CROWDS THROG CONEY ISLAND

Make Opening of Madri Gras A Glittering Tournament.

THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND.

This Number Turns Out and Thonsands Complains of Car Service Getting Back Home Again.

New York, Sept. 18.—It is estimated that 300,000 persons visited Coney Island last night and helped make the opening night of the Mardi Gras carnival the greatest ever known there. From end to end Surf avenue was streaming with banners and blazing with the lights. Long strings of electric bulbs made a glittering firmament under which the great crowd surged to and fro.

There was a parade with floats and a king and queen were crowned with medieval solemnity and ceremony. The mer-ymaking continued into early morning.
Never for a moment did the crowds cease to shower confetti. Good temper prevailed, even though there were some instances of rowdiness in the horde. Getting the crowds home was a problem. Thousands had to wait for hours before they could get into cars bound for Brooklyn and Manhattan.

NEW ASTOR THEATER
FORBIDDEN TO OPEN.

New York, Sept. 18.—After an audience that filled the Astor, New York's new playhouse, to its full capacity, the waiting minutes for the curtain to rise on the opening performance tonight, a representative of managers announced that the department had forbidden the opening of the house. The disappointed first nighters accepted the situation good-naturedly, as it was explained that the owners and builders had unintentionally violated a minor rule of the fire department in the matter of fire-lighting equipment of the stage. It was said that the defect had been pointed out within the hour and too late to permit of its immediate remedy.

Just when the house would be opened the management could not say, but probably within a night or two. Those present were given the option of receiving their money back or later dated tickets and then dismissed.

The new house is located at Broadway and Forty-fifth street, is under the management of Wagenhals & Kemper and was to have been formally opened with the production of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," in which Miss Annie Russell would have appeared as Puck.

Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the
