

ITEMS.

FROM TUESDAY'S DAILY.

TENTH WARD CO-OPERATION.—A co-operative association has been formed in the 10th Ward, for the purpose of opening a ward store. Bishop John Proctor was elected President; William Ashman, Vice-President; Adam Spears, Treasurer; William Fuller, Secretary; and James Phillips, George Badley, and Abraham Hiram, Directors. Shares are placed at $20 each, and $710 was subscribed at the first meeting. This is another evidence of the energy and progress so characteristic of the 10th Ward.

ROAD COURTESY.—A day or two ago as a wagon was going down the state road, having some ladies and children in it, a team coming up occupied the centre of the road where it is narrow, and did not move out of its track, forcing the other team into danger from the slough at the side of the road. Common courtesy demands something different from this; and where individuals driving teams do not have sufficient good manners, it is well for them to know that they are liable for any damage which may result from their boorishness, and amenable to the law should injury be done.

COMMITTED FOR TRIAL.—William Foster, charged with the killing of O'Brien, hospital steward at Camp Douglas, on Friday night last, underwent an examination to-day before Judge Hoge, in the U. S. court room. Some fourteen or fifteen witnesses were examined and the prisoner was committed to stand his trial at the next regular term; and was handed over to the custody of the Territorial Marshal, by whom he was confined in the county prison.

ST. GEORGE.—Br. Richard Bentley, from St. George, arrived on Saturday to purchase a stock of goods for that city. He left on the 27th ult., and informs us that the winter had been very mild and pleasant, and the roads were dry and dusty to Beaver. The people of that region were enjoying general good health, with the exception of some cases of scarlet fever in Pine Valley. Reports from the missionaries on the Muddy were favorable. The brethren there are taking the right course to make a good country of their location. In St. George buildings and improvements are being pushed ahead. The people were busy putting in their wheat. The Fall wheat was eaten up by a late hatching of grasshoppers, and those who had lost it were re-sowing. The "iron-clads" had, however, succumbed to the winter weather, and had died, there being no warm sun to revive them when they got benumbed and deadened with the cold.

The people are feeling well and enjoying themselves.

J. E. TAYLOR, Sexton.

CALLED.—We had a call yesterday from T. B. Galligan, Esq., firm of Carson, Pirie & Co., dry goods merchants, Chicago, who is in town as another representative of the irrepressible Chicago energy, which bids fair to carry the trade of the West to their city. Mr. G. will endeavor to extend the trade of his firm among our business men, to whom we cordially recommend him.

INFORMATION WANTED.—Mrs. SUSAN F. HOWARD, box 61, Effingham, Illinois, wishes to learn of her son JAMES HOWARD. She heard of him last at Salt Lake City, five years ago.

IN TOWN.—We had the pleasure of a call to-day from Judge George M. Pinney, Manager of the Montana Post Publishing Company, who is on his way East with his lady. We had become familiarized with the gentleman through the efforts of the Helena Herald to give publicity to his name, and were pleased at the opportunity of personally making his acquaintance. The Judge is gentlemanly, affable, and expressed himself pleased with our city and surroundings. He expects to return, in a few months, when we shall be pleased to renew our brief acquaintance with him.

FROM WEDNESDAY'S DAILY.

INFORMATION WANTED. of PETER METTICH, or of his eldest daughter ELIZA, by AMANDA METTICH-METZ, Woolstock, Wright county, Iowa. Peter Mettich and family left Illinois, so the inquiry concerning him says, when the body of the Church left for this valley.

PAROWAN SUNDAY SCHOOL.—F. T. Whitney, Superintendent of the Parowan Sunday School, writes on the 18th ult.: "Our school is well attended by nearly 150 scholars, and twenty teachers who take a lively interest in imparting to them a knowledge of letters and instructing them in the principles of eternal life. Our Sunday school party which came off on the 30th day of December last, was really interesting. It commenced at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, and was kept up till 9 o'clock in the evening, the amusements consisting of dancing, singing, &c. The sight of 200 children, all joyous with health and innocence, gave pleasure hard to be described."

