

Elder W. H. King, writing from Hucknall Torkard, in the Nottingham Conference, says:

"The largest of the branches in this district is Hucknall, which has about 80 members. The other branches are generally small, but present an appearance of greater magnitude in the near future. A spirit of investigation is manifested, and I know where this is the case, additions will be made to the Church of Christ. I baptized four persons during the past two weeks, and Bro Hunter baptized four on the 13th inst. There have been several new names given in for baptism. In most cases, a feeling of love and unity exists among the Saints. I greatly rejoice in my labors, and doubly so when I see the gospel spreading among the people."

MURRAY'S PYROTECHNICS.

THE following press dispatch was received from New York to-day. The Times is the chief organ of the "Stalwarts," to which branch of the Republican party Eli H. Murray belongs. We give the telegram prominence because it shows how much value is attached by Mr. Murray's own party to the boastings in which he has been indulging of late, and how far he is endorsed in his political crime in the certificate business. The Times likens the gentleman's fuss and threatenings to a display of fireworks, and we predict that he and his explosions will go off in smoke:

"New York, 31.—The Times editorial says: Now that Governor Murray, of Utah, has turned his face toward the setting sun, we may hope there will be an end of twaddle about his determination to uproot the evils of polygamy. Murray seems to think that the best way to accomplish the purposes whereto he bends his genius, is to fire salutes, blow trumpets, and make a great noise. His first step was to give the certificate of election to Congress to an anti-Mormon who had not been elected, as though the fact that he is an anti-Mormon could justify such an act and find favor with Congress and the people. His last utterance before he goes back to the place in which he belongs is, that Garfield has said that he is also determined to suppress polygamy. No President in his right mind can say less. No President with the powers which are now granted the Chief Executive can do much in this direction. When Congress seriously and resolutely addresses itself to the suppression of the nuisance of polygamy, something will be accomplished. In the meantime, all such pyrotechnics as those indulged in by Murray are useless and impertinent."

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY, MARCH 13

Obsequies.—The funeral services over the remains of Ernest J. and Raymond D. Margetts, sons of the late Richard B. Margetts, were held this afternoon, at 1.30 o'clock, at the family residence, 19th Ward, Bishop R. V. Morris presiding. Elder James White opened the meeting by prayer, and Bishop L. W. Hardy delivered the discourse. Benediction was pronounced by Bishop Morris. Both children were buried in one grave, Counselor Joseph E. Taylor giving the dedicatory prayer.

Matters North and South.—At the meeting of the Bishops last evening, the principal speakers, invited by Presiding Bishop Edward Hunter to address the assembly, were President A. K. Thurber, of Richfield, Sevier Stake, and Bishop G. L. Farrell, of Smithfield, Cache Stake. The former represented matters in the region from which he hailed as in a general prosperous condition. Colonizing and settling were steadily progressing and the inhabitants were dwelling in peace. The speaker said he enjoyed his position and occupation as a settler in a new region. He was called from Spanish Fork, where he was Bishop, at the close of the Indian war of 1865-6 and sent by President Young to conciliate the hostile tribes in the Grass Valley region. These Indians had greatly changed, many had embraced the gospel and were fast losing the warlike, blood-thirsty spirit which formerly characterized them. They had now no desire to rove, as formerly, but had settled down, were cultivating the soil, and doing, as a general thing, about as well as the whites, considering all things. They were visited by dreams, visions and messengers, so they state, and were advancing in spiritual matters as well as temporal. The speaker said there was an abundance of choice land, lying idle in the southeastern part of the Territory, which might just as well be occupied. It had even a better climate than this, as good a soil, and possessed water and timber facilities fully equal. The speaker said he knew of 6,000 acres, at least, now open for settlement.

