

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. McCaskey was hostess at a delightful bridge party, her guests numbering about 40. The rooms were beautifully decorated in white and purple tints, and the hostess was assisted by Miss Anna McCormick and Miss Stella Salisbury.

A number of the country club women entertained informally at luncheon on Wednesday, among them Mrs. Frank McBurnin, Mrs. J. R. Walker and Mrs. Packard.

Mrs. W. H. Brummel was one of Wednesday's hostesses, her function being in honor of Miss Florence Street, one of the coming brides. The parlor was decorated in pink and white, and the dining room in green, carnations and ferns being used. A guessing game was one of the features, the prizes going to Mrs. Fred U. Leonard. The guests were Mrs. Frank G. White, Mrs. A. T. Gorman, Mrs. O. L. Cox, Mrs. Frederick Leonard, Mrs. W. R. Hickey, Mrs. Melvin Bowles, Mrs. T. M. Fisher, Mrs. C. E. Fairweather, Mrs. H. Joplin, Miss Clara Deal, Miss Livingston, Miss June Hix, Miss Henry Berkley, Miss Rudenier, Miss Mary Wightman, Miss Lillian, Miss Margaret Liggan, Misses Elmer and Eva Mason, and Mrs. P. C. Loofburrow.

Mrs. Frank G. White entertained on Thursday in honor of Miss Florence Street, the affair being in the nature of a Kensington. American Beauty roses and carnations were the decorations, and a guessing game was enjoyed, the prize being won by Miss Florence Street. The hostess was assisted by the Misses Nellie Reilly, Kate Merrill and Helen Street.

Miss Pearl Weller was hostess at a delightful afternoon affair yesterday in honor of Miss Gertrude Mayer. The rooms were bright with flowers, and an enjoyable time spent.

Miss Florence Street was guest of honor at a pretty affair yesterday given by Mrs. F. C. Loofburrow.

Mrs. A. M. Smith of Fort Douglas was hostess at an informal function yesterday.

Mrs. Sheldon L. Butler entertains at bridge next Tuesday evening at Whitehall.

Tonight the University Chronicle staff give a dancing party at Saltair.

Miss Mattie Ward gave an evening party on Wednesday in honor of Miss Pearl Peterson, who leaves this week for Oregon. The rooms were charmingly decorated in tulips and carnations, and "63" was the amusement, about 16 guests being present.

On Tuesday night Miss Jennie Glaser entertained informally in honor of Mrs. L. Kilmer of Los Angeles, music and other pleasant features making a most enjoyable evening.

The dancing party given by the High school cadets at Saltair last night was an enjoyable affair in every way. The chaperones were Mrs. William C. Webb, Mrs. O. W. Moyle, Mrs. L. R. Martineau, Mrs. Walter Keyling, Mrs. J. B. Morston, Miss Marjorie Paine, Miss Ella Duke and Miss Marie Moffett.

Mrs. Frederick U. Leonard will entertain next Saturday for Miss Gertrude Mayer.

The Strollers' club gave a lake party last Friday evening, which was attended by the twenty club members and their ladies. They left Saltair depot in a private car, and while on their way to Saltair, a light supper was served in the car, and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Company D of the National Guard of Utah will give a reception in honor of the Strollers' club, next Wednesday evening. This will be one of the largest affairs of the week, as a great many invitations have been issued.

A pretty affair of the week was the tea given by the Alpha Pi "frat" at their club house, the hours being from 2 to 5 o'clock. The rooms were bright with tulips, lilacs, carnations, palms and various college emblems, and a number of University women received, assisted by the students and members of the fraternity.

Mr. Benjamin Hampton and his daughter, Miss Addie Hampton, are now at home at 402 east Fourth South street.

TAILOR MADE

Mrs. J. E. Fairweather will entertain next Friday afternoon at a handkerchief shower, in honor of Miss Street.

Mrs. W. P. Beer will entertain at a luncheon on Thursday, May 25, and again at cards on the Friday following.

The members of St. Paul's Guild were delightfully entertained at the home of Mrs. William Davidson on Thursday.

Mrs. Graham F. Putnam received informally at her home yesterday.

Miss June Bints entertained informally.

The marriage of Miss Anna Crook-

BLUE-BLOOD BELLE TO MARRY HERO OF SANTIAGO.