We have received two interesting communications from Elder Edward Stevenson, which our limited space compels us to condense:

As Elder Nathan Porter and Elder Stevenson passed through Ogden on the 11th ult., it appeared alive in business, though one canvas tent, with a sign out of a tin shop, looked rather cold for the season. Held meeting in Willard in the evening, and next morning started for Wellsville, finding from a foot to two feet of snow in the canon. Preached in Wellsville on the evening of the 12th; the next day visited Hyrum and Milville; and on Friday held meeting at Providence. Logan, Hyde Park—where they found Elder Wm. Hyde recovering—Smithfield, Richmond and Franklin were visited and meetings held, an excellent spirit prevailing. On the return the weather, which had been quite cold, moderated and was quite pleasant. Meetings were held at various points on the return trip, which altogether occupied twenty days during which twenty-three meetings were held.

POLICE.—One man fined this morning for stealing hay. Stop such things and keep yourselves from trouble, you who feel disposed to commit petty larcenies.

BRITAIN.—President George A. Smith has received a letter from Elder George Teasdale, written in Liverpool, January 6th, which states that the work continues onward in Britain. Elders P. Lyman, J. F. Hardie, M. F. Farnsworth, John R. Clawson, Chariton H. Jacobs, James Sharp and H. B. Clemons were well at date of writing, and laboring faithfully in their missions.

SCANDINAVIA.—By letter from Elder Jesse N. Smith to President George A. Smith, dated Copenhagen, January 4th, we learn that all is well with him and the work is progressing in Scandinavia.

FROM THURSDAY'S DAILY.

GOT HOME.—Bishop Wm. C. A. Smoot, who arrived on the evening of the 1st from his mission to the States, in company with Elder Jesse E. Murphy, called in yesterday afternoon. He started on his mission on the 18th of October, 1887; and during his absence traveled and labored in southern Illinois, Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama. His labors were blessed with some success; though he describes the condition of the South as distressing. Trade is stagnant; the country demoralized; politics at a fever heat, and the prospects gloomy. He left Elder Jesse W. Crosby in Georgia. Elder Hayden W. Church had been quite sick but was recovered. The brethren on missions east, so far as he was acquainted, were in good health. Bro. Smoot is enjoying excellent health and spirits.

ANNIE LOCKHART.—Of Miss Annie Lockhart, who is engaged and will shortly appear on our boards, we clip the following notice from the San Francisco Figaro and Dramatic Review, that the public here may understand the estimate placed upon her abilities in the Bay City:

"Miss Annie Lockhart, one of the best actresses on the California stage, who has never failed to please the public in whatever character she has appeared, intends to proceed shortly to Salt Lake City, to fulfill an engagement offered her by Managers Clawson & Caine. To-night, she will make her last appearance before the San Francisco public at the Metropolitan Theatre. Miss Lockhart, during the engagement of Edwin Forrest at Maguire's Opera House, gained much reputation by the admirable manner in which she supported him; her "Lady Macbeth," in particular, being one of the best impersonations of that character ever seen on the San Francisco stage. In "Ophelia," she has been surpassed by no actress who has appeared on our boards and has been equalled by few. Miss Lockhart will make her last appearance in two characters, which she plays in inimitable style: "Lady Audley" in "Lady Audley's Secret," and "Annie Carew" in Tom Taylor's capital comedy of "A Sheep in Wolf's Clothing."

POLICE.—W. Tibbits, for an assault and disturbing a party at the 8th Ward Assembly Rooms, was yesterday afternoon fined $10.

This morning Frank M. Morris, paid $5 and costs for being drunk last night.

DIED.—A telegram was received this morning from Walter K. Conrad, Logan, with the intelligence that his mother, sister Margaret C. Conrad, had died last night at 10.45. Sister Conrad carried with her during her life the respect and esteem of a numerous circle of friends. Her home in the east was a home indeed to the numerous elders who enjoyed the hospitality of herself and friends; and by them she is affectionately remembered. She emigrated to this Territory in 1862, arriving on the 2nd of October.

GENEROUS.—The men working on the lower tunnel in Weber canyon, on Sharp & Young's contract, received a promise of a hundred dollars if the tunnel should be completed last Saturday. The work was done, the money paid, and three cheers were given for the donor; when one of the men proposed that the hundred dollars should be presented to one of their fellow-workmen who had got injured some little time ago, but who is now recovered. The suggestion was immediately adopted and acted upon. This is most praiseworthy and noble on all sides.