Bishop Farrell stated that matters in Cache Valley were in a thriving condition; the people were industrious and hard-working, and were rapidly growing rich. As a rule, they lived their religion as faithfully as the Saints anywhere. He thought they were better calculated for work than the people in the south; they had to labor in order to keep warm, for they were in a cold country. The work on the Temple was going ahead rapidly, old and young assisting in the good work. The roof was being put on and the house would be ready for use by next winter, if all went well. No trouble had been experienced in finding workmen or in paying them. Besides $100,000 on the Temple, other improvements, including the Tabernacle, which had cost between $70,000 and $80,000 had been made within the last few years, and these were still going on. The canal now building would be one of the best things that had ever been done for Cache Valley. It would water much valuable land and bring under cultivation a great deal which now could not be used. The canal, in some places, would cost $120,000 per mile, in constructing. Cache Stake had 2,700 tithing payers and paid during the past year, $72,000. Even little children, some but nine years old, paid their tithing faithfully. One family (father and 11 boys) paid $1,000 last year. The speaker touched here upon the force of example and showed that if parents would have their children pay tithing, keep the Word of Wisdom or observe any commandment of God, they must do it themselves and teach by pattern as well as precept. The speaker kept the Word of Wisdom and felt healthy and sound in body and mind. He attributed it all to his observance of that revelation. In speaking of paying tithing, he related an incident that had come under his notice. A young girl came to him one day and asked to look over the tithing books for the account of a man who had asked her hand in marriage. He permitted her to look over the records, and she found that the man was owing tithing for six years back. Said she: "This man wants me to marry him. But I won't do it. I won't have a man who will not pay his tithing." Bishop Farrell told her that was right, and promised her that if she adhered to that determination, she should yet get a good husband and be a happy wife. This promise had been verified, for she now had an excellent husband and a fine family. He was temperate, industrious, upright and God-fearing—a man who always paid his tithing promptly, gave donations generously, and then always had plenty of money. The speaker said this was a good example for all "Mormon" girls to follow, and he hoped they would profit by it.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY, MARCH 13.

Electrotype.—We have been shown a superior specimen of electrotyping, done by a Mr. Jas. S. Maclaren of this office. The subject is the Salt Lake Foundry and Machine Shops, on the line of the U. S. R.R., some distance south of the depot. The work excels anything of the kind yet attempted in Utah, and would be considered first class anywhere. The wood cut was done by Mr. Anderson.

'Leader' Locals.—From the Leader of Friday:

The time is fast approaching when our most respected citizen, Dr. Ormsby, expects to take his departure from our midst, for Europe. The Doctor goes on a double errand, to labor in the missionary field and to further perfect himself in the science of surgery.

A young man of Logan named James Parry, aged 16, while wrestling with another boy on Sunday evening last, had the misfortune to break his leg about two inches above the knee. It was rather a bad break. Dr. Ormsby set the limb, and the patient is now doing first-rate.

We regret to learn of the death of our highly respected citizen, Brother C. C. Hurst, who departed this life on Tuesday morning, at 2 o'clock. He had been suffering for several years from consumption. On Monday evening, when his brother called to see him, he seemed to be in about the same condition as usual, and had been in his store during the day. Later in the evening his brother was sent for in great haste. He arrived in time to see his brother alive and shortly after passed away.

Home Industrial Establishment.—The establishment of Solomon Brothers & Gold, in this city, continues to grow in popular favor. The reason for this is that these brethren have thoroughly demonstrated that boots and shoes can be produced in this community not only to compete in quality and price with importations, but, in these respects, can throw imported goods of that line into the shade. An examination of the stock of this firm has convinced us of this fact, to our agreeable surprise. In cases where certain classes of the home-produced goods were a trifle higher than the same kinds of imported, we found the difference more than covered in favor of the home-made by superiority of quality, which should be the main consideration in boots and shoes. The best is invariably the cheapest.

Solomon Brothers & Gold have shown a good deal of enterprise in fitting up their establishment with improved machinery. They employ fifty persons and turn out 150 different classes of work. They are deserving of liberal patronage and encouragement.

FROM MONDAY'S DAILY, MARCH 21

Postal Changes.—A post office has been established at Clinton, Utah County, with Edward Simons as postmaster. The post office at Cannon, Tooele County, has been discontinued. Henry Corant has been appointed postmaster at Kelton, Box Elder County, and James H. Dalley at Summit, Iron County.

Reorganization.—F. D. Brinton, Secretary of the Y. M. M. I. A. of Big Cottonwood, sends us the following list of officers chosen at the reorganization of the Association on the 9th ult: Sney Lewis, President; Henry Thompson and Winslow Walker, Counselors; F. D. Brinton, Secretary; Wm. Stout, Ass't. Sec'y; Allen Stout, Treasurer.

