

FRAGMENTS.

DON'T forget the G. A. R. entertainment at the Theatre to-morrow evening.

THE entertainment for the benefit of the G. A. R. will be given in the Theatre to-morrow evening.

JUDGE A. B. CARLTON, chairman of the Utah Commission, and his son Charles C. Carlton, left for San Francisco last evening.

A MEMBER of the Sunday School Union Band has lost a music holder. The finder will please leave it at this office for the owner.

MISS NELLIE CLEVERBROOK and Phil. Margels have gone to Provo, where they play on Friday and Saturday evenings, in the "Lancashire Lass."

PETER MILLER, who was arraigned on a charge of grand larceny to-day, in the Third District Court, was brought in from the penitentiary handcuffed to another prisoner.

C. F. CHAMBERLAIN, the owner of the "Ohio," "Little Giant" and "Cumberland" lodes in Washington Territory, is outfitting for a prospecting tour in Southern Utah and Arizona. He hopes he may "strike it rich."

ON Thursday night, November 18th, a grand concert and ball will be given in the Salt Lake Theatre, for the benefit of the Hebrew Benevolent and Relief Societies. Tickets, including supper, 50c.

"WIDE AWAKE" for November contains an authentic portrait of Podabontas and her little son, from an old painting. It also contains a rich and varied store of matter of interest to different classes of readers, especially the youth.

JAMES DWYER has The Forum for October, the Century Magazine for November, and the current number of Harper's Weekly containing a magnificent extra engraving of Bedloe's Island, New York, and surroundings, the grand scene of Liberty being in the foreground.

A YOUNG man named William Harter, employed at the Wasatch Hotel, slipped by the light of the moon on Tuesday evening, taking with him $300 that had been left in the house for safe keeping. After considerable inquiry he was apprehended at Cheyenne and a deputy marshal has gone after him.

LOCAL NEWS.

DAVID MAY.—An inquiry was made through the NEWS, a couple of weeks ago, for this gentleman. His present address is Provo City.

Information Wanted.—Mr. Jonas Wilkinson, of Woonsocket, Rhode Island, writes for information to the whereabouts of Alexander Korshaw. When last heard from, three years ago, he was living in the Fourteenth Ward of this city.

POOR RANGE.—The range in some portions of southern Idaho is so poor that a number of Cache Valley men who intended to winter their stock upon it have brought their cattle and horses into Cache Valley, and will feed hay to their animals. This state of affairs, combined with the light crop of hay, has tended to raise the price of that article to a figure unknown for years.

NORTH AMERICAN REVIEW.—The current number of this popular periodical is before us, its contents bright and fresh as ever. Among its contributors is Jefferson Davis, who, strangely enough, does not discuss politics this time but treats on the Indian question. In the language of the Journal of Commerce, "One cannot wonder why The North American Review is so widely circulated and the subject of so much talk, when its monthly contents are mostly of such a nature—supplying food for thought and giving a keen stimulus to discussion."

"Memoirs of My Life."—The second part of this splendid publication, which sets forth in detail the experiences of John C. Fremont, is before us. As was the case with the first part, this is finely printed on strong, thick paper, the matter is clearly written and the interest by a personal increase as we go along. There is a steel engraving of Colorado Valley, executed in the very best style; a portrait of Kit Carson, and a number of other engravings illustrative of life on the plains. Bedford, Clark & Co., Chicago and New York; 50 cents a part.

SHOT WHILE HUNTING RABBITS.—Last Monday evening, about 8 o'clock, a rabbit hunting party, near South Jordan, they sagged themselves in a line about a mile long, in order to insure the bagging of game. When about two miles south of the settlement one of the hunters saw two rabbits jump up on the top of a ridge near him, and he took aim and fired, not supposing any of his companions were within range. At the instant of firing, however, another of the hunters named Samuel H. Beckstead stepped in line with the shooter and received a wound in the breast about the right nipple which it was at first feared would be fatal. But the patient is improving and will probably recover. No blame is attached to anyone. We have been furnished with the foregoing particulars by Henry B. Beckstead.

MANNERS AND CUSTOMS OF PALESTINE.—The entertainment given in the Theatre last night by Wad El Ward was more largely attended than any previously tendered to the public here by the same gentleman. The presence of twenty assistants, ladies and gentlemen, in oriental costumes, furnished a novel attraction. With these auxiliaries the lecturer was enabled to illustrate his explanations with numerous interesting tableaux which instinctively carried the spectator in imagination, to the land of Palestine. One of the chief and most instructive features of the exhibition consisted of the illustrations of scriptural parables giving them new and force to those unfamiliar with the manners and customs of the inhabitants of the Land of Promise.

