

LOOKS LIKE BRITTS ARE A BIT AFRAID

They Ask That the Money be Divided on Basis of 60 and 40 Per Cent.

SIDE BET IS ALSO CALLED OFF

Manager Billy Nolan for Nelson Agreed to Everything Just to Get James Edward in the Ring.

San Francisco, Sept. 8.—The Chronicle says today:

From information that was authoritatively given three days after the fight, it appears that the fight between the fighters of the Britt-Nelson fight were significantly different from the one which was announced between the principals that the fighters share of the receipts should be divided on a basis of 60 per cent. to the winner and 40 per cent. to the loser. Moreover, there is no side bet at $10,000.

BRITT DID THE DICTATING.

In answer to the statements that have been made to the effect that Nolan and Nelson were objecting to the referee as an excuse for "running out" of the match because there was no loser's end, it is stated on behalf of the Nelson camp that three days after the article was signed Nolan was approached in behalf of the Britts, who claimed that the winner take-all proposition was not satisfactory to Britts and that the fighters' share would have to be divided on a 60 and 40 per cent. basis, or there would be no fight. The demand was further made that the side bet of $10,000 be declared off.

PROFITS ARE RETURNED.

Nolan agreed the matter, according to the statement and finally said his only duty was to get Britt in the ring and that he would, in order to secure the match, agree to anything that was fair in the matter. As a result a second agreement was signed, bearing the date of the fight, that the fighter's share of 60 per cent. of the receipts should be divided on a 60 per cent. to the winner and 40 per cent. to the loser. The $10,000 deposited by Nolan as a forfeit on the side bet was returned to Nolan and the check for the same amount deposited by Britt was returned to the maker.

ARE BRITTS GETTING SCARED?

Readers of the "News" will recall that a few days ago it was said that Nolan and Nelson had agreed to a fight on the winner-take-all basis. Now the big side bet is off and the forfeits have been returned. Nolan held out against the new arrangement, Britt said if he did not agree to his demands he would be out of the fight.

And at this the Britts would have been crying that Nolan and Nelson were going to crawl out of the match. They made this charge because Nolan stood out for a referee to his like.

CLOSING DATE OF PIANO SALE DRAWING NEAR

Clayton Music Co.'s Closing Out Sale of Wholesale Stock of Fine Pianos, Organs and Piano Pianos

ENDS PROMPTLY TOMORROW NIGHT

Large Numbers Daily Taking Advantage of Our Plan of Selling at This Great Sale, Which Means

YOUR OWN TERMS, AT SACRIFICE PRICES.

Only Two More Days, and This Great Sale of Good Pianos Will Have Passed Into History.

Only two more days for you to avail yourself of the greatest piano offering ever made in Salt Lake City or any other city.

As we have retired from the wholesale business we were compelled to close out the big stock we had on hand. It was entirely too large for our retail needs. We had a large amount of capital invested in these goods, and we simply had to close them out.

And we HAVE been closing them out.

At the rate of twelve pianos per day, and at an average saving to buyers of $100 on each and every piano sold.

Now the sale is drawing to its close.
We have many good bargains left, both in quality and price, and we are determined to make a clean sweep of entire stock.

So come and get a piano today on your own terms and at a pleasing price.
We are making the prices satisfactory.

You will admit this much when you call and investigate.

The sale prices are so quoting on many instruments enable you to purchase a piano for less than cost of manufacture.

The very large number of instruments we have sold up to date is the best evidence that this is a piano opportunity you can ill afford to miss, even should you not need an instrument for two years.

You will find the world's best makes

Danger!

Headache, Trembling Hands, Twitchings, Irritability,
Are Signals.

Not every headache is a sign of nervous break-down.

But, if you suffer often from headache that seems to re-occur at intervals, nervous or brain trouble is very evident.

Again, if you can't hold a pen to paper without trembling or twitching, there's a screw loose somewhere.

Or, if you seem irritable and cross without cause.

All these are signs and symptoms.
Not necessarily that you are dangerously sick—but, at any rate, sick enough to need Dr. Miles' Nervine.

The danger lies in neglecting the slight symptoms.

Some of these signs are Sleeplessness, Dizziness, Excitability, Loss of Memory, Fretfulness, Headache, Melancholy, Neuralgia, Muscular Twitchings.

Do not neglect them. Begin to take Dr. Miles' Nervine. It will cure them.

"For five years I have suffered terribly from nervous prostration. I tried every remedy after another, but received no benefit. I continued to grow worse until I was afraid to be left alone, and, at last, I was forced to resign my position. Three months ago I was induced to try Dr. Miles' Restorative. After taking the first bottle I felt encouraged. I continued to take it until I had taken three bottles, and am now in better health than I have been for years."

ing. Well, didn't the Britts do the same thing? While we think Nolan is wrong in objecting to Jeff, in no doubt has good reasons for his stand, or rather thinks his reasons are good.