Accidentally Shot.—The Sentinel says that a man on his way from Frisco into Nevada, accidentally shot himself, one day last week near Wah Wah. His pistol dropped from his pocket, and striking the ground was discharged, the ball entering near his hips and ranging upwards stopped under the skin near the shoulder. The man is doing as well as can be expected, and it is thought he may recover.

Quit the Business.—Mr. P. Margetts, having severed his connection with the liquor business in this city, desires all those owing the establishment to settle, that he may be able to do likewise. Mr. Margetts, for some time to come, will turn his attention entirely to the stage, having a great many engagements to fill. Next Friday and Saturday he will appear in Brigham City, assisted by the dramatic company of that place.

During Conference he will appear three nights in connection with Messrs. D. McKenzie and J. C. Graham, Miss Nellie Colebrook and others on the Salt Lake boards, after which he will take a theatrical tour through the whole of the Southern settlements, supported by a first-class company.

Cattle Thieves Arrested.—The Enquirer of Saturday has the following:

"Cam Matlock and Erastus Mitchell occupy quarters in the Hotel de Turner, having been recently practicing their cattle thieving propensities on the people of Goshen. One day last week Matlock drove off 12 head of cattle. Some of the Goshen boys started in pursuit, found his tracks and caught him near Pelican Point. Realizing that they had no authority to hold him without a warrant, Matlock was left in charge of one of the boys, while the rest proceeded to Lehi for Deputy Sheriff Fowler. While they were gone, the young man in charge of Matlock permitted his prisoner to go, thinking that as long as the cattle had been restored, there was no further use for him. Deputy Sheriff Fowler, however, after ascertaining the direction Matlock took, followed, secured him near Salt Lake City, and brought him to this city.

Erastus Mitchell was arrested on a charge of stealing a number of cattle from citizens of Goshen a couple of weeks ago. Nothing was heard of Mitchell until two or three days ago, when Mr. Fowler received information which led him to believe that he was in Rhodes Valley, immediately went there, arrested him and brought him also to this city.

The Result.—Messrs. Auer and Murphy, for selling liquor after hours on Saturday night were fined $50 to-day. They appealed the case to the District Court. Saturday they were fined a similar sum for selling after 10 o'clock on the preceding night. They appealed the case to the District Court. To-night they will very likely be found breaking the law again, but if fined they will appeal the case to the District Court. Where this is going to end, is not yet known. Judge Hunter, deciding in favor of the liquor dealers, has encouraged them to violate the ordinances of the city, and they now openly manifest their contempt for the municipal regulations, by keeping their front doors open after the prescribed hours; being assured by their legal advisers that the police magistrate's decisions will be reversed in the higher court. A few more judicial rulings like His Honor's late order in relation to the liquor business, will establish anarchy. Perhaps this is what is wanted.

Bountiful Budget.—A correspondent at South Bountiful ("Zep") sends us a budget of items from that place:

Since the organization of the ward under Bishop William Brown, he has won the good will of the people, and they have responded generously to every call made of them. A meeting house 30 by 60 feet, with a vestry 18 by 20, has been built and is a credit to the ward.

The Relief Society, with Sister Phoebe Atkinson as president, is doing a deal of good.

The Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement Associations are also doing a good work among the young.

The Sunday school had an examination on the 20 inst., which was a big success.

On the 15th of the present month it being the 60th birth anniversary of Sister Elizabeth Parkin, the wife of John Parkin, Senr., her neighbors and her children gave her a surprise party. Forty-three sat down to an excellent supper. Bro. Parkin spoke, also Bishop Brown, Sister Phoebe Atkinson, and her counselor, Elizabeth Brown. The evening was spent in singing, recitations and other amusements. Sister Parkin received several nice presents.

FEELS YOUNG AGAIN.

"My mother was afflicted a long time with Neuralgia and a dull, heavy, inactive condition of the whole system; headache, nervous prostration, and was almost helpless. No physicians or medicine did her any good. Three months ago she began to use Hop Bitters, with such good effect that she seems and feels young again, although over 70 years old. We think there is no other medicine fit to use in the family."—A lady in providence, R. I. ds&w
