LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

A CALL.

To all Citizens of Utah, who endorse the Cincinnati and Baltimore Conventions and favor the election of Greeley and Brown.

GREETING.—You are hereby requested to meet in convention at the City Hall in Salt Lake City, on Saturday next, July 27th, 1872, at 2 o'clock p.m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Delegate to Congress. Each county to be entitled to the number of votes by delegates, either in person or by proxy, to which the same were entitled at the late Constitution of Convention.

By order of the Democratic Territorial Central Committee of Utah.

AUGUST PERIODICALS.—"Scribner's Monthly" contains "Yachts and Yachting (Illustrated), The Graphic Art (Illustrated), Should the Study of the Modern Periods of the Ancient Languages? The Island of Corfu (Illustrated), Labor and Capital in Manufactures, What is Your Culture to Me? The Canoe—How to Build and How to Manage It, and many other articles and tales." Scribner's is one of the best American Monthly Magazines.

"Lippincott's Magazine" is a Switchback Excursion (Illustrated), Travels in the Air (Illustrated), Eclectic Entomism, The Sacrifice, The Dark Lady, Camp Meetings in the West Fifty Years Ago, One or Two, An Eastern Stratagem, and many other interesting matter. This is an excellent magazine.

For sale at Dwyer's, also at Campbell & Patterson's.

INJURED.—James H. Anderson, about sixteen years old, an employee of this office, and a resident of the Sixth Ward, was injured on the 24th, in Lincoln's gardens, by the breaking of a window. A boy was hanging on the swing with him at the time, but he clung to the rope, while James was thrown to the ground with great violence. He was rendered insensible by the shock, and over a quarter of an hour elapsed before consciousness was restored. His system was severely shaken, but he is recovering rapidly.

FILLMORE CITY, July 21st, 1872.

Editor Deseret News:
Dear Sir.—Meetings were held by the Home Missionaries at Meadow Creek, Sunday, (yesterday). There were present on the stand Elders E. Partridge, Culbert King, Lewis Brunson, Wm. Stott, Collins Hale, and A. Pease. The speakers in the forenoon were A. Pratt, Collins Hale, and L. Brunson, on the signs of the times and the different rewards and glories for the children of men, and zealous exhortations to faithfulness, &c., were given. In the afternoon E. Partridge spoke on the following, the poor, and sundry subjects, following the progress of the poor, and sundry subjects, following C. King, and B. Stott on union and obedience. A nice Bowery had been erected, and our Filmore Choir were in attendance with much interest and cheering. Prof. Barton added much to the pleasure of the occasion.

Indians Troublesome.

Mr. Gomes, 25.—For several days past quite a large number of Indians have been camping in the wheat fields, stealing some grain and allowing their horses to destroy more, drawing their guns, and otherwise annoying the people who tried to save their crops. They were requested to move on the 23rd, but a party of them went down to their camp to get the Indians to come to town and talk the matter over. At first they refused to do this, but after exchanging some shots with Andrus and his party, and one Indian getting badly hit, they came up and made themselves ready. Andrus brought a large number of them into town, where President Snow met and talked to them. They finally agreed to move camp and behave themselves in future.

FATIGUE.—The 24th was celebrated ad libitum with the usual enthusiasm. A procession was formed, speeches were made by C. B. Lewis, Bishop J. C. Tanner, and several others; toasts and sentiments appropriate to the occasion, were read, and the whole wound up with a dance. G. P. Roberts, F. B. Tanner, and J. B. Manwill were the committees of arrangements and G. P. Patten was marshal of the day.

COURT IN CHAMBERS.—Before his Honor, Chief Justice McLean, this morning, John Chisholm, arrested on the charge of assaulting William Pascoe, on the 15th ult., in the Emma mine, was held to appear for examination, in two thousand dollars bonds, his attorney, J. M. Carter, Esq., being personally responsible for his appearance until the bonds are drawn.

The preliminary examination of the alleged Lewiston mine jumpers, Meers, Kelly, Harrington, Carrigan, and others, charged with resisting the marshal in the execution of his duty, has been going on for the past two days before Chief Justice McLean, in chambers. Mr. Hempstead, appearing for the prosecution, Mr. Smith for the defense.

At the first hearing, the defense argued that the Chief Justice had not the right to sit as a committing magistrate, there being no authority in the American Union for the exercise of such a power by a Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, unless by special legislation, and there was no such legislation in this Territory. The counsel for the prosecution argued that, because there was no special legislation here, as in California, empowering the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court or the Judge of a District Court to sit as a committing magistrate, it did not prevent the exercise of such authority. The Court thought it had power to sit as a committing magistrate, but it could not produce authority to the contrary, he should be glad to have them do so.

