Declares if He Ever Has An Opportunity Will Even Up Things With Mr. Roosevelt.

BUT NOT WHILE PRESIDENT

So Long as He's Head of Government His Attitude Will be That of Any Loyal Citizen of United States.

Denver, Sept. 30 .- In a speech consuming less than 30 minutes, William R. Hearst, chairman of the Independence party national committee, in Denver tonight renewed his charges against Senator Foraker of Ohio and Gov. Charles N. Haskell of Oklahoma, and read additional lefters and affidavits bearing upon the charges. Two and read additional letters and after davits bearing upon the charges. Two letters addressed to Senator Foraker and signed by John D. Archboid of the Standard Oil company, in which were enclosed certificates of deposit for $5,000 and $10,000, respectively, each bearing date of 1900, were read. In this connection Mr. Hearst re-ferred to the claim of Senator Foraker that he (Hearst) had not made public any of the letters which would prove Foraker's innocence. "I have no such letters in my large collection," he said. In support of his claim that Gov. Haskell was a member of the Clitzens' Allance of Muskogee, Okla, Mr. Hearst read an affidavit dated Sept. 21. 1908, and signed Morgan Carroway of Muskogee, who declares that he was secretary of the alliance and had re-coived money for dues from Mr. Has-kell, and had frequently talked of poli-cles to be pursued by the alliance with reforence to organized labor. A letter from John Farrell of Muskogee was also read, which says that the signer was selected as sergeant-at-arms of the alliance through the influence of Mr. Haskell, Mr. Hearst paid his respects to Presi-

Hearst paid his respects to President Roosevelt and Mr. Bryan, and compared the action of the president in repudiating Senator Foraker with that of Mr. Bryan, who, he said, was willing to take the responsibility for Gov, Has-kell's connection with the Democratic national committee, "Well, let him take the responsibility," he continued.

WHAT DOES HEARST MEAN?

Resuming his comments on President Resemble first comments on President Roosevelt, Mr. Hearst said it was not true that he and the president "have altered our opinions of each other and are working now hand in hand," as the Demonstration of the same set of The working now hand in hand," as the Democrats charge, "I dislike Mr. Roosevelt personally and have every reason to dislike him. When 1 was running for governor of New York Mr. Roosevelt sent his personal mouth-plece, Tweed's ex-defender, into New York to say what was faise about me, and what Mr. Roosevelt knew to be false. If ever I have an opportunity to even things up with Mr. Roosevelt, after he has ceased to be president. I to even things up with Mr. Roosevelt, after he has ceased to be president, I shall do so with peculiar satisfaction. But while Mr. Roosevelt is president of the United States my attitude towards him is that of any loyal citizen of the United States."

Mr. Hearst denied that he was try-ing to elect Mr. Taft, a statement he credited to Mr. Bryan, HEARST'S FINAL FLING.

Mr. Hearst said, in part: "As the Foraker-Haskell controversy is still raging in the press and in the daily bulletins from the White House, and in extra editions of the Commoner, a success to be the commoner. I am going to take one final fling at the situation. After that I intend to abandon these gentlemen to their con-stituencies and to their consciences, for it comes to make the situation of the situation of the terms to make the situation of th

Mr. Daniel's letter makes only a hun-dred words, but appended to it is a list of 257 alleged trusts taken, he says, trom a list of Gen. Moody's manual of corporation securities. He usks also for the amount of fines collected from defendant "trusts" and the amount of fines standing against them, but not collected. In connection with this letter Mr. Dailel made the following statement: "It is generally known that under Republican administration the oll trust had a monopoly of the old oil fields, and that under the Roosevelt administration it has been able to dic-tate the production of oll in new terri-tory is a matter of common notoriety.. The Standard Oll trust has not been put out of business nor reduced the price of its product. tion as the President.

DEFENDS IT BY ARGUMENT

Useless to Publish Contributions and At Same Time Not Make Known Expenditures.

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 30 -- Accepting the challenge of William J. Bryan, right in the home city of the Nebraskan, William H. Taft, tonight not only endorsed President Roosevelt's position on the question of the publicity of campaign contributions, but defended it with arguments calculated to establish that position as sound from the standpoint of public good, and to show that Bryan's position was one simply for pre-election sensation-alism.