The engagement of Miss Grizelda Hull to Capt. Richmond P. Hobson has been formally announced. Miss Hull is the daughter of Geo. Houston Hull, who is a very wealthy man. Capt. Hobson's bride-to-be is a member of the exclusive Tuxedo set and is highly accomplished. She is very pretty and a great favorite in society. The wedding, owing to the recent death of Capt. Hobson's father, will be celebrated very quietly on May 25 at the home of the bride. Miss Hull comes of the bluest blood in America, being descended from the famous families of Hull and Lawrence.

ally at luncheon on Thursday at the Commercial club in honor of her guest, Miss Litta Schenck of Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Graham F. Putnam entertained the 500 club at their home on Wednesday night, the prizes in the game going to Mrs. B. Raymond and Mr. J. Taylor.

Mrs. Oscar Lehman was hostess at a bowling party on Friday at the Elks' club, given in honor of Mrs. Shepherd Benson of Denver and Mrs. L. Solomon.

Next Monday night the members of St. Mary's Orphan Home society will give a social to which all patrons and friends are invited.

Mrs. Edward Mulford gave a pretty children's party this afternoon. Tonight Miss Glen Walker entertains a number of her little friends at a party to be given at her home.

One of the delightful events of the week was the banquet and dancing party given by Dr. and Mrs. Kingsbury at the University in honor of the graduating classes.

Mrs. Edward Moore will give a high tea next Wednesday at 7 o'clock in compliment to Miss Gertrude Mayer and the members of her bridal party.

Miss Chella McCready gave a household shower party this afternoon in honor of Miss Gertrude Mayer.

Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Beer entertained at dinner at the Commercial club on Monday.

One of the pretty affairs of the week was the linen shower party given by Mrs. W. E. Butler in honor of Miss Margaret Marzoff on Monday in honor of Miss Lulu Eldridge, one of the spring brides. The rooms were bright with flowers and a delightful time spent, the guest of honor receiving many dainty gifts.

On Thursday night Thomas Mitchell, watchman for the Deseret News, was given a pleasant surprise party at his home in Forest Dale, where members of the family assembled to do honor to his sixtieth anniversary. The house was beautifully decorated and during the evening supper was served and a splendid musical and literary program was carried out. There were present the honored guest and his wife, seven children and 27 grandchildren.

Mrs. W. B. Henderson and son, Earl, are spending a few weeks in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Houston and family are home from Long Beach, Cal.

Miss Lena Hogue will leave today for Minneapolis to be gone five or six weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Perry have returned from Portland.

Miss Lucy Chase has returned from New York and will pass the summer with relatives and friends in this city.

Mrs. Will Clawson is the guest of Mrs. C. S. Burton for another week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Steiner leave tomorrow for Minneapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Whipple left during the week for their home in the east. Mrs. Whipple has spent the winter with her daughter, Mrs. O. W. Powers.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Snow left Sunday evening for their home in Chicago.

Mrs. Joseph Siegel, who has been visiting this city for some time, left yesterday for her home in Butte.

Mrs. Dow and Miss Florence Dow left this week for Boston. They will spend the summer at the various summer resorts near that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards have returned from Ocean Park, where they have been spending the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. T. Odell left for the East this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Keyes are home from California, where they have spent the past few months.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Warren have returned from Monterey, where they spent the past fortnight.

Mrs. W. B. Rushmer and son, Hessel, have gone for an extended California trip.

Mrs. Alma Luman and daughter left this week for a month's trip through the northwest.

Miss Elizabeth McIntyre leaves today for the east.

Mrs. E. W. Wilson and children expect to leave for San Francisco about the 12th of next month.

Miss Mattie Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Hall, will return from the University of California in Berkeley tomorrow.

Mrs. J. L. Yundt and children leave today to spend the summer at Pacific Grove, Cal.

Mrs. Elizabeth H. Dunbar is back from the east.

Mrs. James E. Jennings, Mrs. Sharp and Miss Mamie Sharp have returned from the coast.

Mrs. Joseph Siegel of Butte, left Thursday for her home after a visit of a few days with friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. James E. Jennings are at home at the Emery-Holmes.

