In the Territorial Supreme Court today, the two cases of The People vs. A. J. Peacock, for assault, were submitted on the attorneys' briefs, and the court adjourned to Monday at 10 a.m.

We are requested to state that Rev. L. W. Wood, of the Baptist Church, corner Second South and Second West streets, will give his second lecture on evolution to-morrow evening. Free tickets and all others invited.

ALL members of Zion's Choral Union will please take notice that the copies of the "Messiah" are here, and be on hand at the Tabernacle on Monday evening at the usual hour for rehearsal. Those desiring to become members should make application at once to the secretary for blanks so that they may be admitted in time to commence work on the Oratorio.

Personal.

Thos. Pearce, Esq., of the firm of Henry Pearce & Sons, manufacturers of warps, twines, etc., Cincinnati, called upon us today. He is one of a party visiting the city. C. M. I. has the agency of this firm's goods.

Notice.

On Monday evening, June 13th, 1887, at 7:30 o'clock, at the Social Hall, a special meeting will be held, to ratify and adopt the constitution and by-laws of the Salt Lake Stake Library and Free Reading Room. It is very necessary to have a full representation from every ward in the Stake, and the committee are urgently requested to be present promptly, so as to discuss how the institution shall be conducted.

Card of Thanks.

Sister Kimball, widow of Elder J. H. Kimball, called at this office today and expressed a desire to communicate, through the columns of the News, her gratitude to the members of her late husband's family, and to such friends as have rendered kind services, or given words of sympathy, in connection with his death and burial. She desires to make special mention of Undertaker Joseph Wm. Taylor for his valuable services.

Trouble About Water.

A case from the Eleventh Ward was commenced in the Police Court this afternoon. It is a charge of assault made by a Mrs. Andersen against Mrs. Catharine Morris. Both of the ladies look to be nearly 70 years of age. The trouble arose over a dispute about irrigating water yesterday, both claiming it at the same time. Mrs. Morris turned the water into her lot and returned a few minutes later to find Mrs. Andersen in the act of appropriating it to her use. The respondent Mrs. Morris ran into a passion and Mrs. Andersen several blows over the back and arms with a hoe handle.

Held Up.

Officer Mulligan found an old man wandering aimlessly on Wykoff street, near Seventeenth, early this morning and arrested him for sleeping. At police headquarters the man gave his name as G. F. Wood and said he had been robbed of $300. His right trousers pocket was torn out and he had a bruise on his forehead, showing where he had been struck by some blunt instrument. He said he arrived from Salt Lake City at 8 o'clock yesterday afternoon, and intended to go to Golden to visit his relatives. At the corner of Thirtieth and Camp streets he asked a stranger to direct him to the Union Depot, and on the way down crossed to him the last of his money on him. When they got near Wykoff street a confederate jumped out of an alley and hit him, while the other man took his money. He could give no description of the thieves.

Died of Paralysis.

Yesterday afternoon, Brother Wm. Garrett, of Bonanza, died from a stroke of paralysis. The attack, we understand, was quite sudden. He was aged 69 years. We are requested to announce that the funeral will be held to-morrow (Sunday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, and that the friends of the family are invited.

A Festival.

Next Wednesday evening there will be a strawberry festival in the Twenty-first Ward schoolhouse, under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Association, to which Miss Hattie Longmore is the presiding officer. The occasion will be a delightful one, the management being in excellent hands.

THE HOME CLUB.

Is Greeted by Another Large and Appreciative Audience.

The Home Dramatic Club received a high compliment last evening from the Theatre-going public on the third presentation of the sensational drama "The Rescue," by Mr. Wells.

The first circle were packed, while the upper circles had a fair sprinkling. The audience manifested a close, and at times an intense interest in the play, which is the best the club has ever presented. As "Christian Christian" Mr. Wells did some fine work, in his interpretation of the generous, impulsive young man, smarting under a sense of wrong, heaped on his father's family, and called forth the sympathies of the audience to the full extent; in the fifth and sixth acts, where is portrayed the triumph of Christian principle over the burning desire for revenge, Mr. Wells showed himself equal to the occasion.