ALTERATION.—On passing the Theatre this morning we noticed carpenters at work and all the evidences of alteration going on, with the box-office temporarily removed to the east side. The stair-way to the 3rd circle, on the west side of the building, was being built up for about ten feet, and a passage opened into the stairway leading to the 2nd circle, to allow of a large addition to the box-office. The passage way to the 3rd circle on that side of the building will be up the stair-way leading to the 2nd circle, while the entrance on the east side of the platform will remain as it is at present. The addition to the box-office will be considerable, and will afford Mr. Williams much more room than he has had in the office as it was before.

FROM GEORGIA.—We had a call yesterday from Bro's J. M. Jeanes and J. D. Murphy, who arrived on Tuesday with seventeen others from Georgia. This is the company which Elder Jesse E. Murphy and Bishop W. C. A. Smoot brought with them, these two elders having come on ahead from Summit County and arrived on Monday night. Bro. E. M. Murphy sent teams to the terminus for the company. Bro. Jeanes, who designs practicing medicine, was the first person baptized into the church in Georgia, having been baptized by E. M. Murphy when on a mission in that region of country twenty-two years ago.

FROM FRIDAY'S DAILY

GONE SOUTH.—President B. Young, accompanied by Elders F. D. Richards, Geo. Q. Cannon, Joseph F. Smith, and other brethren, started this morning to hold a two days' meeting in Provo.

THE WEATHER.—We have received the following by Deseret Telegraph Line.

Logan; somewhat hazy and cold. Brigham city; clear and mild. Willard; very pleasant. Payson; very warm and pleasant, looks like spring. Fountain Green; very warm and pleasant, three inches snow. Mt. Pleasant; fine but cold and clear snow twelve inches deep. Round Valley; very pleasant, sun shining very brightly, snow two inches. Fillmore; warm and pleasant. Cove Creek; clear and pleasant, rather cold, snow two inches. Beaver; clear and pleasant, freezes hard at night. Parowan; cloudy, but mild and pleasant, roads muddy. Cedar city; warm but very cloudy. Tokerville; like storming, roads muddy.

POST OFFICE BULLETIN.—Persons who desire copies of this bulletin, issued from the News office, and who have not yet been supplied, can obtain them by applying at Money Order Office window of the Post Office.

NEW STAGE ROUTE.—Major Howard Egan, who was selected to locate a new stage route for Wells, Fargo & Co., from Humboldt Wells to Bear River north, informs us that he has succeeded in locating an eligible stage line, by way of Meadow Creek, Duff Creek and Promontory City, the distance by the route being 209 miles. The road is well watered, with grass and timber most of the way, though small tracts of desert have to be crossed, but not of any importance, nor to impede travel. On the trip through he experienced the utmost kindness at every point. People along the proposed line, whether engaged trading, grading, procuring ties, or in whatever way, were busy and attending to their business. He speaks especially of the courtesy tendered him by Messrs. J. M. and M. A. Carter, the former of the firm of Marshall & Carter. Promontory City he found a busy, lively place, with the people industrious and attending to their own affairs. They believed the prospects good for a city, but the Major thinks when the rails are laid the city will not have much permanency.

On asking him concerning the mines reported to have been recently discovered there, he said that though he had explored the country he had seen no indications nor heard anything of them till he came to this city.

POLICE.—Dennis McGoffin and Frank Morris, were arrested for drunkenness. Their cases will come up to-morrow morning. Hiram Jennison was also arrested for obtaining goods under false pretenses.

IN TOWN.—We had the pleasure, to-day, of meeting Col. C. H. Snow, General S. M. Green, H. M. Robbins and Henry Simonds, Esqrs., who arrived in this City yesterday by special coach from the East. Col. Snow is the editor and proprietor of the National Intelligencer, Washington, and is here as a Government Director inspecting the line of the Union Pacific Railroad. Mr. Robbins is correspondent of the same paper. The stay of the gentlemen is limited, as they leave in the morning, having completed the object of their journey. It being their first visit to this region, they express themselves agreeably surprised with our City and surroundings. Col. Snow is a relative of the Hon. Erastus Snow.

FROM SATURDAY'S DAILY.