On Thursday morning Mr. Smith argued that the Marshal, Mr. Groo, had no authority to act, being the servant of a person in the Territorial Marshals office had been discharged and void by the highest court of the Territory, and further, because in the affidavit of one of the chief witnesses against the accused there was no element of crime, and on those grounds he asked for the discharge of the prisoners. The Court held that the defense of the Territorial Marshals had been set aside by the decision of the U. S. Supreme Court in the case of Engelbrecht v. Clinton, and if he were to set aside the authority of the Territorial Marshals, there would be no marshal, the U. S. Supreme Court having decided that the U. S. Marshal was not the man to serve processes under Territorial laws.

Mr. Groo was then examined, his evidence being substantially the same as that which had already appeared, and he was released, and his life threatened by the prisoners while in the discharge of his duty in attempting to serve upon them a process.

The cause was remanded this morning at 10 o'clock, Mr. Smith moving to release all the prisoners except Kelly and Harrington, for the reason that, in the court below, no complaint had been made against and no warrant issued for any person but Kelly, and no warrant had been issued from the court for any persons but Kelly and Harrington.

The motion was overruled by the Court.

The following witness for the defense were then examined: Meers, Tichenor, W. Hickman, James Moore and Presley Trotter, but nothing of interest was elicited.

The defense, to give a continuance, called an important witness from the country, who was expected in this city by 12 o'clock. The time was allowed and the Court adjourned until this afternoon.

The cause was concluded this afternoon and the prisoners were bound over in $2000 each to appear for trial.

THE WEATHER.—The weather is sultry and very trying just now. Sickness and debility are somewhat prevalent than they were. The usual unhealthy season is advancing, and for the ensuing six weeks or so people should take more than ordinary care of their health and of the health of their children, being especially careful "what to eat, drink and avoid." Go slow on meat, thrice-tried, and we would say on "tangie-lies" if any of our readers need it.

APPRENTICES.—The Denver Tribune says Denver may look well to it that her Salt Lake rival does not distance her in the race for commercial prominence.

FUNERAL SERVICES.—A large company of relatives and friends of George A., deceased son of President D. H. Wells, and of the family, assembled yesterday afternoon at the residence of the deceased youth. Suitable remarks were made by Elders W. Woodruff, John Taylor and George Q. Cannon, President Brigham Young.

OBITUARY.—The funeral services of Murry W., son of Heber F. and Phobe T. Kimball, who died on the night of the 23rd, in the 16th year of his age, took place yesterday afternoon. A large number of friends and relatives were present. Addresses were delivered by Elders Geo. Q. Cannon, President Geo. A. Smith, Elder Joseph Young and Presidents B. Young.

SEVIER COUNTY.—William Morrison writes from Sevier County, July 19th. "Our President Brown, Joseph A. Kimball, is a prospect not to be matched for metal, as for timber. He is exploring daily the mountain tops, ravines and canyons in the most thorough and energetic manner, economicalizing the grass for cows and planning for the safety and well-being of young stock, and for the general good of all. This part of the country will be fully and rapidly developed in the future."

POLITICAL.—The call of the Democratic Territorial Central Committee of Utah will doubtless be promptly responded to so far as the shortness of the notice given will admit. It will be seen by the call that the delegates from the counties will be allowed the same number of votes as at the late summer convention. Those interested should take due notice. The convention will assemble at 3 o'clock to-morrow, at the City Hall.

INFORMATION WANTED.—of the whereabouts of Mrs. Downham, who emigrated from London, England, about 10 years ago. She has a sister that would be glad to hear from her.

Address, 299 City Road, London, England.

RETURNED.—Elder Luke W. Gallup, of Springville, arrived from a mission to the east on the evening of the 24th. He left the city on the 15th of last November, and during his absence he saw many of his relatives, in Connecticut, to whom he explained the principles of the gospel, as well as to many others. He found a large number of people who were favorably disposed towards the truth, while others were filled with prejudice concerning it.

POLICE.—This morning, before Justice Lincoln, Mike Foley was fined $10 for profane swearing and being drunk, and an additional $5 for eating but refusing to pay for food he called for in a restaurant.

John Cogins was fined $5 for resisting the officers. Adolphus Morris was fined a like amount for disorderly conduct.

John Davis and Dan Stanton, brother-in-law, had been engaging in a family quarrel. It appeared that Stanton's wife was Davis' sister, and while Stanton was beating his wife, Davis struck him. For this Davis was fined $25; Stanton was fined the same amount for beating his wife.

One Augustus Johnson, a shoemaker, who had gained a reputation as a wife-beater, came before the Justice this morning for inquiring into his conduct in this pastime, and was fined $25 for his brutalities, with $10 additional for insulting two ladies who attempted to rescue the abused wife from the fellow's clutches.
