WILL BE SHOT AUGUST 17TH

Warden Bow Breaks the News to the Condemned Man, Who Betrayed No Emotion.

The last effort to save the life of Abe Majors, convicted of murder for the killing of Captain William T. Brown, of the Ogden police force, on April 20th, 1820, has failed. The State board of pardons, at its meeting Saturday, refused to change or interfere with the sentence of the lower court. This means that the condemned youth will be shot to death at the State prison, between hymn commencing, "Softly beams the the hours of 10 o'clock a. m. and noon, on Priday, August 17th.

RETRAYS NO EMOTION.

It was nearly 5 o'clock Saturday when the board's decision was announced. An hour later the news was conveyed to Majore by Warden Dow. The condemned youth betrayed no emotion. He said he had expected that his petitionwould be granted, and expressed corrow for his moor mother.

MOTHER HEARS THE NEWS. Mrs. Wagner, Majors' mother, who had remained in the Supreme court room nearly the whole of the day, was not present when the members of the board and Clerk Stephens emerged from the ante room. She had gone out into the open air and was walking along the open air and was walking along the county building grounds when the sad tidings were conveyed to her. The mossenger was a Christian Science lady, who has taken a wonderful amount of interest in young Majors since his incarceration in the State prison, and was one of the few who served to put in motion the movement for a commutation of the death sentence to life im-
