

BENNING FLOUR MILL DESTROYED BY FIRE

Left of Old Land Mark on The Jordan River West of Murray, was completely destroyed by fire.

MURRAY, Sept. 8.—About 1 o'clock yesterday morning the Benning flour mill, situated on the Jordan river west of Murray, near Taylorville, was completely destroyed by fire. The Murray fire department responded with the chemical, and did effective work with four tanks. As the building was a large frame structure, it burned to a great extent, and was successfully destroyed. The fire-fighters were successful in saving only 15 sacks of wheat, the rest having been taken out when the mill was in its first stages. All that was left was a smouldering mass of brick, mortar and charred wood, and some pieces of machinery. The loss on the mill is estimated at $5,000, covered by $100,000 insurance. About 2,000 bushels of grain was also destroyed. Some of the machinery, which is not damaged to any extent, can be used again. The mill was an old landmark having been built in the early days of the territory. A new mill, under construction, will be ready for business in less than a month, so that the business of the mill will not be interrupted long. The origin of the fire is unknown, but Manager Benning attributes it to a lightning bolt or possibly a hot box on one of the machines. When the blaze was first noticed by nearby residents it had gained considerable headway.

MURRAY, Sept. 8.—The long drawn out controversy in regard to the opening of a new road in Murray, and which has been before the Murray council for the past six months, came to a happy conclusion last evening. After a long discussion it was announced that the American smelter people had come to an agreement with the city that they would give as their share $5,000 for the building of the new thoroughfare. This was immediately accepted by the council. The city recorder has been requested to advertise for bids.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Edgar N. Baylies, a merchant of Robinsonville, Del., wrote: "About two years ago I was thin and sick, and coughed all the time and if I did not have continued using Foley's Honey and Catarrh I do not know where I would be now. It stopped my cough, and I am now entirely well, and have gained 25 pounds. All due to the honey and catarrh. Write for descriptive literature to F. J. Hill Drug Co., 'The Never Substitutors'."

The Central Coal & Coke company has made no change in the price of Rock Springs coal, and are still selling it at $5.75 per ton.

ALBRTA IN MIDST OF ABUNDANT HARVEST.

(Special Correspondence.) RAYMOND, Alberta, Canada, Sept. 8.—Grain cutting is general now throughout the district and expectations are being realized, in some instances surpassed, as to the yield. As new grain comes in, prices are quick to decline from the high figures of the past few months, and present indications are that threshing prices of last year will be about duplicated. The Ellison Milling & Elevator company here will buy heavily for export as well as for local trade. In an interesting chat with George W. Green, the company's manager, it was learned that heavy consignments of flour are being constantly shipped to such European points as Liverpool, Glasgow and Christiania, where a grade of flour is consumed slightly lower in excellence than that demanded by our local consumption. Mr. J. J. Hill is reported as saying that "we can never sell dollar-wheat in countries where wages are as low as 15 cents per day," but this company is exporting it, and the demand is increasing. Speaking of the section has experienced a departure from the usual Asiatic invasion. Some of the Japs employed by the sugar company have purchased a tract of land about 10 miles south from the town where they will commence the culture of wheat, and it is confidently predicted that they will do so successfully. The factory is a hive of industry, working up the second million pounds of German raw sugar to supply the growing demand. The Knight company is branding colts and calves at its ranches, approximately 400 of the former and 2,000 of the latter. The weather remains hot and clear, ideal conditions prevail for the development and harvesting of crops, and everywhere are soil stained young men and swart horses garnering the wealth of the earth. Castle Gate and Clear Creek coal will remain $5.75 per ton, delivered. Bamberg Coal Co., 181 Main St.

VICTIM'S SISTER CHARGES NEGLIGENCE

Police Threw Brother in Jail When He Was Suffering From a Fit. She Says.

With Charles Tilt lying in a critical condition at Holy Cross hospital, to which place he was removed Tuesday from the city jail, his sister, Mrs. J. W. Taylor of 222 L street, and other relatives and friends are incensed at what they term the inhuman treatment given Tilt by the police while he was lying in jail, and express their indignation in strong terms.

Tilt was found lying on the street by Officer Pitts Aug. 22, and was booked as a drunk. He was unable to appear in court until Aug. 30, when he was sentenced to serve 10 days. His condition in jail grew steadily worse until in alarm he was removed to the Holy Cross hospital, where, it is said, there is little prospect for his recovery.

The relatives and friends of Tilt assert that at the time of his arrest he was not intoxicated, but was the victim of a fit, and instead of being drunk when taken to the jail he was only in an unconscious condition. The charge is also made that the police made no effort to give Tilt proper care or to advise his relatives, who would have cared for him.

The police emphatically deny these charges. Jailer Wilkinson said this morning:

"When Tilt was received in jail and placed in the cell house, he was in a filthy condition. He made no complaint of any kind; but when I saw that he only lay on his cot and refused food, I had him removed to the emergency hospital, where he was properly bathed and given a new suit of underwear. Dr. S. G. Paul attended him, and when the man kept getting worse, ordered him removed to Holy Cross."

"I am informed that Mrs. Taylor, his sister, was notified of his condition, and when we suggested that we would send him to her she sent back word by one of the officers that we could keep her brother here; that it was the best place for him. The man was given every possible attention here that we could give him."