MR. WARD is a rapid and clear speaker. His rapidity of speech is indeed marked as to occasionally diminish the effect of some of his finest points. Especially is this the case with some of his local sayings, which he enunciates so trippingly that he allows the audience no time to catch them before he engages their attention on some other theme. All in all, however, the gentleman gives instructive entertainments, which are diversified by occasional singing in different languages. Last night, in the closing word performance—the singing of a religious hymn in English—he was assisted by his wife, who has a soft and pleasant voice.

ON Friday night Mr. Ward will give an entertainment in the Presbyterian Church. His subject will be—"A day's ride from Dan to Beer-Sheva."

FROM IDAHO.

THE PEOPLE HAVE A SHOWING AFTER ALL.
Special to the DESPATCH NEWS.

PARIS, Idaho, Nov. 4.

As near as can now be determined, the People's ticket elected a representative to the Legislature, Prosecuting Attorney, Probate Judge, Auditor and Recorder, Treasurer, the three County Commissioners, the Superintendent of Schools, and Coroner, by small majorities. There is a tie on the County Surveyor. The anti-Mormons elected the Sheriff and Assessor.

Dobols has twenty majority in the county.

Col. Woods, the Democratic Joint Councilman candidate, has twenty-four majority in the county.

POLICE COURT.—In the police court, before Justice Piper, to-day, F. H. Ball was arraigned for being drunk and disorderly. He pleaded guilty and was fined $15.

JAMES WILLIAMS, of Brighton, was accused of having battered a neighbor named Adams and the case was set for trial at 10 a.m. to-morrow.

JOHN GARMAN, who gave his age as 69 years, and who appeared even older than that, was called to answer to the charge of drunkenness. He pleaded guilty and was fined $10 for mercy. He had come from Ogden, he said, but did not know by what means, nor did he realize where he was until he awoke in the city jail. He was very anxious to get back home, and as it was "his first offense," he would promise almost anything if he were only set at liberty. The court was melted by the eloquence of the defendant, but as the latter was considerably under the influence of liquor, thought he should remain a day in jail, and imposed a fine of $2.

This light line made Garman feel rather lively, so he slipped out of the door into the yard back of the Hall, and had just scaled the high fence when he was pounced on by a policeman, who prevailed on him to return to jail.

JAMES GINDRAP, another of the boys, concerned in the theft from Carter's gun store, pleaded guilty to the charge of petty larceny. His father was present in court, and on his promise to take care of his son in future, or turn him over to the officers, sentence was suspended during good behavior.

In connection with this larceny case, young Gindrap stated that the boys had sold the stolen articles, worth $8 or $9 to persons who are considered highly respectable, for 40 cents. If this is the case, there might be some prosecutions for receiving stolen goods.

AT 4 o'clock this afternoon, the trial of Mrs. Bubbles, for an assault on Mrs. Phillips, of the Fifteenth Ward, was to come on. The parties concerned are both widows, and the quarrel originated over a dispute between their children. Mrs. Phillips is lame, from having had her foot badly scalded, and alleges that last night, while passing to a neighbor's house, she was waylaid by Mrs. Bubbles and badly beaten with a club. Her head gives evidence of a very severe bruising, and Justice Piper will make an investigation.

SHOT THROUGH THE HEART.—On Tuesday afternoon, at Bingham Canyon, Celestial King, known as Chan Sing, was shot through the heart and instantly killed. Parties outside of the building where the unfortunate man was rushed inside, where they discovered Charles Lee Wy, wringing his hands in apparent great agony. Hing Chung and his wife, and another Chinaman. In answer to the question as to who did the deed, nothing could be elicited except that the dead man had killed himself. An examination showed, however, that the fatal wound had been inflicted from behind, the ball having entered below the left shoulder, passed through the heart, and come out at the left breast.

THE three Chinamen and the Sherif woman were lodged in jail and Sheriff Burt was notified and went to Bingham yesterday. An inquest was held over the body of the dead Mongolian, at which Charles Lee Wy testified that he was handling a .32-caliber revolver. The weapon was rusty, so that he could not raise the hammer, and he applied cold oil. When he again attempted to lift the hammer it came up a short distance, but being greasy, slipped, and the weapon was discharged. Chan Sing was standing about six feet distant, and the ball struck him in the back, with the result stated. The other two Chinamen and the woman were in the next room and came in, and it was at this juncture that the outside parties arrived on the scene. The story of Charles Lee Wy was corroborated by the condition of the revolver and other evidence, and he was released on the jury rendering a verdict that the deceased came to his death as the result of an accident. The Celestial in whose hands the weapon was when discharged, feels very bad over the affair. He was just preparing to return to China to take up his abode there, and was going to pack the pistol with his goods.

