TROOPER HORACE H. SMITH.

The reception given to Horace H. Smith by the members of the Garfield Lyceum and the Young Men's Thursday Social club, at the First Congregational church last night was a very pleasant affair.

Mr. Smith was a prominent member of the above organizations prior to enlistment in the Fourth cavalry at the call for volunteers two years ago. He has been in the Philippines and has fought valiantly for the Stars and Stripes.

Nearly 250 of his friends and associates were present, who were delighted to see that the hardships of a Philippine campaign had not altered his looks any, at least not for the worse. He has a slight limp still, as a result of the bullet wound he received at the battle of Pasig.

The room was draped in the national colors. There were flowers and palm branches draped with the flag, and the Deseret Mandolin club furnished a quartet made of the national colors. Flowers and palms were spread about in profusion, and near the rostrum hung a large portrait of Mr. Smith's troop at Manila. On a table near by rested a large memorial tablet of brass, which bore the following inscription:

PLEASANT BIRTHDAY PARTY
Friends of Joseph Locke Congratulate Him on Reaching 80th Milestone.

A delightful party was tendered Mr. Joseph Locke of the Twenty-first ward last evening, in honor of his eightieth birthday. The company gathered at the home of Mr. William Timms, No. 133 T. street, and the evening was a season of enjoyment to all. Those present were: Mr. Joseph Locke and wife, Bishop M. S. Woolley, H. J. Foulger and wife, Mrs. Peck James Maxwell and wife, Mr. Wilson, Mrs. Fowler, Mr. Gulcher and wife, Mr. Peart and wife, Mr. A. J. Timms and wife, Mr. John Timms and wife, Master Thomas Timms, Miss Anna Timms, Miss J. V. Smith and wife, Miss Irene Smith.

Congratulations were showered upon the aged guest of honor, and all wished him many happy returns of the day.

CAUGHT STEALING COAL.

William Bird is Found Helping Himself at the Short Line Depot.

William Bird is a man who does not believe in purchasing coal. Perhaps he imagined the price per ton entirely unreasonable. But he was in need of coal last night and proceeded to get it without paying for it. He went to the Oregon Short Line depot and was helping himself to the coal on a flat car, when an officer happened in sight, and Willie was towed to jail.

DEATH CLAIMS WELL KNOWN MAN

Richard Mackintosh Passes Away at His Home This Morning.

THE END CAME QUIETLY.

Was One of the Oldest Mining Men in the West and a Well Respected Citizen of the Commonwealth.

Over the portals of Richard Mackintosh's home hangs the sombre shadow of death. For many months that specter walked before Mr. Mackintosh and haunted his waking hours with its ominous visage. But the battle ended this morning at 2 o'clock, and his generous spirit was conducted to that bourn whence no traveler returns. The end was peaceful and without pain. Miss Mackintosh, his niece, who has been with him for several years, was with him at the hour of dissolution, as was also Casper L. Robertson, his private secretary.

Mr. Mackintosh's condition became critical Sunday morning. It was hoped that he might recover. It was not to be, however, for he grew gradually weaker until last night, when it was known that it would be impossible for him to keep up the struggle much longer. About 10 o'clock he became unconscious and remained in that condition until the end. Dr. Samuel Hughes, his faithful friend and physician, did all that his skill could suggest to prolong his life, but he was unable to do so.

The immediate cause of Mr. Mackintosh's death was a trouble emanating from a disease of the stomach. For three or four years he has been afflicted periodically with sickness caused by the condition of his stomach. It was not until last night that he was unable to eat, and he died of starvation.

Mr. Mackintosh was a well known citizen of the Commonwealth. He was one of the oldest mining men in the West and a well respected citizen of the Commonwealth.
