Second Death in Brattain Family—Arthur L. Brattain, Jr., infant son of the late Mrs. Etta Calder Brattain, died Monday night of smallpox, which he contracted in Los Angeles, where his mother died of quinsy 10 days ago. The child was born about one year old Aug. 2. There remains one child, Frances, in her ninth year, who with her father is in quarantine.

Not Ex-Governor Cutler—A paragraph recently printed in the "News" as correspondence from Brigham City, named J. C. Cutler among the board of directors of the Farmers' Mutual Fire Insurance company of Boxelder county. Ex-Governor Cutler desires it known that this notice does not refer to him, as he has no interest in the company, but it is another gentleman of the same name.

Manager Langford and G. A. R.—Manager Langford of the Saltair report says that to grant free tickets for the entire time of the meeting, not only genuine veterans, but any quantity of the bogus article would palm themselves off as entitled to free passage and all the paying traffic would be shut off. Mr. Langford failed to see why his company should be asked to make any such sacrifice.

Child Hurt While Playing—While playing on the window sill, an older brother, Morgan Howell, Jr., the 2-year-old son of Morgan Howell of 27 south Second, West street, last night fell from the window to the pavement two stories below, fracturing his left leg above the ankle. The child was carried to its home, where Dr. C. M. Benedict was called in attendance. AFTER CRAPO'S SCALE.

James R. Rawlins' Faction Now Controls Draper Board.

When the board of education of the Jordan school district held a meeting yesterday, James R. Rawlins and his colleagues drew up a resolution asking for the resignation of C. C. Crapo, president of the board. The board members also broke open the desk of J. W. Smith, superintendent of schools, and turned over the papers and books belonging to the district to John Hanson, who was chosen superintendent to succeed Smith last week. Although the insurgent members of the board succeeded in adopting the set of resolutions, Mr. Crapo has not yet resigned.

This sudden turn in the affairs of the board of education was the result of the ruling of Judge George G. Armstrong who held last week that James R. Rawlins was eligible to a membership in the school board from the Draper district. Rawlins' opponents declared that he had taken up a homestead in Utah county before he was elected last fall and for this reason they claimed that he was not a resident of Draper. Upon these representations to the county commissioners, Heber A. Smith was appointed in his place. Rawlins then made the matter to the courts and obtained the decision. His faction is now in control of the board.

PATRIOTS PRAISE THEIR OWN WORK

They Take All Credit for the Improving Done by Taxpayers.

LIPPMAN PUZZLES CROWD.

Declares the "American" Party is Not Founded on Hatred, Whereupon The Audience Marvels Much.

If there is anything that the "American" party has not done for Salt Lake City, the patriots, who gathered at the Lagoon yesterday afternoon would like to know it—and it would be done. Through extravagance, this "August" party has brought the city on the edge of bankruptcy, bonded it to death and raised the taxes to make a record.

In glowing eloquence yesterday three speakers—Mayor John S. Bransford, Joseph Lippman and Frank R. Christensen—sounded the first notes of the campaign which the party is to wage this year. For all that has been done in the way of public improvements, the administration takes the credit, though the tax payers paid for it. This sentiment did not reach the crowd, however, for enthusiasm was lacking. There were in the small crowd that listened to the speakers a few who shouted their approval. This was barred by the Lagoon never looked better than it did yesterday and the weather was beautiful. The athletic sports were good and the children enjoyed themselves. The music was good and the other regular features were as good as ever.

The most interesting part of the day's program was the baseball game between the Tribune "Americans" and the Occidentals. The score was 27 to 14 when the game was called off by darkness. The ball game attracted a larger crowd than the speakers.

LIPPMAN'S LITTLE PUZZLE. Mayor Bransford declared when he was introduced by Chairman J. E. Diermer that he would not make a speech. He kept his promise and sat down after saying a few words to the effect that the administration was doing some good work. Then Frank Christensen climbed on to the crowd for the party for putting in public improvements and gave a lot of figures. Joe Lippman said that the "American" party was founded on hatred. This puzzled the crowd. Lippman ranted for nearly half an hour and then sat down, ending the program.

The Ladies G. A. R. band and the German Harmonic slingers sandwiched in a few selections between speeches. In the intention the sports were pulled off. The following were the winners: Boys' 50-yard race—Won by Willie Feeney. Prize, $1. No second prize. Girls' 50-yard race—Won by Ruth Tay. Prize, box of candy.

Women's race—Mrs. Jennie Davidson won and was presented with a box of candy. Mrs. William Snyder fell down and came in second. She would have taken second money if there had been any.

Pat men's race—Three starters. C. I. Schmidt was the only one who finished, and he won six bottles of beer.

Free-for-all men's race—W. Roes won and got six bottles of beer. Rowing race—Frank Murray won first prize of $2 and C. L. Schmidt and E. Sherrill divided second prize of $1.

Swimming race—Harvey Jess won first prize of $2 and E. Sherrill didn't have to divide the second prize with anybody.

Boys' swimming race—Won by Harold Lewis, prize, $1; William Kindell second, prize 50 cents.
