New York, 11.

A Washington special says the President is vigorously pressed to have Davis tried under an indictment pending since last June, in the Supreme Judicial Courts in this District.

Raleigh, N. C., 11.

Worth is certainly elected Governor over Holden, by from 5,000 to 10,000 majority.

New York, 11.

The London Daily News says the Free Masons are following the example of those in France by protesting against certain passages in the recent allocution.

Philadelphia, 11.

The loss by fire at Bancroft's Mills, Medora, on Thursday last is not less than $200,000.

Col. A. H. Bowman, of the United States corps of Engineers died at his residence in Wilkesbarre, Pa., this morning; he superintended the building of Fort Sumter, and at his death he was President of the Board of Engineers, charged with remodeling the coast fortifications.

New York, 11.

The Executive officer of the Fenian brotherhood has engaged a spacious mansion in the upper part of the city, as headquarters. The Express says the present organization is not intended for the government of the future Irish Republic, but is only to aid Irish patriots in their struggle for independence, by arms, money, etc.

The city bank of Trenton, N. J., has suspended payment.

Calcutta letters, Sept. 22, say the cholera broke out Sept. 8th on board the ship Young Mechanic, for Boston; on the 9th, Capt. McLean, the second mate and three sailors died; the sailors who survived were sent to the hospital at Washington.

The body of Wirz is to be interred in the Penitentiary Arsenal ground where Payne and others are buried.

Raleigh, 12.

Turner, a member of the Confederate Congress, has been elected to Congress in the Raleigh district; Clark, who cannot take the oath, has been elected in the new district, over Lehman who can take the oath; the other districts are not heard from. Gov. Holden has received a telegram from Secretary Seward, to assume the functions of Provisional Governor, until otherwise ordered by the President.

Washington, 12.

The cholera is still at work at Damascus and Aleppo. The mortality at Samaria is estimated at 2,000 and at Jaffa 1,000. The malady is still in Beirut, but has lost its epidemic form.

The Consul at Paris says there is no longer any doubt but that the cholera has commenced its ravages in that city.

Reports from Florence, to the State Department, represent the cholera greatly diminished in the southern and eastern portions of the Italian kingdom. It is on the decline in Jerusalem, and is also abating at Barcelona and Majorca.

Gen. Judson Kilpatrick, of New Jersey, is appointed Minister to Chili, and Col. Edward F. Cook, of the same State, Secretary of Legation.

New York, 12.

The Herald's Washington special says the survey of the Mexican grant Sayna de Saeche, which has been in litigation since 1846, has been finally settled by the District Court, which awarded the whole claim, save 10,840 acres; the survey, upon which a patent is about to be issued, covers 48,800 acres.

The Herald's Columbia, S. C., correspondent sends a report of the proceedings of the South Carolina legislature, up to Nov. 4th. The principal discussion related to the condition of the negro; some members express strong apprehensions of a negro insurrection, bills, therefore, have been reported for the purpose of empowering the State officers to seize all firearms found in the possession of freedmen, to prevent them from hereafter becoming possessed of arms, and to punish with severity any white person proposing to sell the same to them. Measures are also proposed to shut up shops kept by freedmen, and to prohibit any white person's employing a negro servant, without a written consent from his or her former master having first been obtained.

The South Carolinians are all very anxious for the removal from their midst of all national troops, and the organization of their militia. A proposition was made and lost, exempting from taxation for two years all persons who had suffered seriously in consequence of the late rebellion.

New York, 13.

General indignation is felt in Government and diplomatic circles at the wanton attack of Spain on Chili; the Spanish squadron for the blockade consists of 7 frigates. It is represented that the greatest unanimity of feeling prevails among the Chilians.

Gov. Hahn, just from Louisiana, represents the reconstructed rebels of that State as acting very badly; in one parish they met in convention and re-established slavery by a formal enactment and resolution. Three negroes had been shot by returned rebel soldiers within a month, at Alexandria. Last week one of the civil courts sentenced a negro to be whipped under the old Virginia code; Gen. Augur promptly annulled the sentence.