AN EX-MORMON ARRESTED.—Yesterday afternoon Deputy Cannon and Smith drove out to Granger, and called at the house of William A. Morrow, formerly a resident of Mill Creek Ward, with a warrant of arrest for him on the charge of unlawful cohabitation. The marshals were informed that the object of their search was in Salt Lake on a visit, so they returned and met him on the way home. He was in company with his wife, and was taken in custody and brought back to the city. It was nine o'clock when they reached the Marshal's office, and Morrow was confined in the penitentiary overnight.

This morning he was taken before Commissioner McKay, and pleaded guilty to a complaint charging that he had cohabited with a woman named Morrow and Margaret McFarlane. His bonds were fixed at $1,500.

The second wife, who is a sister of the first, did not appear as a witness, as she had a child only two weeks old. The first wife is a childless woman.

The accused, after his arrest, told the deputies that he had not been a "Mormon" for six or seven years (having been cut off for adultery), and that now he was caught he would plead guilty and promise to obey the law in the future. He is doubtless an excellent addition to the ranks of the "truly lost" in the light of the unenviable position which he occupies.

Still looking.—Marshal Dyer and three of his deputies—Captains Greenman, Arthur Pratt and E. A. Franks—paid the District Office a friendly visit about noon to-day. Capt. Greenman stood guard at the front door and Mr. Franks at the back, while the Marshal and Mr. Pratt searched the house from cellar to garret. They had received information, they said, that President Taylor and Cannon, and probably others who were wanted in connection with prosecutions under the Edmunds law, had been in the neighborhood, and were anxious to find them. In their investigations, however, they failed to discover any indications of any of the fugitives for whom they were searching, and retired at the conclusion of their investigation.

TERRITORIAL ITEMS.

CULLED FROM LATEST EXCHANGES.
Special to the DESPATCH NEWS.

—On October 26th, at Globe, Arizona, Fred Hatch was shot and fatally wounded by Samuel Bullock.

—A stabbing affray occurred at Helena, Montana, on October 31, in which John Conners was stabbed twice in the left side by Joseph O'Connor. The latter escaped.

—A Miles City special of Oct. 27 to the Helena Independent says: "A few days ago a Cheyenne chief—Crazyhead—and two braves were arrested on their reservation on the Tongue River, 100 miles from here, by civil officers, charged with killing sheep belonging to local raisers. The Indians were brought to this city and jailed. The Cheyennes have been troublesome to cattle raisers for some years, and have altogether developed a spirit of plunder and lawlessness. To-day word was received at the Government post that the Cheyennes had made a break and would be ravaged upon the whites of the country. It is authentically reported that six men were killed on the upper river, and the women and children of the settlers are fleeing for safety. Three companies of United States troops have been ordered to the scene of the outbreak. The agency is not connected by telegraph and is totally unprotected."

Thomas Jenkins Arrested.—It will be remembered that, on Friday last, deputy marshals searched the house of Mr. Thomas Jenkins, in the Fourth Ward. That gentleman was not at home at the time, but sent word from Ogden to Marshal Dyer, so we are informed, that he would be on hand when wanted. To-day he gave himself up to the officers, the return on the warrant being the signature of deputy Roman Cannon. At about 1 o'clock this afternoon he was brought before Commissioner McKay and bound over to await the action of the grand jury in the sum of $1,500. John Bailey and Wm. McIntyre were his sureties. The complaint charges him with kidnapping a woman, fully with Mrs. Florence Jenkins and Jane Doe Jenkins from Dec. 1, 1883, to Nov. 1, 1886. A subpoena had been served upon a number of the members of the defendant's family.

Court Notes.—Proceedings in the Third District Court to-day: Park City Smelting Company vs. Wm. Thomas et al.; trespass suit; court finds for plaintiff, and damages in the sum of $25.

Same vs. same; suit in ejectment; court finds for defendant for rents and profits.

J. W. Rands et al. vs. Edward Bruns; jury trial resumed, and witnesses examined for the defense.

The People vs. Peter Miller, Frank Preston and Richard Mooney; grand larceny. Miller was arraigned and pleaded not guilty.

The following names were returned on the open return for additional petit jurors for the term: Henry W. Lawrence, John M. Young, L. C. Karkick, Thomas Carter, W. C. Danbar, Jr., Jas. T. Little, C. L. Haines, E. Kahn, James W. Campbell and H. H. Remington. As Mr. Remington had been on the jury during the April term, he was excused.

WHENEVER and wherever an honest article of high merit has been produced in Utah, this establishment has invariably given it that preference, encouragement and opportunity, without which, no home product, however meritorious, can achieve success. We have followed this principle for seventeen years, and have not yet seen the slightest cause to abandon or modify it, and it is our earnest belief that every Merchant of high principle, who values the true interest of the people whose patronage he seeks, will accept this view.

We endorse, believe in and recommend the SOAPS made in Utah, as the best articles in that line that we carry, and will pay freight both ways and all other damages when dissatisfaction occurs.
