COURT HOLDS HE FORFEITED RIGHTS

Decision Against Retta Sterling In Suit to Recover $2,000 Insurance.

LOWER COURT IS REVERSED.

Deceased Failed to Comply With Requirements, Hence Woodmen Of World Win.

The supreme court has reversed the judgment of the lower court in the case of Retta Sterling against the head camp, Pacific Jurisdiction, Woodmen of the World, appellant, and has remanded the case for a new trial. The action was brought in this county to recover $2,000 on an insurance certificate in the order on the life of John C. Sterling, plaintiff's husband, who died on Dec. 13, 1901. Judgment was rendered in favor of plaintiff in the lower court.

It appears that Sterling became a member of the Woodmen in October, 1898, and a certificate for $2,000 insurance was issued to him. In 1900 he married the plaintiff in this case and made application to change the name of the beneficiary in his certificate. In order to do so, it became necessary for him to surrender his old certificate, which he did. In December, 1900, he was suspended for non-payment of dues but on Jan. 13, 1901, he made application for reinstatement. On July 29, 1901, the new certificate, with plaintiff named as beneficiary, arrived at the local camp and the next day Sterling was notified to appear at the lodge room on Aug. 6 for reinstatement. He did not appear and another notice was sent to him to appear on Aug. 7, which he failed to do. He died on Dec. 13, 1901, without having been reinstated, hence the order refused to pay the $2,000 to plaintiff, his beneficiary.

The opinion of the supreme court, written by Justice Straup and concurred in by Justice McCarry, holds that by Sterling's failure to appear for reinstatement and his failure to comply with the constitution and by-laws of the order in regard to the payment of advance dues and fees for reinstatement, he placed himself out of the order and hence the defendant was not obliged to pay anything on the certificate in favor of plaintiff.

Chief Justice Barth dissents from the majority of the court and in his dissenting opinion says in part: "The order of the court and on the part of the deceased was but an effort in good faith to provide for his wife, and the party with whom he was contracting, and who misled him, now succeeds in defeating the provision intended for the object of his affection."

"To my mind the ruling herein savors neither of justice nor fair dealing. Nor do I regard it as in accordance with the principle of law and equity, applicable to such a case. That this judgment will work miscarriage of justice, the very thing which is the foundation of law, I have no doubt. If such a contract, under such circumstances as are disclosed by this record, can be defeated by mere technicalities, what assurance can any member of the lodge have that after he is dead his beneficiary will receive the intended bounty? Surely the result of this case is not in accord with the benevolent object of the order."

Receiver for Saloon.

A complaint has been filed in the district court by F. W. Brockmeyer against George Helbert asking that receiver be appointed for the saloon business of Brockmeyer & Helbert at Bingham Junction and that defendant be restrained from disposing of any of the goods of the firm and that a general accounting of the business be made. A temporary restraining order was issued by Judge Morse.

It is a case where Brockmeyer, who has partner has denied him access to the books and is collecting the bills outstanding and is disposing of the goods without accounting for the same. Signor Parella explained to the learned court that ever since he had married the countess, on the 11th inst., she had positively refused to cook a single meal for him, and he was forced to perform the culinary stunt himself. This information was intended to satisfy the requirements of the law.

Provided he will accept the invitation, Judge Ben B. Lindsey of the Denver juvenile court, will address the Boys' Betterment league in this city within the next ten days, on the solution of the "Boy Problem." Judge Lindsey has handled with great success in Denver the affairs of the juvenile court, and is recognized as an authority on the reformation and government of boys. The Boys' Betterment league in this city is an adult branch of the Anti-Chicago league, recently organized by Willis Brown. The president is Mrs. Mathonia Thomas, formerly Democratic county chairman, and recently connected with the M. L. A. Lecture bureau, and the secretary is L. P. Judd, clerk of the board of education. President Thomas states that should Judge Lindsey come to Salt Lake, a large hall will be procured for him, which will accommodate those interested in learning something of the aims and objects of juvenile court work.

COURT NOTES.
In the federal court George H. Fenner of the federal court has filed an answer to a petition of his creditors asking that he be declared a bankrupt. His answer contains to the effect:

A decree of foreclosure of a mechanic's lien has been rendered by Judge Morse in favor of plaintiff in the case of Henry Brain against C. O. Bonnerud and P. H. Lannan. The amount of the judgment is $36.13 and costs together with $25 as attorney's fees.

The jury in the case of the State vs. Charles Cromer, who was tried in Judge Armstrong's court yesterday, returned into court last night at 9 o'clock with a verdict of guilty of burglary. Cromer was charged with burglarizing the barn of the Salt Lake Livestock and Transfer company on the night of Jan. 5, 1905, and stealing seven sacks of oats. Judge Armstrong set the case for trial for passing sentence. Cromer is on trial again today for grand larceny.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Henrich, 23rd Co. Representative in Chicago. "Two years ago, during a political campaign, I caught cold after being overworked, which irritated my throat, and was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the morning following the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on taking the thing, and I thank this medicine that won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Loss of Appetite.
A person that has lost appetite has lost something besides vitality, vigor, tone.

The way to recover appetite and all that goes with it is to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, that strengthens the stomach, perfects digestion and makes eating a pleasure.

Thousands take it for spring loss of appetite and everybody says there's nothing else so good as Hood's.

A CALL TO ARMS.
Commercial Club Board of Governors Issues it to the Utah Jobbers.

The board of governors of the Commercial club met last evening and issued the following call:

"Utah jobbers and other business men, interested in the trade of Goldfield and other towns in southern Nevada, are requested to meet at the Commercial club Friday evening, March 31, at 8 o'clock.

This meeting is called for the purpose of giving further consideration to the question of freight transportation into the section referred to above.

If Utah merchants hope to profit by the opening of this additional territory, it is imperative that they take action on this subject.

A copy of the above was mailed to every jobbing house on the lines of Utah railways, and a large attendance expected at tonight's meeting. Mr. Marsh returned from Ogden last evening, after a satisfactory conference with the local merchants, and in view of the unanimity there among business men, it is believed that the same unanimity will be the result in this city, of tonight's meeting.

Cured Consumption.
Mrs. B. W. Evans, Charwar, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have never been troubled with it. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." Sold by Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

"It's the greatest food in existence." Saltair, Saturday night. Train of closed coaches, 8:00.
