

THE SEMI- WEEKLY NEWS

The Great Country Paper of the West.

Issued Mondays and Thursdays and Contains All the Cream of the Daily and Saturday News.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Farmer Seeks Son—Alvan Cooper of Elmira, N. Y., has written the Salt Lake postoffice inquiring about his son, Alvan Cooper, who is supposed to be living in this city.

Free Lecture Tonight—"Man as Seen by Chiaravalloto" will be the subject of a free lecture this evening at the Library Hall by the theosophical lecturer C. Jinarajadasa of Ceylon.

Mrs. Helen Webber Dead—Word has been received this city of the death at Colorado Springs of Mrs. Helen Webber, formerly a resident of Salt Lake and a member of St. Paul's church. She leaves a husband, two sons and a daughter.

Cars on Ninth Avenue—The date set for the first Ninth Avenue car in Nov. is next. The work of track laying is now more than half done and workmen finished yesterday the first strip of double track from the junction with the Sixth Avenue line.

Drafts Found—Two drafts of $100 and $200 have been found in one of the letter boxes of the city and turned over to Postmaster A. L. Thomas. They are drawn by Baxter, Reed & Co., bankers, Ida Grove, Iowa, on the Corn Exchange Bank, Chicago.

Death of J. Henderson—J. Henderson, a well known citizen of Murray, died at the Groves L. D. S. hospital last evening of Bright's disease, from which he has suffered for a long time. He is survived by his wife. The funeral will be held on Sunday.

Bank Examiners Leave—Secretary of State Charles S. Tonger and C. A. Taiter, state bank examiner, left for Chicago this morning, where they will attend the convention of national bank examiners. The convention will be held from Sept. 13 to 15 inclusive.

Fathers' Name Delegates—The Order of Eagles in this state will be represented at Omaha Sept. 15-16. In the annual convention of the general body by H. S. McCann and A. G. Mahan of this city, J. F. Dean of Bingham, R. W. Kemp of Mercur and J. Riley of Idaho Falls.

Parents' Class Lectures—The last of the series of lectures on "Juvenile Delinquency" will be delivered before the Parents' classes of the Ensign Stake tomorrow morning. Next Sunday the topic for discussion will be "Should Babies and Small Children Be Taken to Meeting?"

Held For Omaha Police—Joe Oliver who claims he has been in Salt Lake for the past four weeks, was arrested yesterday by Detective Welling upon a telegraphic request from Omaha. The telegram did not state the nature of the charge against Oliver, but he is being held awaiting the arrival of the Omaha officers.

Great Apples From Helper—A box of apples from Helper was opened yesterday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce containing a dozen apples measuring 62½ inches when set up in a row. As it has not been believed fruit could be successfully raised at Helper, the exhibit creates more or less astonishment.

Think He Took Harness—M. R. Smith, a colored expressman, was taken into custody yesterday by Detective Frank Wheeling under suspicion of having committed or participated in the theft of several sets of valuable clothing and a number of private stables in the city. Smith is identified as the man who sold the harness in a south State street second hand store, but denied his guilt.

Gathering Agricultural Statistics—H. T. Haines, who is in charge of the state bureau of statistics, will make an effort to ascertain the amount of grass seed and the number of bushels of other kinds of grain raised in the state. Circular letters have been sent out to all the threshing outfits in the state, asking them to check up and send their results into the statistical bureau.

Peace Reigns in the Third—The third precinct citizens whose sleep has been made a ruthless mockery for many days by the gasoline engine pumping sewage from the conduit, have succeeded in persuading the contractors to substitute an electric pump, and now the people of the city are once more able to compose itself to slumber without something more than merely cursory comment on gasoline engines as promoters of slumber.

Dr. Pack's Lecture—Dr. Fred J. Pack, of the University of Utah, will speak this evening at 8 p.m. in the Third ward chapel, Seventh Street and State street, on "The Philosophy of the First Principles of Mormonism," special music for the services will be furnished by Miss Claudia Holt and a mixed quartet composed of Mrs. Sylvie G. Ball, Mrs. Job P. Weiler and Misses J. W. McMurrin and Carl Garff. The public is invited.

Greatly Impressed—Judge W. H. King, who returned from an extended trip along the Pacific coast, says the way the coast cities are growing is something surprising, particularly in the case of San Francisco and Seattle. The latter city, the judge thinks, ought to have 1,000,000 population in five years as it has the monopoly of the entire Alaskan trade which is destined to become of immense importance to this country as Alaska is bound to be a great agricultural as well as a mining country.

Water Used in Salt Lake—Salt Lake City consumed 15,360,000 gallons of water last year, according to the figures of Edward Kneasey, chief clerk of the water works department. This is 100 gallons per capita on a basis of 80,000 population. The water consumed this year will be much less on account of the heavy rains. The information was obtained at the request of the city officials of Denver, which is considering a proposition of owning its own water works system.

Teachers' Institute—A. C. Nelson, state superintendent of public instruction, is arranging a series of institutes to be held in various points in the state. The first institute will be held at Huntington, Emery county, on Sept. 14, 15 and 16. All the teachers in the county will attend the institute and the schools will be dismissed for those three days. Prof. Howard Briggs and Almon Hall of the University of Utah will be the speakers. Arrangements will be made later for the institutes in other counties.

TELLS LARKER TO PACK HER TRUNK

He Must Deliver the Goods or Go To Jail as Result of Wife's Actions.

MISTAKES OF WEDLOCK TOLD.

Judge Morse Hears Woes of Many Kinds Related by Woeeful Husbands And Morse Women.

If Arnold Larker doesn't pick up all his wife's wearing apparel, which he threw about the house, pack it neatly in her trunk and deliver it to her today, together with her feather bed, bed springs, three comforters and a pillow, he will be sentenced to the county jail for contempt of court. Judge Morse made this order yesterday afternoon when Mrs. Mabel C. Larker caused to be cited her husband before the court for interfering with her, when she went to their home to get her share of the household effects.

Mrs. Larker went to their home at 441 South West Temple Street last Tuesday to get her share of the household goods. Larker met her there, she said with a thin "Junette smile," and refused to kiss her. When she denounced him for this he locked the door to one room and refused to allow her to take her things out of it. Then they quarreled over the possession of the family Bible and Mrs. Larker left the house in tears without her things.

When she told her attorney the circumstances, he secured an order to have the property of the court. The court decided that Larker had wilfully violated the order to allow her part of the household goods.

The court denounced him for his actions and gave him a chance to purge himself of contempt by delivering her things to her where she is now living with friends on Church street.

Mrs. Larker's husband is a husband with cruelty and drunkenness in her opinion. They have been married five years and have no children. Larker has a daughter as the result of a former marriage. The testimony showed that Larker's daughter had come between them and was responsible for their domestic troubles.

At the meeting of the Salt Lake Federation of Labor last night, W. E. Jones of Los Angeles, connected with the United Mine Workers, and E. Rosenthal, organizer of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters, addressed the meeting informally. Both speakers referred to their experience in labor organizations, and contrasted conditions now with a few years ago, attributing the improvement to better organization. Mr. Jones complimented the local association on its excellent organization and warned those present against breaks in the ranks of the affiliated unions.

R. T. Hughes, A. H. Hurt and William Pickering were elected alternate delegates to the convention of the Utah Federation of Labor in Ogden, Sept. 13 and 14.
