

AT HOME AND ABROAD.

PARIS, Oct. 17.—Marshal MacMahon died at 10 o'clock this morning.

He died at Chateau La Forte on the river Loire. He was able to take food till yesterday. During the night his strength gradually declined until the end came peacefully. Members of the family were at the bedside.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Senator Gibson of Maryland was taken suddenly ill in the cloak room at noon. Physicians were hurriedly summoned and prescribed for him. They said the trouble primarily was an attack of indigestion, but it affected the muscles of the heart. There was, however, no organic affection of the heart and no danger of a fatal termination. He was taken home to the Shoreham hotel. This is the second attack of the kind he has suffered the past few days.

PITTSBURG, Oct. 17.—The first section of the New York and Chicago limited express, east-bound, on the Fort Wayne road, was wrecked at Wells-ville, Ohio, early this morning by running into a freight train standing on the track. A heavy fog prevailed at the time and the engineer of the limited was unable to see it till too late to prevent a collision. As a result two trainmen were killed and four others injured, two of them probably fatally.

FORT GIBSON, I. T., Oct. 17.—Cherokee bonds to the value of $6,200,000 have been sold to an English syndicate for par and accrued interest. The agreement was signed last night by the Cherokee delegation.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The Senate committee on judiciary reported favorably the House joint resolution for the disposition of certain property and money amounting to $300,000, now in the hands of the receiver of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, authorizing its application to the charitable purposes of the Church. After the adoption of an amendment specifying more particularly the uses to which it should be applied the joint resolution passed.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Capt. J. B. S. Adams, commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, who has been suffering acutely from old wounds received during the civil war, is somewhat easier today. It has been decided by the physicians to open the wounds in order to allow discharge.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—Private advices say that the legislature of Bolivia has passed a bill abolishing slavery. It was a mere form, as the peons have been practically free for some time.

HURON, S. D., Oct. 17.—Prairie fires have created havoc in various localities of this part of the state the past few days. No rain has fallen for several weeks and everything is dry and crisp. The losses will reach a considerable amount.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—At the congress of agriculture today Secretary McKee of the Maine board of agriculture spoke on the agricultural resources of the state. Colonel Brigham of Ohio severely criticised a speech of Secretary Morton, in which he said that among the most insidious foes the American farmer had to contend with are the Grangers' alliances.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—At Glasgow last night Henry A. Squith, secretary of state for home affairs, announced that contrary to the impression made by Gladstone's late speech, the home rule bill would not be taken up at the next session of parliament but the New Castle program would be carried out. This means that the Irish question is shelved for some time.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—Advices from Honolulu say the Australian steamer Miowaram was wrecked there. The passengers and mails were brought here today by the steamer Australia. She struck on a reef while entering the harbor and all efforts to pull her off were unavailing. She is a complete wreck. The vessel exclusive of cargo is valued at half a million dollars.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—A father, son and daughter, named Slerablach, of Hampden, O., were found asphyxiated in a hotel at the World's Fair. It is supposed they blew out the gas.

TACOMA, Wash., Oct. 18.—Judge H. D. Gans of this city was killed by a runaway team at Kamloops, B. C., yesterday.

NEPONSET, Mass., Oct. 18.—Lucy Stone, the great woman's right champion, died at 10 tonight, 75 years old.

HEALDSBURG, Cal., Oct. 21.—Thursday night City Treasurer Geo. N. Mulligan received a message to go to his brother-in-law's. He did not return. Next day the treasurer's safe was found unlocked and rifled of forty-five hundred dollars. Mulligan was finally found bound to a tree and unconscious from exposure. He said that on his way to his brother-in-law's two men stopped him, took him to the city hall and compelled him at the muzzle of a revolver to open the safe, and then take the money. They conveyed him to the cemetery where he was found, and bound him to the tree. Mulligan has been city treasurer for twenty years.

MADRID, Oct. 23.—Advices from Algiers announce a disaster to the French troops. A detachment of forty soldiers were attacked near El Golea, a caravan station on the Sabara desert, some days ago by Turages. The French troops are said to have made a desperate defense lasting the entire day. Twelve soldiers were killed and a number wounded.

ST. PAUL, Oct. 23.—Specials report a storm with snow, hail, rain and sleet extending over eastern South Dakota and into North Dakota. Fargo, Huron and Sioux Falls report one or more inches of snow and the storm still prevailing.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 23.—George Brunkerhoff, a wealthy and prominent business man of this city, suddenly disappeared July 28th from the train in which he was returning home from Chicago. Nothing further was heard from him till a few days ago, when the family received a letter from him dated Toledo. His son went there and found him greatly debilitated physically and mentally. He brought him here today. He can give no connected account of his wanderings, though he says he was sick three weeks in Detroit.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Several men were engaged in the extensive wall paper house of Wm. Campbell & Co., on West Forty-first street tonight, getting ready samples for the road, when a fire broke out in the engine room and then, like a flash, spread through the entire structure.

The entire fire department turned out. The men in the sample room were rescued with difficulty. The property destroyed is the six story factory of Hart & Nevine, of Tenth avenue and Forty-second street; then came five dwelling houses, a three story frame store; then the factory of William C. Campbell & Co. When the fire jumped to the south side of Forty-first street it totally destroyed Chastey & Sons' piano factory; Wm. Kimball's cabinet furniture factory, each six story buildings, and the stable of Wm. Shea.

The aggregate losses are placed at $3,500,000, of which Campbell lost fully $1,000,000.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 18.—An interesting feature in connection with the celebration of the jubilee of Cardinal Gibbons was the deliverance of a phonograph message from the pope. Dr. McCarty brought out the phonograph, and those who were near enough could hear the message in the pope's well modulated tones:

"From the city of Rome, Leo XIII sends to the people of America cordial greetings and best wishes. Most heartily do we congratulate the country flourishing in civilization and the wealth and glory of growing industries. We take pleasure in the joy and honors fittingly rendered to Cardinal Gibbons. We wish you, through the blessings of heaven, a copious increase in happiness and pleasure. Pilgrims of the Catholic church, we embrace with you and especially we bestow upon them our apostolic benediction."

This concluded the exercises. In the evening pontifical vespers were celebrated at the cathedral. Archbishop Ireland delivered the sermon.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The Indian agent at Puyallup, Washington, has submitted his report to the interior department. He says intoxication is the predominant evil among Indians. The evil will grow, he thinks, because of the decision of the courts that an Indian holding patent to land is a citizen. He recommends on account of this that a law be passed holding that when patent is given, it shall not confer citizenship upon an Indian.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—Great uneasiness is felt at Pine Ridge agency on account of numerous renegade Indians from other agencies. It is believed that troops will have to be called on to suppress these lawless fellows. The agent there has reported to the interior department to this effect and the department agrees with him.

OMAHA, Oct. 19.—Genl. Brook, commanding the department of the Platte, says there is no need of troops at Pine Ridge and none have been ordered there. The trouble arose over a visit of 100 Uncapapas to Pine Ridge. They stayed a good while and trouble was feared but they have since gone home.

TRENTON, N. J., Oct. 19.—A monu-