Mr. Sweeney, as "Richard Orchardson," did some powerful acting, and Mr. Young, as "Mr. Seltton," Mr. Evans as "Jabez Green," and Mr. Taylor as "Squire Orchardson," were all that could be asked. The ladies, Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Kimball, and "Miss Claridge," presented their parts carefully, and were well applauded. The scenic effects were very fine, the "Breaking of the Ice," "The Aurora Borealis," and "The Rescue" being worked with brilliant effect.

The morale of the piece is such as makes it popular in this city, and the Club will doubtless take advantage of the fact that it can be again played by them in the near future, and receive a warm greeting.

There was a general expression of regret at the absence of Mrs. Edith Clawson Knowlton, who has heretofore appeared with the Club, but owing to circumstances could not do so last evening. The lady has won a reputation as the best of the people by her ability and demeanor, and it is to be hoped that in the future her services will be obtainable.

J. P. Wright's Arrest.

It has been known for some time that an indictment has been in existence against John P. Wright, of Mill Creek, Salt Lake County, charging him with bigamy more than one wife. The deputies have raided his house a number of times, and yesterday two of them, Bowman Cannon and S. L. Sprague, called the ninth visit. While some distance away the deputies called on him, and he came out to meet them as they drove up, one of them a neighbor, went away. Close watch was kept that the other should not escape, as the deputies were satisfied who it was. They called at the house, and Mr. Cannon asked Mrs. Wright, "Is your husband with you today?" "You suppose I would tell you if he was?" replied the lady. The deputies then proceeded to search the house, but no one was found. They then concluded to thoroughly examine every foot of ground in the meadows near by, and started out with that object. For some time the two wandered about, over their shoe-tops in water, looking under every tuft of grass, into every ditch and behind every bush.

Mr. Wright. At last he was discovered by Mr. Sprague, behind a bank of a ditch, where he had hid himself, and was brought forth. He was permitted to change his clothes, which was wringing wet, and was brought to this city, where he gave $2,000 bonds to appear for trial.

Suicide of Edna Scott.

Last night a woman well known in police circles by the name of Edna Scott, poisoned herself by taking morphine. She had been occupying a room over C. C. Anderson's second hand store, having come there about five weeks ago with a man who she said was her husband, a solid and respectable man, and a soldier in the army. She was familiarly known among his companions as "Jumbo." Grove was taken about a month ago and placed in the guard house for some offense, and since then she has lived alone.

About 2:30 yesterday afternoon Mrs. Anderson's attention was attracted by groaning in Edna's room, and on entering the same she found the woman in an unconscious state. Mrs. White and Harrison were called, and having ascertained that she had taken poison, made efforts to relieve her, but were unsuccessful, and she died at 9:40 this morning. Coroner Taylor was notified, and will hold an inquest this afternoon.

What the real name of the deceased was cannot now be learned. She has stated to parties in this city, but it has passed from their recollection. Her parents are now living, it is said, in Iowa, though she came here from Nevada, she was about 30 years of age, small in stature, and dark complexioned. She has served several terms in the city jail for vagrancy, but recently had been endeavoring to reform.

Teachers Institute.

Pursuant to adjournment, the teachers met to-day with Superintendent Stewart in the chair. The discussion of the text book question was resumed, and the following books now in use were almost unanimously condemned: Ray's Arithmetic, The Independent Reader, Watson's Speller, Watson's Language Lessons, and Anderson's U. S. History. It is thought by the teachers that the remainder of the books have sufficient merits to entitle them to be retained for another year, and that the expense to the people will be considerable.

The programme for the summer institute was then read and Mr. Stewart explained what will be required of the teachers at the next examination, which will be held immediately after the adoption of text books. Adjourned until June 27th. C. M. Sorenson, Sec'y.

Deadly Effects of Diphtheria.

We are reliably informed that a party in the Fourteenth Ward of this city took some clothes that had been employed about a patient afflicted with diphtheria and threw them over a chicken coop the other evening to air. When the family came to look into the coop the next morning all of its inmates were found dead. The dead fowls had black marks on their throats in each instance. And a whole brood of young chicks perished in the same way.

