Typical hotel is rating apologetically 16 out of 20 points of distinction, and at many places the public seems have been shocked.

One hundred and forty-five members just elected to the house voted for the troops to guard the capital on general eighty-three to two of us. This is a gain of four seats for the free press.

Now, instead of threatening, proposes that the military authorities shall be in the charge of the capital for distinction, "because they only draw small sentences."

Gustaf Lindberg, the journalist, who visited America and saw "the West," sent some meathooks, he writes an article on American socialism addressed which will appear in the next number of "Socialist." He says, "I am 37 years old and still intend to go to America, "because they only draw small sentences."

It is asserted that the people will soon be an organized remonstrating universal government. Another reason why we should be an out group and not a part of the world is that our own state is not just enough to go in favor of the establishment of war and shooting armies," says the Swedish Moberg.

The great disagreement caused at Stockholm, by a vote of 37 to 25, resolved that "the doctrine of the Swedish church is the purely evangelical word of God, and that the practical and apostolic writings of the Old and New Testament, is accepted through the unanimous August 20 conference of the year 1880 and the Uppsala conference of 1881, and that the church must be satisfied with a common pulpit employed in its place."

A somewhat circuitous route did a young man of Skaraborg become a socialist. Last spring he made up his mind to save 1 cent of 20 cents which he had to pay for a drink in the hotel of about three months he found that he had saved 300 ore. At the same time he figured out that he had spent 7,419 ore, or more, than fees for drinks. His first thought was, "I must change my ways," and immediately resolved to practice 25 ore where no formerly had put in 1 ore.

The Herald proposes to combat the election of the conservative members of the lower house from the fourth district of Skaraborg. The candidate of the conservatives was the first member of the party to be elected to the house. The majority of the conservatives was very small in this district. If these changes are not successful, the liberals are prepared to nominate a candidate to represent the district.

The Herald also proposes to nominate a candidate to represent the district, but the name of the person who is able to be stopped by begin ill disease.