SIXTEEN SPEECHES.

Mr. Taft made 11 speeches in Nebraska today before reaching Lin-coln and five speeches in this city to-night. His audiences throughout were large and enthusiastic, and his recep-tion in Lincoln was made particularly gratifying to him by the enthusiasm and friendliness exhibited by the im-mense crowds which greeted him at all points, Excursion trains came to Lin-coln from many places in the state mense crowds which greeted him at all points. Excursion trains came to Lin-coln from many places in the state during the day and the city was alive with bands, marching clubs and gen-eral campaign exhilaration and excite-ment ment

Mr. Bryan, whose plan was to reach the city this forenoon, had changed his schedule so as to bring him in at 1 o'clock tomorrow morning. This change precluded any possible meeting between the candidates.

the candidates. A DISAPPOINTING FEATURE, The one disappointing feature of the Taft demonstration in Lincoin was the bad condition of the voice of the candi-date. He had talked contnuously throughout the day in the open air, and this, added to the strain he has been under during every day for the past eight days, made him decidedly hoarse. Mr. Taft had intended, in the blg-meeting tonight at the auditorium, to reply in his speech to the challenge of Mr. Bryan concerning campaign con-tributions. He became so engrossed, however, in other topics that he made only incidental reference to this phase of the campaign, and made answer to the challenge in a formal statement which he tonight gave to the press. When the special reached Lincoin shortly before 4 o'clock, it was greeted by an immense crowd, Without alight-ing, however, the candidate was switched out to Havelock, where are located the repair shops of the Burling-ton system, and he delivered to the workingmen employed there his address on labor. He was brought back to Lin-coln before 5 o'clock and escorted at once to the state university, where, at a meeting of the students, presided over by Scanor Burket, he gave a short talk and met the student body. A concert on the capitol grounds was the next feature, which was arcrived on with a vim, and then the candidate was taken to the auditorium, which was crowded with women, presided over by Mrs. Sheldon, wife of the governor. Here Mr, Taft made one of his charac-teristic talks, which was received most enthusiastically. After a dinner at the home of Gov. Sheldon he returned to home of Gov. Sheldon he returned to home of the day was delivered. At the capitol grounds Gov. Cummins of lowa made the principal speech and was hearticly cheered for his position regarding Lepublican pollcies. Whitney's History of Utah at Half Price. Quality

The Deseret News takes pleasure in announcing that it has secured the sole rights to the HISTORY OF UTAH, by Orson F. Whitney, originally published by the George Q. Cannon & Sons Co.

This work, which was begun in 1890, and printed in three large. volumes (the fourth volume issued being biographical, and not a part of the direct history of Utah), is one of the largest and most exhaustive histories ever compiled of any western state. The three volumes bring the history of the state from the foundation down to the year 1890, at the time of the issuance of the manifesto, and includes the history of the Church from its organization in New York. The first ten chapters are, devoted to this subject.

In the three volumes are included 235 full page steel plates, mostly portraits of leading figures in the history of the State, originally obtained at a cost of many thousand dollars. The volumes each contain approximately 800 pages, a total of 2,351 pages in the three. The binding is quarto size, full morocco with gilt edges, no other style of binding being issued.

The three volumes were originally sold at $30.00, and several thousand sets were placed throughout the state at that figure. The "News" having obtained the unsold copies of the edition, will place them on the market at the coming October Conference and sell to the first comers at HALF THE ORIGINAL PRICE, OR $15.00 FOR THE THREE VOLUMES. NO single volumes will be sold. Without doubt many libraries throughout the country will avail themselves of this rare opportunity, and Utah people who desire to add this work to their libraries are urged to call at the Deseret News book store and inspect the work during Conference.

The low price at which this rare work is offered will undoubtedly exhaust the edition in a short time. The work will then be OUT OF PRINT, so that every book-lover should avail himself of this last chance

The original subscribers, who already have the first three volumes of the History of Utah are entitled to the fourth volume (containing individual biographies) free, by addressing George Q. Cannon & Sons 'Association.

The "News" has no interest in the fourth volume, the work being complete as above stated, in the three volumes, now offered at $15.00.
