

NATIONAL GUARD TO BE INSPECTED

Officer of the Regular Army Will Look Over the State Troops.

TO OCCUR DURING CAMP

Increased Efficiency Demanded of Militia by War Department—Preparing for Annual Encampment.

The increased efficiency demanded of the national guard by the war department is again shown in an order just received by the adjutant general's office for an inspection of the state troops by an officer of the regular army to be detailed for that purpose. The inspection is to be made during the time the militia is in its annual camp of instruction. This camp is to be held from Aug. 8 to Aug. 15 at some place to be selected soon, but near this city. The purpose of the inspection is to see that the troops are in the best of condition and that the equipment is up to the standard. The adjutant general's office is also preparing for the annual encampment of the militia, which will be held from Aug. 15 to Aug. 25 at some place to be selected soon. The purpose of the encampment is to give the troops a chance to show their drill and target practice with the new field pieces with which they have only recently been equipped. This new equipment is rapidly becoming as easy for the men of the battery to handle as were the old model guns and a creditable showing by the battery is assured when it is required to turn out.

Other equipment that is now in the National Guard is the wireless paraphernalia, two sets of field packwireless being now in transit for the Signal Corps, which with the receipt of this equipment, will be outfitted with all modern appliances and right up to the standard maintained in the regular army. This equipment will be used at the annual encampment and prior to this time in the hills about the city and on Great Salt Lake.

SYRIAN MEETS DEATH.
While Stealing a Ride on Garfield Freight He is Fatally Injured.

Michael Rahel, a Syrian laborer, died at Holy Cross hospital Saturday night from the effects of injuries received in falling from a San Pedro freight train. The accident occurred at Third West and Fifth South streets about 7:50 o'clock in the evening, and death resulted within half an hour. From what could be learned, Rahel had been stealing a ride on the freight from Garfield in some manner either he accidentally loosened his grip on the hand bars of the car, or had attempted to jump from the train while it was going at a fast speed. No one witnessed the accident, and the injured man had lain by the side of the track some time before he was discovered by track laborers.

While being removed to the hospital in the patrol wagon, Rahel showed wonderful nerve, and talked and laughed with the policemen. A few minutes after being placed on the operating table, however, he succumbed.

men may be marched from camp and into the parade with the least effort. It is not definitely settled, but it is likely that the first battery may be camped apart from the remainder of the guard to permit it to have better opportunity for drill and target practice with the new field pieces with which it has only recently been equipped. This new equipment is rapidly becoming as easy for the men of the battery to handle as were the old model guns and a creditable showing by the battery is assured when it is required to turn out.

SIXTEEN HOBOS WASHED.
City Jail Turned Into a Sanitarium For Its Guests.

Jailer Joe Bush in this Saturday night shopping, happened to see one of the signs that has made a certain soap famous for its efficacy for "You dirty boy." All night that idea haunted Jailer Bush, and when he went on duty yesterday morning, his first thought when he took a look at the row of prisoners lined up for breakfast was, "You dirty boy." Then the thought took definite form, to the disgust of the "boes," however, tubs, hose, scrubbing brushes, soap, hot and cold water were gathered, and 16 men lined up. It was a hard task, and the work of cleaning up the floors was almost as hard "after the bath," but the results in the appearance of the "boes," was reward enough for the jailer.

GALE DISLIKES JAIL.
He Seeks Writ of Habeas Corpus to Free Him from Restaurant.

Archibald J. Gale of Ogden applied to the supreme court Saturday for a writ of habeas corpus directed to Sheriff B. B. Wilson of Weber county, claiming that his imprisonment for failure to pay his wife alimony was illegal because he knew nothing about the proceedings. The writ was granted and the arguments will be heard Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Gale brought suit against him for a divorce last February on the charge of non-support. He was directed to pay $20 a month temporary alimony. Although he only earns $12.50 a week, he says that he has endeavored to pay the alimony. He had paid $118 when he was arrested and taken to jail without having been summoned before the court.