Dr. and Mrs. William Donohoe have taken apartments at the Emery-Holmes and are in No. 3.

OGDEN.

Ogden, Utah, May 20.—The leading social function of the week was a superb party given Thursday afternoon at the pretty home of Mrs. S. W. Badon on Lincoln avenue. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Andrews, Mrs. Harris and Mrs. Joyce. After cards the guests were ushered into the dining room where a bounteous repast was served. During the early part of the afternoon Miss Frances Joyce delighted the guests with some fine piano music. The mandolin club rendered some sweet strains of music while the repast was being served. The home was profusely decorated for the occasion with sweet peas, carnations and similar.

The Elks gave a very delightful stag social Thursday evening, which was participated in by many friends outside of the order.

Rubin Goldmark, a prominent lecturer on Wagner and his compositions, was one of the leading attractions of the week among the music loving people of Ogden. His lectures were well attended at the Carnegie hall, and proved very edifying to Ogden's musicians.

The home of Mrs. P. M. Briggs at the state school for the deaf and dumb was the scene of a most delightful "500" party given last Saturday. Mrs. Wherry was the lucky winner of the prize. Delicious refreshments were served. The home decorations were very charming. There were 50 guests present, a number being from Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Joseph A. Peery gave a Kensington Monday afternoon at her home in honor of Miss Lulu Peery, which was participated in by a large number of Miss Peery's young lady friends. A pleasant hour was spent. Dainty refreshments were served.

Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Edwood Nelson of West Twenty-second street, gave a superb party to 20 of her friends. The prizes were won by Miss Kitty Fitzgerald, Miss Hestmark and Mrs. S. L. Brick. A dainty lunch was served after cards.

Miss Lulu Peery was the guest of honor at a delightful linen shower, given Wednesday at the Peery home, which was participated in by about 20 of her friends. Music and social chat were enjoyed and a dainty repast was served. Miss Peery was the recipient of many beautiful presents.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Ethel S. Snyder to Mr. William T. Tolker to take place next Wednesday in the Salt Lake Temple. Thursday evening they will be given a reception at the Kiesel hall, which promises to be a prominent social function, as many invitations have been issued. Both the prospective bride and groom are among Ogden's most prominent and popular young people.

Miss Glen Douglass returned home Tuesday from a pleasant visit with relatives and friends in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Henry W. Gwilliam left for the east Tuesday where she goes to meet her daughter, Miss Florence Gwilliam, who has been studying during the past year in one of the prominent ladies' seminaries. After a short visit through the east they will return home about June 1.

This afternoon the Healy home on Jefferson avenue is the scene of a pretty euchre party given by Mrs. Healy and daughter, Miss Nellie Healy, which is being enjoyed by a large circle of their lady friends.

Invitations have been issued by Mrs. William Van Allen and Mrs. Ralph E. Hoag for a "500" party to be given Wednesday, May 24, at the Virginia hotel.

The Fraternal Brotherhood gave another of their series of pleasant socials last evening at the Odd Fellows' hall, which was largely attended by the members of the order, their wives and friends. An interesting program of music and speech making was carried out, various kinds of games were played, including cards. Very delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

The announcement of the engagement of Miss Phoebe Pearl Brown to Mr. Herbert Foulger was made this week. The wedding is to take place about June 1. The bride-elect is one of Ogden's most beautiful young ladies and a leader in society, and Mrs. Foulger is a bright, promising young business man. Their many friends will congratulate them on the coming event.

PRIMO.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Sutton entertained the card club on Thursday evening. The home on Second South street was daintily decorated with snow balls and lilacs. Five hundred was the game played. During the latter part of the evening music and refreshments complemented the affair. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. Sam King, Mr. and Mrs. George Haverkamp, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. Phil Speckart, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Biersach, Mrs. Clark and daughter Mildred and Mr. and Mrs. Seale.

PRETTY SPRING HABIT.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Thurman left Provo this morning for Washington, D. C., where Mrs. Thurman will remain until the summer months, visiting her parents.

Supt. and Mrs. Lars Eggertson of Springville, are visiting Provo friends.

Senator and Mrs. Reed Smoot returned Monday from California and report having had a pleasant trip.

The Misses Clara and Ada Dusenberry and Miss Ida Twelves were visiting friends in Salt Lake City on Monday.