A Times special dispatch says the appointment of Gen. Kilpatrick minister to Chili will not result in the immediate supercedure of the present excellent representative at Santiago.

Hon. J. H. Nelson has 3 months leave of absence to visit Europe; he will first visit Spain, probably to come to an understanding with the Queen as to our position with reference to the aggressions of Spain upon Chili, thence to South America, prepared to maintain the dignity of his important mission.

Gen. John A. Logan has been tendered a mission to Japan; it is understood that he accepts.

The Governor of South Carolina has addressed a letter to the Secretary of the Treasury, asking that the State have the privilege of assuming the direct tax levied by Congress, and that the same may be paid in South Carolina bonds; he alleges that the State is much impoverished, and cannot meet the tax immediately. No action has been taken on the letter.

Toronto, C. W., 13.

Boston, 13.

A large and influential meeting was held at noon to-day, in the Merchant's Exchange, in favor of the immediate construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad; Mayor Lincoln presided; powerful speeches were made by Ex-Governor Curry, of Oregon, and Frank Fuller, formerly Secretary of Utah.

The British government has ordered all restrictions on American vessels of war removed.

The Morning Post says the intended withdrawal of the French from Mexico, has lately assumed a more decided character. Maximilian would recruit more in Austria and Belgium. It is proposed to permit the French officers and men to take the oath of allegiance to Maximilian, if inclined to do so. Maximilian should find himself surrounded entirely by his own army.

The Post says it can scarcely be supposed that the United States' government would wish, in order to replace such a government as Maximilian's, to return to Republican confusion and anarchy; in the course of time public feeling in America will acknowledge the liberal sovereign now endeavoring to raise Mexico to civilization.

The Italian elections have resulted highly favorable to the government.

Gen. Hawseler is appointed Papal Minister.

Two French frigates had arrived at Civita Vecchia for the troops.

There are no official announcements concerning ministerial arrangements. Clarendon is certain to be Foreign Minister.

The Globe claims forbearance for the constituted ministry, until it shall be enabled to lay before Parliament a programme, upon the satisfactory character of which its existence will depend.

The Prince and Princess of Wales paid the expected visit to Liverpool, October 31st.

Advices from Rio Janeiro, to October 10, via England, confirmed the capture of Uragnayuna by the allies; the Paraguayans surrendered unconditionally; 6,000 were made prisoners; their General had been brought to Rio.

New York, 13.

Chief-Justice Chase is expected in the city to-night, when something definite respecting Jeff. Davis' trial will be announced.

Liverpool, 1.

A Paris correspondent of the Times says it is generally reported, in Parisian papers, that the French army in Mexico will be withdrawn by installments, and that by August or September of next year the whole will have returned to France. This resolution is said to be adopted not only from a desire to afford no reasonable ground of complaint to the United States, but also on economical grounds.

Gen. Fiske and Chaplin French addressed a meeting last evening, on the condition of the freedmen in the South; they stated that there was much suffering in Kentucky, Alabama and Georgia, and unless immediate assistance is given 50,000 would die in those States alone, during the coming Winter, of cold and starvation. The condition of the negroes in Tennessee is represented better than in the other States.

The Commercial's Washington letter says Secretary McCulloch will suggest the least possible legislation, and will show the feasibility of so funding the debt of the country as to insure its redemption at no very distant day; there are also rumors that the Secretary will recommend such legislation as will make it imperative on the national banks to redeem their bills at New York, and will force many of them to contract their circulation.

The Herald's Berlin letter says movements are in progress in Hamburg, Bremen and Berlin to raise a fund in aid of the colored population in the United States; it is thought a large sum will be raised in Germany for this purpose.

The British Parliament is farther prorogued until the 23d inst.

The Times says the present Cabinet is complete, with the exception of a single office, that of Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster.

