REASON THEY DID NOT BID.

Contractors Do Not Propose to Bid on University Buildings by Piecework.

The contractors held their regular meeting last evening and decided to refuse to bid on the new University buildings unless one bid covered the excavating, grading, cement concrete, brick and stone work for both buildings.

It was stated after the meeting that the reason no bids had been made for the brick and stone work of the buildings was because the brick and stone men had agreed not to bid. The reason they give for this is that they cannot afford to bid on the piece-meal order.

Cross and Keeler and Miss Elizabeth Qualtrough.

Building

Requires a foundation. That is just as true of the building up of the body as of the building of a house. The foundation of a strong body is a strong stomach. No man can be stronger than his stomach. A weak stomach means a weak man.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables of the food which is eaten. Thus it builds up the body and restores strength in the only way known to Nature or to science—by digested and assimilated food.

"While living in Charlotte, N. C., your mother cured me of indigestion and nasal catarrh of ten years' standing," writes J. L. Linder, of 127 Walnut street, Atlanta, Ga. "At that time life was a burden to me, and after spending hundreds of dollars under numerous doctors I was dying by inches. I weighed only 117 pounds. In twenty days after commencing your treatment I was well of both troubles, and in six months I weighed 170 pounds, and was in the best of health. I have never felt the slightest symptom of either since. An extra five years' life has been repaid to me for what you did for me. No money could repay you for what you did for me. I would not return to the condition I was in. In October, 1899, for Rochester, N. Y."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets assist the action of the "Discovery" when a laxative is required.

ATHLETIC EVENTS AT Y. M. C. A.

Annual Contests Took Place in the Gymnasium Last Night.

PARSONS WINS THE MEDAL.

Out of a Possible 65 Points He Secured 49.—Charles West Wins Second Place—Baseball News.

The annual athletic contests of the Y. M. C. A. took place in the gymnasium last evening and attracted a large and enthusiastic crowd.

The program consisted of eight events participated in by Charles West, Robert Richardson, Edward Parsons, Ed Davidson and Charles Edwards.

Edward Parsons carried off first honors and a gold medal by scoring 49 1-2 points out of 65. Charles West secured second place by 44 1/2 points and Robert Richardson got third place with 36 3/4 points. Prof. P. H. Moore, D. A. Callahan and Dr. C. G. Plummer were the judges.

The first event was a clever exhibition on the wooden horse, followed by tricks on the parallel bars. In this work the young athletes displayed great ability. In the standing broad jump, West cleared eight feet, six and one-half inches, which was unexcelled by any of the others. After work on the horizontal bar Davidson retired from the contest. West also won the running high jump by clearing four feet and nine inches. The high dive was won by Parsons at the five-foot-one-inch mark.

In the standing high dive from the platform West won by a close margin over West. Parsons made six feet and five inches, and won out by a close margin over West. After work on the swinging rings which was the last event, the judges compared notes and awarded the prize to Parsons. The prize was presented by Prof. Moore.

over to the press of their enormous sale, making great progress.

The first tack was to starboard and they fetched along ten or fifteen minutes, both lying equally close to the wind and apparently looking at about the same speed. The Shamrock I tacked and the challenger also came round under her weather quarter. The challenger also pulled up and the yachts pitched along head on for head in a long fast tug towards the island shore. When they next went about they were still close together, but as they have about at different times, there was considerable gap. As they stood off again in a northerly direction at this time, half an hour from the start, the boats appeared to be practically on the same footing when they started. Jockey had secured an appreciable advantage.

Turning at the weather mark the boats started sheets and reached along the wind for an island shore breeze. Soon after they jibed around the Elin, still in close company, but with the Shamrock II leading. The boats went over with sheets well out for a broad and easy reach for the line whence they started. The challenger held her lead on this point of sailing and was first to cross the line. The time at the finish of the triangular course of about seven miles was as follows:

Shamrock II..... 4 M. 8.
Shamrock I..... 4 M. 4 25

The course gave them a fair test in beating to windward and reaching free. For the purpose of testing the yachts down the wind, boats were squared away and spinners were set for a finishing trial before the wind from the Nab lightship to Southampton water. The Shamrock II continued to hold the lead which she had gained over the triangular course. The wind was fairly steady when they started the running trial, and the new challenger drew away in excellent fashion.

On the lower run from the Nab to the Warner lightship she gained more than a couple of minutes and passed the Warner leading by three minutes and four seconds. From there home the wind was soft and racy and the gap was repeatedly closed and opened as they ran for their moorings.

"WHAT ABOUT MANCHURIA?"

A High Russian Official Talks on the Chinese Situation.

New York, May 20.—In the course of a long interview relative to the situation in China, called to the Herald from St. Petersburg, a Russian of high rank, presumably Count Lamsdorf, the minister of foreign affairs, is quoted as saying in answer to the question, "What about Manchuria?"

"The time to make objection was when the concession was made years ago. Does any one suppose that any country is going to build a railway through such a country and leave it unprotected or to be wrecked wherever the whims of brigands choose to operate? Besides, I consider that the Siberian railroad is of the highest importance to the commerce of the world."

"And especially to America. The Americans are a shrewd and clever race. They show it in their policy. The Siberian railway being so to speak a belt of the world, is sure to be of great assistance to American commerce, which already flourishes here in a very successful manner."

Mystery of a Dead Body.

Chicago, May 21.—The Chronicle says: Mystery surrounds the disappearance from the county morgue of the body of Minnie Pelgrin, a 19-year-old girl of Bloomington, Ill., who died at the county hospital a few days ago. William Sulake of Bloomington, the dead girl's uncle, arrived in Chicago yesterday in response to a telegram announcing the death, but his search of the morgue for the body of his niece was in vain.

He was told on his arrival at the morgue that Miss Pelgrin's body had been taken away in an undertaker's wagon.
