LOCAL AND OTHER MATTERS.

THEATRE.—Mr. Carroll and his clever and fantastic terpsichorelites have been and gone, and now Johnny Allen and Miss Alice Harrison are nightly filling the Theatre from pit to dome with roars of laughter and the reverberation thereof.

Schneider, or Dot House von der Rhine, is a sensation melodrama, with plenty of Irish incident and a handsome flow of Irish humor. Mr. Allen is well master of the funny peculiarities of Anglo-German dialect, and good use he makes of them. He is also nimble and vigorous with his feet, and in the latter regard the same may be said of Miss Harrison, who sang and danced to the boisterous delight of the audience.

There is no lack of "business" all through the play, but in the third act butte and "business" scene supreme, while in the closing scenes poetic justice claims and obtains its own.

Mr. Carter's Dick Fairchild is the best thing we have seen him do, he coming nearest merging his individuality in that character than we have seen of him in previous assumptions. He made a worthy villain.

We ought to say a word commendatory of Miss Adams' neat and effective costume. She looked to excellent advantage. Messrs. Thorne, Marden, Mackintosh, and others, and others, not forgetting Miss Clawson, all deserve credit for their several representations. Those who are in the land with a stirring, varied and unflagging exhibition of broad fun will be satisfied with a night with Schneider.

WINTRY.—Snow on the ground and keen weather in Cache Valley.

THE EMIGRANTS.—Owing to detention on the route, reported to consequence of a snow-storm, the company of emigrants expected from the East did not arrive this morning. The following telegram will be acceptable to their friends in this city and vicinity—

Ogden, 8 a.m., Nov. 11th, 1917.
Editor Denver News: The emigrants will not arrive here till 6 this evening. They will be in Salt Lake City at 9 p.m.
D. O. CALDER.

SQUEEZED OUT.—In consequence of publishing the astronomical lecture by Professor O. Pratt, we are compelled to omit a number of advertisements to-day.

DEATH OF MR. JOHN B. KIMBALL.—In another part of the News will be found an obituary notice of the late Mr. John B. Kimball, senior member of the firm of Kimball & Lawrence, who died about midnight last night, of acute consumption. Mr. Kimball was a very old resident of Utah. He was well known for many excellent traits of character. The milk of human kindness, and his ruling elements of his nature, and he was strictly honorable in his dealings.

REASONS WHY.—Some of our citizens have often wondered why the crusaders neglected their own business to persecute the "Mormons," which is nobody's proper business. An exchange furnishes two reasons for their extraordinary conduct—

"There are two reasons why some people don't mind their own business. One is that they haven't any business, and the other is that they have no mind."

BAD EGGS.—The Chicago Times says, "Eggs are plenty and very bad" in that city. There are a few "bad eggs" of several kinds, chiefly imported, around here.

PURIFICATION DEMANDED.—The people of New York demand the "purification of the judiciary," a demand which is equally necessary in Utah. We do like an upright judge. If we could choose our own we would have one, or we would know the reason why. So long as President Grant appoints our judges, if he would send us good and honest ones, we should think him a gentleman.

THE MATRONS.—The little ones, hundreds of them, as we go to press, are shaking their juvenile sides over the comicalities of Jake Schneider.

A SUBLIME DISREGARD.—The Atlas Outpost, speaking of the possibility of another "Mormon" exodus, says—

"The Mormons, too, however much we may condemn their peculiar institutions, have always manifested a most sublime disregard for property when their religious interests were involved."

A VAST DIFFERENCE.—Read this, from the San Francisco Bulletin—

"The Omaha community are beginning to feel shaky. They recognize the writing on the wall through the smoke of the Salt Lake investigations. The leader, Mr. Noyes, in a communication to an Albany paper, informs the world that there is a vast difference between Mormonism and Communism."

Thank the Lord for the difference.

LAST PAGE.—For dispatches, and lectures by Professor O. Pratt, see the last page.