A SPECIAL CASE.—C. L. Broy was the object of particular attentions at the City Hall to-day. He is not by any means the finest specimen of masculine beauty that our reporter has seen; in fact, he might be termed a cross between the "scraggy" and the homely, without doing injustice to the human form and face divine. But Mr. Broy has an eye for the beautiful, especially when it is encased in female apparel and hoop skirts of moderate amplitude. Mr. Broy keeps a Restaurant, the Montana, on 2nd South street. We charge him nothing for this advertisement. He penned a note—anonymously—to a lady, requesting a private interview, at which he promised to make her acquainted with his real name. His note was addressed Miss, "Present," and as he did not know her address he sent it by a boy. The lady replied, but from subsequent events it really seems as if Mr. Broy got into a bad scrape. She informed him she was a married lady; and had the matter ended there, had Mr. Broy considered it "pre-empted ground," the matter would probably have passed off quietly. But Mr. Broy was amorous, and prosecuted his suit, urging an appointment on another occasion. Mr. Broy found, before the matter terminated, that members of the male persuasion interfered. He was arrested, vi et armis and handed over to the tender mercies of the police, and this morning was tried. He got off with the "skin of his teeth," and was discharged. In another column will be found a communication in reference to the matter.

CALLED.—We had the pleasure of a call to-day from Hon. George C. Hough, from Idaho, on his way east. We have found the Judge a genial gentleman, full of appreciation of energy, enterprise, and the sense of justice which is characteristic of the true American spirit. We wish him a pleasant journey east and a safe return. Mr. Berry, sheriff of Nez Perces county, accompanies him and Mr. McGrew, ex-member of the Legislature of Idaho.

POLICE.—H. Jameson—not Jennison, as stated yesterday, appeared this morning charged with obtaining goods under false pretences. The charge was really unfounded; and after hearing the statements of the parties Alderman Clinton suggested that they "fix it up" themselves, which they agreed to do and departed.

James L. McDonald, for being drunk, had a fine of $10 assessed against him.

Morris Buckley was charged with being drunk and assaulting a young man named John Smith; and John Lucy with being engaged in the assault: fined, Buckley $10 for being drunk and $15 for the assault; and Lucy $15.

Dennis McLaughlin for drunkenness was fined $12.50.

Frank Morris, in jubilation over his recent fine of only $5, became again a "drunk," and was fined $12.50.

Wm. Dwyer was also fined $10 for being drunk.

NEW PERIODICAL.—We have received the first number of Der Stern, published at Zurich, Switzerland, by Elder Karl G. Maeser. It is a neat 16 page periodical, of the same size as the Millennial Star, well printed, and does credit to Brother Maeser's faith and energy. Long may it continue to reflect the light of truth that has commenced to shine in its columns!

A CRITIQUE.—We have received the following from a gentleman of our acquaintance, and present it to our readers permitting it to speak for itself:

Permit me, Dear News, to express myself briefly concerning last night's performance at the Theatre. I am fond of theatricals and much enjoy attending the performances in our temple of the drama. Last night "When Women Weep" was cleverly performed, and should have secured a "call" for the talented artist-author, who was taking his Benefit. "Beauty and the Beast" was finely mounted and put upon the stage, but those engaged in its performance, in my humble judgment, did not properly conceive the characters entrusted to them. The piece is a drama, not a comedy, not even a farce; it is an "extravaganza," and as such partakes more of the burlesque, a position which the language sustains throughout. Without multiplying examples, take the exclamation of the Beast, after the vision, first scene, act second, when he says "ah!" naturally holding up his hands; (paws) and Beauty responds, "awful paws" (pause), a point characteristic of the piece, which was not attempted to be made. To those who were present further quotations are not required. Mr. Graham, Mr. Margetts and Mrs. Clawson alone seemed to realize they were playing in an extravaganza; the others performed as if engaged in the legitimate drama, a distinction and a difference worthy of their consideration.

ECHO CITY.—Our special from Echo writes that matters are moving along pretty smoothly there. An attachment against the Empire Tent, (a hurdy-gurdy institution) and in favor of J. C. Bromley, was tried on the 2nd, when the decision was in favor of Mr. Bromley. On the same day only three men were fined for drunkenness by Justice Livingston. The "lively" fraternity squirm a good deal, and threaten what "is to be," but which hasn't come yet.

SUGAR.—By this mail a letter arrived from Elder G. P. Nebeker, from the Sandwich Islands, containing a sample of the sugar manufactured by him. We are very pleased to receive this from Br. George. It is a veritable testimony of the success of his energy and enterprise. We have had it examined by competent judges and they pronounce it superior to Porto Rico; and an article that would find a ready sale in this market. We think it could be laid down here at a price remunerative to all interested; and we would be highly gratified to see Br. George's manufacture introduced into and patronized by the citizens of Utah.