A Terrible Experience.

Strawberry Valley, in Wasatch County, is shortly to be the scene of operations by surveyors for the Midland Railway heading this way. The season chosen for work is more favorable than made by a former company that went in that direction in January last, six men, members of a surveying party, had been operating in Strawberry Canyon, passed through a terrible experience.

Only two days provisions, they started down the canyon from a point near its head, with instructions from the engineer in charge to leave it by a trail which led out of it at a point some miles below where they started, and go to a certain locality in Utah Valley, by certain landmarks. The men missed the way, and after wandering for two or three days in the mountains, following all the time in deep snow, they returned to Strawberry Canyon. There is a considerable stream in this canyon, and the only hope the party had of escaping death from starvation and exposure was to follow the stream down to a place where there was a cache of provisions and supplies. The canyon in places is narrow and precipitous and was filled to such a depth with snow that the men were compelled to plunge into the stream at frequent intervals, crossing and re-crossing it, and sometimes wading long distances down its current. When it is remembered that at times the water was up to the men's necks, and thick with "muck ice," the severity of the trial may be better understood.

These men have traveled in this way for three days and nights without any food whatever, making only a few miles per day. During the whole of the time they were wet from head to foot, and for hours at a time were wading in ice water. The snow was so deep that they were unable to find a resting place. At length, in a condition better imagined than described, the poor fellows reached the cache.

AT THE PARK.

Things and Doings in and Around the City in the Hills.

This has been a great week for dog fights in this part of town, no less than ten having occurred in one day.

A high wind demolished the Crescent house for the tramway since recently, and it is now in a dilapidated condition. The Grass Creek mines have been abandoned. The machinery, tools, etc., have lately been shipped east, and the U. P. engine men have made their last trip to the mines. Men are at work tearing up the track and in a few days the Grass Creek mines will be a thing of the past.

Rumor has it that the Union Pacific intend shortly to commence prospecting the ground about Coalville for coal. There is but little doubt that it exists in abundance and but little work will be necessary to open it up. They have some good claims there, and next summer intend opening them on a large scale.

There was to have been a grand rally of the Loyal League Wednesday evening, but through some hook or crook, presumably a case of feeling on the part of non-members, it was postponed. The Loyal League in Park Square, a part of the door of the room in which Eppeeson was. This gave him warning and he succeeded in getting out of the window and into the willows before the officers arrived, thus avoiding capture. All the goods were recovered.

Eppeeson Escapes.

Eppeeson, the thief who got away with the articles from Agricultural Park yesterday, took the stolen property to the Turf House on the State Road to-day. Parties there telephoned early in the morning to the police, and Mrs. Walker, the landlady, was called in to the room in which Eppeeson was. This gave him warning and he succeeded in getting out of the window and into the willows before the officers arrived, thus avoiding capture. All the goods were recovered.

To Calder's.

On Tuesday afternoon next, the members of Prof. Stephens' music classes propose to enjoy themselves at Calder's Farm, and have extended special invitations to some of their friends to accompany them. They will leave this city at 1 p.m. and return early in the evening. An excellent programme of music, games, etc., has been arranged, and the visit to this delightful resort will doubtless be a pleasant one. Among the games to be indulged in are racing, boating, croquet, tennis on the tennis and basses, football, etc.

The world in its admiration of the famous songstress, Adeline Patti, seems almost to have forgotten the fact that she has a relative who is said to be vocally fully the peer of her younger sister. We refer to Carlotta Patti. An exchange says: "Carlotta Patti is as beautiful as ever, with a fair, white skin, black eyes and hair, and the most winning smile imaginable. But she is lucrally lame. Could she have gone upon the operatic stage she would have been esteemed even more beautiful than Adeline. She is married, and her husband being a man of considerable property. It is said that she devotes several hours each day to training the voices of young ladies, because, as she says, 'I love the work and desire to make my art a blessing to others.' She is in marked contrast with Adeline in her teaching, and will invite pupils in and teach them to sing."