"VERY SOBBY."—It is common for the sayings of great men to be eagerly caught up, recorded and handed down to posterity. Some of the enunciations of Chief Justice James B. McKean will not be likely to be lost. One, at least, of his luminous phrases will probably be indelibly stamped upon the mind of the person to whom it was addressed—"Thomas Hawkins, I am sorry for you, very sorry." When the circumstances under which this utterance was made are considered, it forms an unerring key to the character of the utterer. "Thomas Hawkins, I am sorry for you, very sorry." May be that it will become a "household word" yet.

APPROVE THE CHANGE.—The Idaho Herald thinks a few more "removals" would be beneficial to this territory—

By latest telegraphic dispatches we learn that George C. Bates, of Chicago, Ill., has been appointed United States Attorney for the Territory of Utah, vice Backlund, "interim" removed. It will be remembered that Backlund was appointed by Chief Justice McKean, "ad interim" to do the dirty work of the federal ring. There is no law for such an appointment by the Chief Justice. The President has seen proper to give that Territory a legally appointed attorney for the United States. If Mr. Bates will take the law as his guide and not join himself in the federal ring for personal gain, we shall see a cessation of the persecutions in that Territory, and a breaking up of the federal ring.

Mormons will have a wholesome effect upon the prosperity of Utah.

A REPRESENTATIVE ST. LOUIS FIRM.—A late issue of the St. Louis Times contains an article devoted to the rise, progress, present business, etc., of Messrs. Kingland, Ferguson, and Co., as one of the representative firms of that city. As the firm is well-known to us, and as we can fully endorse the sentiments of the Times with regard to it, we extract from the article in question—

Messrs. Kingland, Ferguson & Co., the well-known proprietors of the Phoenix Foundry and Agricultural works, afford a prominent instance of this class of enterprising men through whose energy, industry and business the trade of this city has been built up to its present enormous proportions. This firm was founded under the same name in 1844, by George and Leroy Kingland and David A. Ferguson. These gentlemen left Pittsburgh, where they had learned all the best mechanical skill of that time, and came to Salt Lake City, where they have the most complete establishment in the West, and it is not too much to say that in a great measure is owing to their enterprise and courage that this branch of industry has been established in St. Louis. Commencing as we have said, on a small scale, employing at the first but five men, and their business has steadily grown till they now employ from two hundred to two hundred and fifty men, according to the season, and cover with their works an area to be reckoned in acres. During their period of well earned prosperity, this firm has acquired a wide reputation for readiness they have uniformly evinced to adopt, at whatever cost, the newest and best patents applicable to their special business, and thus have achieved a reputation for the excellence of their products, which has secured, if ever, been equalled in the West.

The firm manufactures every description of machinery. Among its principal specialties is the Parkhurst patent head-block, for portable saw mills.

MISSIONARIES.—A company of missionaries will start from Ogden for the States on the 15th of the present month. Arrangements have been made with the U.P.R.R. Co. for reduced rates for the fare to Omaha will be $5.70. It is requested that all the missionaries who are ready will meet in Ogden at the depot at 7:30 a.m. on the 15th, and travel together, and if possible obtain a reduction of fares over other roads East.—Ogden Junction, Nov. 11th.

KANAB.—A gentleman who arrived from Kanab on Thursday evening informs us that the health of the people there is excellent. The Navajos visit the settlement every few days and are very friendly. The place is progressing rapidly, houses going up like magic. The police for an extension of the Deseret Telegraph are up, and the wires will be up soon. There is a weekly mail, which now connects more regularly than formerly.

CALLER.—Elder C. W. Penrose, editor of that able, vigorous and lively paper, the Ogden Junction, honored us with a call this morning, looking fresh and spirited. He is a man of the land, and he says there is no there too, if the analysts and assayers are to be credited, all of which we are very glad to hear, for many things last longer and do more excellent service when well tinned than when the tin is scarce and thin. Of places which are destitute of tin, we can only say, in the forcible language of a brilliant judicial luminary, "We are sorry for them, very sorry."

GOING.—The Chicago Post says—

"Matters in Utah are going to drop out of sight, disagreeable as they are."

INSURANCE HERD.—I will receive on Monday morning, Nov. 13, at the Tithing Yard, to drive to my herd. Parties wishing to sell stock will please bring early, as I shall have about 9 o'clock. Sheep and horses I will take on Monday, Nov. 20.
