and in the same report he recommended that though they tried to do what was beyond the power of man, they should be stripped of their buttons or deprived of their rank because they failed to avert the flood.

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the sight of mother and babe, angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is such that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with dread. Every woman should know that the danger and pain of child-birth can be avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a liniment for external use, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, assisting nature in its work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this crisis in safety and with little pain.

Sold at $1.00 per bottle by druggists. Valuable book to women sent free. BRADFIELD'S REGULATOR CO. Atlanta, Ga.

OLDEST NEWSPAPER IS TO SUSPEND

It is reported from China that the oldest newspaper in the world, the Peking Gazette, is about to suspend publication. The first number appeared in 161 A. D. and since 1351, more than a century before the discovery of America, it has appeared regularly.

The Peking Gazette has published a daily budget of the imperial court news and has been a repository of edicts from the throne, memorials from provincial governors and reports from Chinese officials. It would be wrong to infer that its contents were always dry. Frequently the Gazette has contained news of great interest to the world and information on one phase or another of Chinese character or the government regime.

Perhaps we read one day that not only the soldier who had stolen thirty boxes of bullets had been severely punished, but the officer whose duty it was to inspect the stores and see that they were intact was condemned to eighty blows and dismissed from service. This showed the grave responsibility imposed upon Chinese officials.

It was Li Hung Chang who reported that the