used for ward purposes. The Sunday school of the Brighton ward held its annual conference yes-terday, the 17th inst. The program as mapped out by the general board for Sunday school conference was carried out at the morning session, and in fternoon the various classes furnished the exercises. Among the visitors pres. ent were Stake President William Mc-Lachlan and Second Counselor Charles H. Hyde: also James N. Lambert, stake superintendent of Sunday schools, and C. J. Larsen, his first assistant.

Death came suddenly yesterday, to June, the three year old child of Harry G. and Lizzle Sharp Nalsbitt of the Twentieth ward. The little one had been ill but a short time with whooping cough and at the outset there were no alarming symptoms but a change for worse came without warning and it was soon apparent that the end was near. The blow comes with crushing force to the parents who have the sympathy of many friends in their hour of bereavement. The funeral took place the family residence at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Lieut.-Gen. Adna R. Chaffee, chief of staff, U. S. A., has issued the following order which will be of interest in all Y M. C. A. circles: "The secretary of war directs that permission be granted to the army Young Men's Christian Assodation to establish its work at the various posts of the army in the United States and in the islands of Porto Rico and the Philippines, and commanding officers are enjoined to facilitate the efforts of this association to provide helpful, physical, intellectual, and unsectarreligious influences by providing therefor suitable quarters which may be in the post exchange buildings if room is there available and its use for such purpose is deemed wise by the commanding officer. The privileges granted hereunder are subject to the control of commanding officers and should be so defined as not to interfere with military operations and discipline.

SERVICES AT THE TABERNACLE Elder Nephi L. Morris, President Of the Salt Lake Stake,

The Speaker.

THEME, THE KINCDOM OF COD

Points to Scripture as a Sufficient Proof That it Has Been Re-established Upon the Earth.

The congregation at the Tabernacle yesterday afternoon were favored with an interesting address from ElderNephi L. Morris, president of the Salt Lake stake, who spoke largely on the kingdom of God and how it should be established upon the earth. The meeting was presided over by President John R. Winder.

The choir sang the hymn: Come, dearest Lord, descend and dwell, By faith and love in every breast.' Prayer was offered by Elder Samuel W. Richards. The choir further sang:

"Peace be still."

Elder Nephi L. Morris was the speaker. He began by asking for the inspiration of the Holy Spirit that his remarks might be of benefit to those as-sembled. It was the special privilege of the Latter-day Saints, he said, to enjoy this Spirit, for they had complied with the requirements which brought it forth. It was also the privilege of all men to be so guided, for the Father had promised it to all who would seek to attune their hearts to that influence Elder Morris spoke of the Lord's prayer and the beautiful sentiments it contained. He particularly called atten-tion to that part of the Master's peti-tion which pleaded for the coming of the kingdom of God and the doing of His will on earth as it is done in heaven. These sentiments, said he, were shared largely by the Christian world, for all professing sects and denomina tions desired in their hearts that such a condition should obtain. The difficulty was, however, to come to a unity of mind with respect to what constituted the will of the Father. It was the belief of the Latter-day Saints that where the will of God was done, there in a spiritual sense existed His kingdom. The mission of Jesus Christ was a serious one. He came to introduce the law of God among men and to tell them of the requirements leading up to the establishment of His kingdom upon the earth. He taught personal purification and rebuked the hypocrites who fain would lay claim to distinction through the honored lineage of their forefathers. He called such "a generation of vipers and asked them who had warned them to flee from the wrath to come." They were told to bring forth fruits meet for repentance and in this way monifest to the father a godly sorrow for the sins they had committed. The speaker referred to the ordinance of baptism and called attention to the baptism of the Savior by John in the river Jordan. He spoke of the acknowl-edgement of this ordinance by the Faedgement of this ordinance by the Fa-ther whose voice from heaven was heard declaring "This is My beloved Son in whom I am wel pleased." And why was the Father pleased? he asked. Because His Son had complied with a fundamental requirement of His Gospel fundamental requirement of His Gospel. Elder Morris continued further in this strain by citing the manifestation of the Spirit on the day of Pentecost. The skeptical, he said, were led to declare that the Savior's disciples were drunk-en with new wine, but Peter assured them that such was not the case. for the them that such was not the case, for it was but the third hour of the day. He then told them that the power of which they were possessed was the Holy Spirit which the Savior had promised prior to His departure from among them. These manifestations, said the speaker, were evidence of the kingdom of God, and that it had been established upon the earth. The speaker said that these principles of the Gospel were in harmony with the teachings of the Savior to Nicodemus, who was told that unless a man was born of the water and of the spirit, he could not enter into the kingdom of God. Such principles were necessary to establish one's faith in God and in His laws, and as the Savior declared, "He that doeth the will of the Father shall know of the doctrine whether it be of God or whether I speak of myself." None others could ever expect to know, for they rejected by their non-compli-ance with these principles, the source whence all such blessings come. The apostacy predicted by Amos was referred to and the point made that it was verily fulfilled. In the days of the reformation men wandered from sea to sea and from the north even to the east to seek the word of the Lord and could not find it. This condition continued until God revaled Himself to the Prophet, Joseph Smith, through whose instrumentality His kingdom was reestablished upon the earth. The speak. er paid tribute to the work of the re-formers and closed with a strong testimony of the divine mission of Joseph The choir sang the anthem, "From afar, gracious Lord," and the benedic-tion was pronounced by Elder Charles H. Hyde.