But after all the Britts' bragging, it looks as if they are the ones who would like to crawl out of the ring. Nolan might say to Britts, all the while the fellow said to the press: "I know this match will win; for an ill fellow."

The question of referee will have to be settled today. The charges are that if a conference is held between Jeffries, Car-forth, Nolan and Willie Britt, an agreement will be reached and Jeff will be the third man in the ring.

BIKE RA TONIGHT.

Main Feature Will be French Style Race Between Downing and Samuelson.

The feature of this evening's program of bike races at the Grand track will be the match race between Harry Downing and W. E. Samuelson. They are matched on a mile heats, best two in three, French style.

If Downing wins he will give Samuelson a beating, which means the French way of going.

Elongated Jack Hume will attempt to break the amateur record in a motor-paced mile against time.

Washington, Sept. 7.—In today's doubleheader with the Boston team the local leaders in the pennant race, broke even, each side scoring a shut out on the other.

BRITT NELSON CLASH TOMORROW

Both Men Are in the Pink of Condition—In Trouble Over Referee.

JEFF SAYS HE WILL BE THERE

Declares That He Will be the Third Man in the Ring—Nolan Says No.

San Francisco, Sept. 7.—Fully determined to referee the Britt-Nelson contest tomorrow, former Champion James J. Jeffries arrived from Los Angeles tonight. "I have accepted the offer of $1000 to referee the contest between Britt and Nelson, and I will be the third man in the ring when the men meet and that is all there is to it," said Jeffries as he stepped out of the train. "I understand that Nolan fears that Nelson will not get a square deal. But the public has demanded that I referee, knowing full well that I will give both sides a square deal. If I suspect that the boxer, whom both sides is going on I will call the fight off as an instant."

It is now the belief of the sporting fantasy that Manager Nolan will be compelled to lay aside his objections and agree to Jeffries' terms. It is further expected that the deadlock which has existed will be fully broken at the meeting of the fight managers and the referee to be held tomorrow.

George Siler, the veteran referee, who was spoken of as an umpire in the event that the fight is called off, is finally decided to referee. He is a former champion, and was recommended by George Edward to referee the fight. Siler's arrival was immediately to the training quarters of the fighters, where he conferred with them.

Siler declared that he was not anxious to referee the fight and spoke as though he would not take the place even if it were offered to him.

WHAT NOLAN SAYS.

It will be seen from the above that former Champion Jeffries is determined to be the third man in the ring tomorrow afternoon when Britt and Nelson clash in their fourth "or more" contest. In the light of the championship of the world.

But it takes two to make a bargain, and Nolan's manager, who is not yet settled, is not yet settled. Nolan's manager, who is not yet settled, is not yet settled. Nolan's manager, who is not yet settled, is not yet settled. Nolan's manager, who is not yet settled, is not yet settled.

"I don't know what was said in that Delaney telegram to Jeffries which Willie Britt distorted, and which caused the big fellow so suddenly to abandon his demand for $2000. For all I know, it might have guaranteed Jeff $1000 if he would come and serve. I intend to stand on my rights."

SITUATION LOOKS BAD.

The uncertainty regarding the referee is affecting the sales of seats seriously. It was said at the manager of seats seriously.
It was said at the manager of seats seriously.
It was said at the manager of seats seriously.
It was said at the manager of seats seriously.
It was said at the manager of seats seriously.

Naturally, betting has practically come to a standstill. Bettors will not, of course, place their money on a fight which is so to make the decision has been settled. So, while there is a disposition to wait on the coming fight, all those who are so disposed are holding off until the referee has been agreed upon.
Britt still is a strong favorite, the prevailing odds being 10 to 5, with Nolan and then the more liberal odds of 10 to 5.

The work of training is over. Both men are willing to take the chance of the fight.
These trainers are now giving their attention to the important detail of holding them "on edge." Nelson has done the largest sort of work up to within the last day or so, keeping up his grind, infact, until yesterday evening. Today he took it somewhat easier. Jeff, on the other hand, has been working steadily, and cutting out all boxing and his swim in the surf after his daily work.

FIGHT TOMORROW AFTERNOON.

The impression prevails in sportsman-quarters that the fight is set for tomorrow afternoon. This is a mistake. The battle is scheduled for the afternoon. The arrangement of the fight is set for tomorrow afternoon. This is a mistake. The battle is scheduled for the afternoon. The arrangement of the fight is set for tomorrow
