

LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRICAL.—Last night the "Unequal Match" was played for the second time, and passed off with much more spirit than on Monday evening. The after piece of a "Handsome Husband" caused considerable fun.

To-night the celebrated Comedian, Mr. Hearn, will appear in his great specialty, "The Van Winkle." He will be supported by Miss Lockhart and the full strength of the company. Any amount of fun may be confidently anticipated to-night.

CALL.—We had a call this morning from W. G. Fuller, Esq., of Chicago. He is in our city to represent the firm of Burley & Tyrrell, dealers in china, glass and earthenware. It is the oldest house in that line in the West, and is a firm of the highest and most reliable standing. As such we confidently recommend them to our business men. They are prepared to supply first class goods at as cheap rates as they can be purchased anywhere in the East.

GETTING BETTER.—Our western neighbor, the Reese River Revue, speaks of the orderly condition of things in general in the city of Austin, and says that unless a change takes place before long that the itemizer's occupation will be gone. It states that the bulk of Austin's population has been a dearth of rascals in Austin and the folks over there want some real bad, we would be perfectly willing to part with what few have floated this way lately. However, it may be, and putting joking aside, Salt Lake is by no means a congenial soil for rascality to vegetate upon, and as there are plenty of places in this little world where such an element can flourish, we think it good advice, to those who belong to that class who are prowling around in this city, to tell them to betake themselves to those localities. The adoption of such advice may prove conducive to their own comfort, as well as to the peace and well-being of this community.

POLICE CASES.—A "hard case," named Henry Miller undertook to appropriate a pistol, the property of another person. The Doctor fined him $40. As he was out of cash, however, he will be under the necessity of assisting to make improvements on the public roads in order to liquidate his indebtedness to the city Treasury.

Zachariah Merrill, the same individual whom we noticed yesterday as having been charged with stealing a wagon from Taylor Bros., was bound over to appear at the Probate Court.

Robert Caldwell, the fellow who was arrested on a charge of seduction, was bound over to the Probate Court in $300 bonds.

EARTHQUAKES.—The San Francisco Herald draws encouragement for itself and readers from the fact that "while the aggregate of earthquakes is nearly the same one year as compared with another, yet no one place removed from the strictly volcanic region, is visited by more than one heavy shock in a long lapse of years." The Herald says: "It will be found, on examination, that after every shock of great severity that has taken place at any point in the North Temperate Zone within the past two centuries, an interval of fifty to a hundred years has occurred without any repetition of the disaster. Generalizing from a thousand instances we may console ourselves with the reflection that we have had our allotted share for this generation at least. The next visitation ought not to be due until our grand-children are grown, and by that time they will have discovered such means of protection and security as to feel comparatively little concern at its most violent exhibitions."

RETURNED.—We had a visit this morning from Col. J. C. Little who has just returned from his trip East. The Colonel has been blocked on the line this last two or three weeks, but it does not seem to have operated at all prejudicially to his mental or physical well being. He is in the possession of his usual health and overflowing with good spirits. He has been quite successful in his business operations. We are glad to see him home.

DIED.—At Hyde Park, March 2nd, of inflammation of the lungs, George Canning, in the 39th year of his life. Deceased came from England to this Territory in 1896. Mt. Star please copy.

CO-OPERATION IN THE SIXTH WARD.—The 5th and 6th Wards have amalgamated for the purpose of instituting a Joint Co-operative retail store for the two Wards. A meeting of the members was held last evening, at which the steps necessary to attain this object were taken. Bishop William Hickenlooper was elected President; S. L. Evans, Vice-President; Ralph Thompson, Treasurer; and James A. Thompson, Secretary. The following gentlemen were elected a Board of Directors: David Fuller, sen., Andrew Cowan, James Fielding, T. W. Winter, Jesse West, John Page, sen., and James Lottman.

The shares were put at $5 each and stock was taken on the spot to the amount of over $600.

CALL.—We had the pleasure of a call this morning, from Mr. Chas. F. Love, representing the firm of Giles Bro. & Co., wholesale jewellers and watch manufacturers of Chicago. The firm of Giles Bro. & Co., is one of the most extensive in Chicago, and, and the oldest of the kind in the West, being to promote the interests of that firm, we recommend him to our business men and hope that his relations with them will be pleasant and profitable.

DIED.—In Spring Valley Feb. 16th, 1899, of inflammation in the bowels, Ann Maria, daughter of John W. and Agnes Reid, aged 2 years and 18 days.

INDIANS ON THE COLORADO.—We have received the following by Deseret Telegraph line:

St. George, March 8.

The Indians report to J. Hamblin, that a large number of Navajos are South, on the other side of the Colorado. They are said to be aided by white men, and to be well supplied with guns and ammunition. They have whipped the small tribes South of the Colorado, and threaten to prey upon us. No news yet from Captain Coplan. There are no signs of them in this neighborhood.

HENRY EYRING, Adj't.

CALL.—We had a call this morning from Mr. Smith, representative of the celebrated boot and shoe firm of Doggett, Bassett & Hills, of Chicago. Mr. Smith has been blocked on the Union Pacific road for the last three weeks, and arrived in our city last night. He comes here to promote the interests of his firm, which is the oldest and one of the most extensive in Chicago, having been established for twenty-three years. Mr. Smith brings full samples of Spring goods, and we trust that his business transactions with the merchants of Salt Lake City will be of the most satisfactory character.