FRANCE.—A reduction of thirty million francs in the army and navy estimate is said to have been decided upon.

The Moniteur announces that Prussia has joined the sanitary conference at Constantinople.

AUSTRIA.—The Government has issued an official intimation which indicates a fixed resolution to adopt as far as possible, the free-trade policy.

ALGIERS.—The Bey of Tunis has granted a general amnesty to all.

TURKEY.—Advices from Constantinople state that a new commissioner has been appointed to investigate the physical resources of the Empire, with a view to their development. The conversion of the Turkish Consolidates has already amounted to nearly nine millions sterling.

JAPAN.—The quarrel between the Tycoon and Prince Nagoto has been settled. A plot to murder the former was discovered.

Sir S. Park's negotiations with the Japanese are well received.

ITALY.—The election returns show the position of parties in the Parliament is as follows:—moderates 286, constitutional 101, clerical right 9, doubtful 86.

The Journal di Roma says the Pope has relieved M. Merodi of his functions, for some particular reasons, especially ill health, without withdrawing his affection and esteem.

PORTUGAL.—It is stated that a few fresh cases of cholera had occurred at Oporto.

The Holstein Government had forbidden editors of newspapers to give any person titles pertaining to royalty, except to the King of Prussia in Schleswig, and the Emperor of Austria in Holstein.

New York, 14.

The Times Washington special says Mr. Mc Pherson will not enter the names of those elected to Congress by the late rebel States on the roll of the next House of Representatives.

The Tribune's special says Judge Underwood has condemned Gov. Wise's personal property for confiscation; his real estate is not worth the formality.

The sick and wounded in Government hospitals throughout the country is less than 5,000; eight months since there were a 100,000.

Gen. Augur has received an order forbidding whipping colored men, under any law of Virginia, within the limits of his department.

Gen. Ingraham, late Provost-Marshal General of the defenses north of the Potomac, is being vigorously urged for Sergeant at Arms in the next House of Representatives.

Mustering out of the detachments of the veteran reserve corps, in the district of Columbia, begins to-day.

Gen. Logan will not accept the mission to Japan under any circumstances.

The World's special says a telegram from Gov. Holden indicates that he is elected by a small majority.

Gen. Steel, just returned from his command on the Rio Grand, had a long interview yesterday with the President and Secretary of War; he states that the military operations along that line remain unchanged; our army is simply one of observation, and probably will shortly be withdrawn.

No additional cases of cholera on board the Atlanta. Passengers complain much of detention. Strict quarantine is being enforced by the commissioners.

Thurlow Weed states that Preston King was seen to jump off a ferry boat yesterday at Amboy, by a little boy and girl; they picked up his hat, which has been handed to Mr. Weed and recognized by him; no traces of his body as yet.

Dr. Tyng's church, corner of 16th st. and Stuyvesant place, was burned this afternoon; loss $300,000; insurance $70,000.

The World's Columbia correspondence, 7th, states that resolutions have been reported from the committee on Federal relations, to the Legislature, to the effect that South Carolina, having fully complied with the requirements of the amnesty proclamation of President Johnson, and having emancipated the slaves, is entitled to the benefits of said amnesty; and acknowledging their position as a conquered people and the acceptance of the terms offered them, ask the withdrawal of military rule, to which they say the faith of the government stands pledged.

The Hartford Courant, yesterday, says it is informed, semi-officially, that a company of marines from Canada crossed into Maine, for the purpose of arresting deserters. The men refused to return with the officers, and an application was made to the United States authorities to have them given up, which was refused. There was danger of an outbreak. Hancock's corps has been ordered to rendezvous in Maine. The company attached to Hancock's corps in Hartford left for Augusta, Me., Sunday evening, either to prevent the Fenians from invading Canada, or to prevent British soldiers from capturing deserters who have fled to the United States.

Philadelphia, 14.

Washington L. Lane, editor of the Ledger, died this morning.