The Sorosis club met with Mrs. Rob

Irvine on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Donovan gave an interesting account of the "People and Customs in Russia." The club will meet at the same place next Wednesday.

The Young Ladies' association of the first ward gave a most successful character ball in the ward social hall on Wednesday evening. Many interesting characters were represented, and a general pleasant evening enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Holbrook have returned from a two weeks' trip to California.

Miss Dealla Gee entertained about 20 friends at a social party at her home on Friday evening. Dancing, games, music and refreshments were the pleasures arranged for the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Andersen were Salt Lake visitors on Monday.

Dr. and Mrs. Nelson spent Friday in Salt Lake City, visiting friends.

Mrs. Hopkins and little daughters of Salt Lake City, have been visiting in

WALKER'S STORE

Substantial Savings This Week On Seasonable Merchandise

DID YOU follow the crowds last week? If you did, you invariably "brought up" at the Walker Store. For who did not attend our Matchless Mid-May Sale? This week will be equally notorious from the money saving standpoint, and the Walker Store will again "lead the bunch" in the commercial race. 'Twill be to your interest to carefully study every item in this advertisement.

Beautiful Sample Line of Women's Hosiery.

100 Dozen Pairs in the Assortment.

The season's latest novelties together with the always popular staples, make this an interesting purchase to every woman in the city. Do you prefer the plain, conservative line thread or black cotton hose, of fine texture, and of fancy lead you to choose the prettier novelty effects? This great assortment comprises either kind in many styles and grades. We mention a few:

High grade novelty black cotton hose, daintily embroidered effects, value, each..... 50c
Very fine gauze like hose, all full fashioned and regular made—values 65c to..... 75c
Plain black hose with split foot, or all solid black hose—value..... 50c

Beautiful novelties in plaid and assorted colors; also an endless variety of tans and balbriggans—values 60c to..... 75c

These great lines to be given the same sale price Monday and week if they stay that long.

35c PAIR OR 3 PAIRS FOR $1.00

Tremendous Purchase Of Waist Patterns.

One Thousand Beautifully Embroidered Waist Patterns.

An opportunity our buyer was not slow to grasp. The great quantity purchased enabled the manufacturer to make us a very low price. Our many patrons will be the beneficiaries, as we will make the price correspondingly reasonable.

These waists are of beautiful sheer lawn, handsomely embroidered.

No patterns reserved during this sale.

The first here Monday, gets the first choice.

Waists which would ordinarily sell for $1.25 up to $2.00.

WHILE THEY LAST 63c THE CHOICE.

A Meritorious Sale Of Elegant Robes.

Monday, we place on sale, our Entire Stock of Lovely Robes.

The most beautiful collection of high class robes ever brought to this city. Included are white and colored French Tulle Nets, white embroidered Organies, embroidered French Batiste in champagne shades, beautiful robes of Irish Linen, Dutch Linen and Linen Crash. Also, our gorgeous lace robes—Marquise and Irish Crochet. Included with these are two spangled robes which will be marked just one-fourth of the regular price.

THE SALE WILL TAKE PLACE IN THE SILK AISLE.

LINEN ROBES.		LACE ROBES.		NET ROBES.
$ 35.00 for $ 21.00	$ 65.00 for $ 38.00	$ 40.00 for $ 32.00	$150.00 for $120.00	$ 12.00 for $ 9.00	$ 40.00 for $ 29.00
$ 40.00 for $ 24.00	$ 70.00 for $ 47.50	$ 65.00 for $ 62.00	$200.00 for $135.00	$ 20.00 for $15.00	$ 22.50 for $ 14.50
$ 60.00 for $ 33.00	$ 75.00 for $ 45.00	$115.00 for $ 79.00	$250.00 for $140.00	$ 25.00 for $ 14.00	$ 24.00 for $ 17.00
$ 65.00 for $ 37.00	$ 80.00 for $ 50.00	SPANGLED ROBES.		$ 30.00 for $ 19.00	$ 25.00 for $ 14.75
		$200.00 for $50.00		$ 35.00 for $ 22.00	$ 22.00 for $ 16.50
		$175.00 for $40.00			$ 30.00 for $18.50

Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co. Walker Brothers Dry Goods Co.