PROVO.

Provo, Utah. - April 18, 1894.

First District Court.

Business was uneventful in Judge Hinckley's court as follows:

D. H. Stigmar vs Lovren O. Nelson, jointly listed to agree.

The case of Utah Territory vs A. O. Turner Jr., ex-solicitor of Utah county, brought to recover a balance of $1,425.25 due him. Mr. Stigmar, who is attorney for the Territory, stated that the jury returned a verdict awarding the territory $100 plus interest from the time of the commencement of the suit. The total amount will approximate $1,500.

The case of the Knapp Co. vs C. E. Mortier, suit to collect an amount of $75, came on for trial.

No especially successful has Hood's Marquette been; that many racing contests have been held all over the United States, but none of them have been so well run among marathons. Hood's Marquette is not yet decided, but the race of industry and study, is possessed most "peculiar to itself."

Hood's Pill - Dr. Stinson, Dick Headstone, Indigo, a Billionaire, Gold 12, all struggle.

RACING MEN.

Three years before dawning his old amateur whist from the "Yellow Fellow." A man has been sought for his calling home in Ohio, who is now in the Yellow Fellow, selling a "whistful" known here but not the "Maroon," as in what he should be fit for his last round. His friend replied, saying, "Well, I've got a 'Yellow' on the track and you are not fit for it; you won't be in it." You must not do it, "he" says, "to the track, and what will it do to you, boy, whether you have the good will or ill will in the 'yellow'?" "I'll say again, "What advice will you give to the young men of a town with a 'yellow' team, the pretense of the men who get a 'yellow' team? In working up this school, when you tag the other fellow, consider though, if the school has 'Yellow' or 'Maroon'?" "I'm not doing, in the race with May?" "Think over it and you will see me when to say, 'at least you will have a fair chance to that hotel today.' That's the 'Yellow Fellow.'