Maggie Appleby has filed suit for di-vorce in the district court against William R. Appleby on the ground of failure to support. They were married in this city on Dec. 3, 1902. Plaintiff also asks that her maiden name, Maggie Sullivan, be restored to her.

The Unity club will meet this evening, at the hall on Second East street, where the program will include a paper on German schools and universities by Prof. Arnoldson, a paper on German home life by Glen Miller, and several musical numbers by Prof. Mary Olive Gray.

The corner stone for the new Y. M. C. A. building is of brown sandstone, with this inscription, "For the development of manhood" on one side, and on the other, "Young Men's Christian as-sociation, A. D. 1904." The stone will be laid at 7 p. m., Sunday, May 1, followed by special services in the Salt Lake theater, where Rev. E. I. Goshen will make the address.

Hon. James Jack returned from Call-fornia Saturday night, after an absence of seven weeks. The greater part of the time he spent on his orange grove at Pasadena, in which section he says they have had copious rains recently, which have had a gratifying effect on conditions generally. Mr. Jack was ac-companied by his wife and two sons Rolla and Joseph, and all had a delightful time during their absence from Salt Lake.

The Christian Endeavor Society at the state prison was presented yester day morning, with a large handsomely printed wall pledge, by the Christian Endeavor society of the Central Chris-tian church through Miss Nannie Clayton, a member of the state prison com mittee of Christian Endeavor for the Christian church society. The regular Sunday morning services of the prison society are now largely attended, and specially interesting to visitors.

It is reported that Morris Ranney, the man who was injured at a gambling house on Commercial street last week, is showing some improvement. Ranney was knocke. .o the pavement, and his skull was fractured. He was removed to the Holy Cross hospital, where he is still under treatment. He can now understand what is said to him, but is unable to talk. It is believed, by the physicians in attendance, that Ranney has a fighting chance for complete recovery.

At intervals for several years she has suffered from attacks of the disease which eventually terminated fatally. Sho attended the recent conference in this city, and while visiting among her friends and relatives said she was feeling better than she had for years, which makes the news of her death the more startling. She was an ardent and indefatigable Relief society worker, and for her many virtues and noble character was beloved by all who knew her. She was 4 years of age, and leaves a husband and eight children, and many relatives and friends to mourn her death. She was the wife of William D. Mayor, and the daughter of the late William Athol and Margaret D. McMas-ter, and a sister of Bishop John B. Me-Master of Brigham City and Judge Alex-andre McMaster of Sail Lake.