SPEIGHT FILES ANSWER.
He Says His Wife Gets Along Without His Aid.

George H. Speight filed an answer Saturday to the suit for divorce brought by his wife, Rosa R. Speight, in which she charged him with non-support. Since he was injured in an accident while working for the Rocky Mountain Bell Telephone company, losing his left hand and a part of his arm, he admits that he has failed to provide for her. His arm has irritated him, he says, and he is unable to secure employment. He admits that the judgment for $10.00 against the company was sold and assigned to his mother, Katherine Speight, who recently married Dr. Root in New York. Speight sets forth that his wife is living at the Hall's hotel, where she makes a good living.

PAT MORAN'S BILL COMES UP TONIGHT

Council Session Will Probably be Live-ly from Start to Finish.

When the city council meets tonight P. J. Moran's bill of $22,000 for repairing the outlet sewer will come up for consideration. In all probability, it will call forth considerable criticism on the city engineer and the board of public works. The Campbell Building company has a bill for approximately $7,000 for extra work which will come up tonight. This will be denied and in all probability the payment of the contractors in the sewer muddle will have to be laid before the courts.

Moran also has three contracts which the board of public works will ask the council to approve. They amount to $105,000. This is about $10,000 higher than the city engineer's estimate of the work.

The sanitary committee has a number of important reports to submit to the council on the garbage situation. It has been recommended that the city let a contract to the lowest bidder to haul the garbage.

Councilman Louis D. Martin, reformer, will probably call up his motion for reconsideration of the resolution directing the chief of police to close the stockade. There is considerable routine matter to be transacted this evening.

MINISTER DEPLORES BREACH OF SABBATH

Mad Outpouring to Places of Amusement on Sunday Rebuked in Sermon.

The operation of Sunday summer resorts and the way people attend them were deplored last evening by Rev. W. W. Des Autels of the Burlington Baptist mission, last evening, in the Emmanuel Baptist pulpit. The Rev. Mr. Des Autels preached from the text, John xi, 25, "Jesus wept," and Luke xix, 41, "And when He came near, He beheld the city, and wept over it."

"As He looked on that city in ancient time, so He looks on this city today. Salt Lake City is well situated, commercially and otherwise, but does He need to weep over it? This is for us to watch. Are we rejecting the Savior or are we accepting Him? My friends, there are thousands of young men and women in this city tonight who are patronizing places of amusement. There is that place in the southern part of the city which is a tremendous power for evil and that place on the shores of the great Salt Lake, both of which are attracting hosts of young people every Sunday. It is said that these places are allowed to remain open on the Sabbath day and we are rejecting the Savior when we patronize them."

ADDRESSES PARENTS.
Judge Wm. H. King Advises Change in Educational System.

Judge William H. King addressed the Sunday School Parents' convention in the Whitney hall yesterday morning on "School Influence on Children." He advocated the adaptation of studies to suit the needs and tastes of the children and made a strong plea for the advancement of physical training. Under the boys and girls reach a certain age the speaker said he believed they should be educated separately as their needs were different. He believed in many cases better results would be obtained by the methods more elastic than they are.

Our Semi-Annual Clearance Sale Meets With Wonderful and Instantaneous Success

Values tell, and here are telling values—the kind that brings crowds and that repay crowds for coming. And how the people thronged every department during the opening hours of this sale. How eagerly they bought—and with what enthusiasm they praised the wondrous values so plentifully provided. There'll be no let-up to the daily crowd during the event, because they'll be no let-up to the unprecedented value—giving.

We hold this sale for the sole purpose of effecting a clearance of summer stock—and so we disregard cost and profit, naming prices far below any figure likely to be quoted anywhere this season. Every department is represented with a full quota of exceptional values—the whole store is one big, busy, hustling bargain bazaar.

More, and even greater values forward for tomorrow—we will crowd every hour of every day with irresistible money-saving inducements—affording matchless economy on Summer necessities of all kinds.
