ANNOUNCEMENT
Dr. William T. Cannon announces to his patients and friends that beginning with May fifteenth his office will be at his residence, No. 520 East South Temple street, instead of 510 Templeton building. The growth and character of his practice, involving much hospital and surgical work, has become such that for some time past he has been unable to give to his office hours that regularity and attention which he feels regularly and attention which he feels necessary. This has been no less regretted by him than disappointing to those who, by reason of other calls upon him, were compelled to wait for him.
It is with the confident hope of correcting this condition and of promoting his patients' convenience and comfort, as well as of economizing his own time, and enabling him the more promptly to attend those who seek his services, that the change has been decided upon;
and he trusts it will justify the hope which has prompted it. In the new location his office hours will be 2 to 3 p. m. Sundays 12:30 to 1:30 p. m. Both Phones No. 822.

JOINT COMMITTEE.
his residence, No. 520 East South Tem-
building. The growth and character
regularly and attention which he feels
him, were compelled to wait for him.
well as of economizing his own time,
that the change has been decided upon;
p. m. Sundays 12:30 to 1:30 p. m. Both Phones No. 822.
