

COUNCILMAN NOW WANTS THE REPORT

Mr. Mulvey Takes Position Opposed to His Attitude Before Election.

OBJECTS TO $10,000 BEAUTIES

Deems it His Right to Know What "Americans" Have Done for City. Will Start New System.

"Gentlemen, I do not like these $10,000 beauties," was Councilman Mulvey's remark when he learned that during the session of the city council that the city money to the extent of $10,000 had been appropriated to Westernman & Trader, expert accountants, who have been going over the city's books for the purpose of finding some expense of system. Up to date they have failed to locate any and have found it necessary to put in entirely new set of account books.

Mr. Mulvey before election, fought against Councilman Peterson when he asked the council to require the finance committee to render a report on this work. Mulvey last night was directly opposed to his former stand. He insisted that the report be made. He said that inasmuch as he was going out of office next week, he deemed it his right to know what the "Americans" had done in the way of helping systematize the city's accounting system.

START NEW SYSTEM.

The council passed an ordinance as suggested by Westernman & Trader last night providing for system in accounting. Daily balances are required and the books are open to inspection by members of the council and the mayor at any time.

The finance committee of the council will obtain the services of Westernman & Trader after Jan. 1. The purpose is to permit them to inspect the work of the officers under the new system to see that things start off well. The expense will probably reach a figure much in excess of the $10,000 already spent. Weekly and monthly reports are to be made to the council of quarterly reports as heretofore.

COUNCIL ROUTINE.

A franchise was granted to the Emigration Canyon road over city land in Emigration canyon.

John Ballantyne was confirmed as special policeman upon the appointment of Chief Pitt.

The council appropriated $15,000 as a fee to Franklin S. Richards for assisting City Atty. Ogden Hill in preparing the ordinance and proceeding in the suit of the Progress company against Salt Lake City, now before Judge Morse in the Third district court.

REGARDING CORPORATIONS.

Attorney-General Breeden Talks on Annual Tax License.

Atty.-Gen. Breeden delivered the following opinion today, relative to the coming on corporations: Replying to your favor of the 19th inst. relative to the payment of annual license on corporations, I beg to say that in my opinion the absorption of the Grass Creek Coal company by the Union Fuel company and the absorption of the Wyoming Coal & Coke company by the Wyoming Coal company do not operate as a dissolution of the two old companies, and hence said companies are not relieved of the liability for the payment of said annual license. I believe, however, that this is unjust and ought not to be set. I cannot see how a corporation can be relieved of its liability except that it be dissolved in the regular way by legal proceedings in accordance with the provisions of sections 3661-2 Revised Statutes. If the courts hold the annual corporation license act unconstitutional, so far as I am concerned, I will certainly favor the return of all license paid under said act.

74 MORE BODIES FOUND IN DARR MINE.

Jacobs Creek, Pa., Dec. 24.—Searching parties at the Darr mine today reached entry No. 27, where they found 74 bodies in a heap. With the 46 bodies which have already been brought to the surface the total number recovered to date is 120.

The bodies found in No. 27 entry have not been seen except by members of the searching party. It is said they are not as badly mutilated as some of the bodies previously recovered.

Today was funeral day at the mine. Twelve identified bodies were taken from the temporary morgue and placed in a line along the tracks of the Pittsburg & Lake Erie railroad. The last and most pathetic of the victims were open with hundreds of friends, relatives and onlookers as spectators. The resultant scenes were extremely pathetic. Quite a number of the spectators have a relative or friend in the mine and their grief was pitiful. Following the services the bodies were placed on a train and taken to Conneleville, Pa., for burial.

The work of searching the mines is progressing more speedily today.

CONVICTS SAID TO BE IN SALT LAKE

Chain Gang Guard Sees Two Men Answering Description Skulking About.

Sullivan and Garcia, ex-convicts, holdups, robbers and alleged murderers of Police Officer Charles A. Ford, were reported to be in Salt Lake this morning.

Officer Kaat, who guards the chain gang, telephoned to headquarters this morning about 10 o'clock that he had seen two men on Sixth and B streets, skulking toward town, answering the description of the fugitives. Shortly after this report came in, Asst. Chief Crosby of the fire department, reported that he had seen a man answering the description of Sullivan, on West North Temple street. Immediately upon the receipt of the reports, detectives and patrolmen, mounted and on foot, were sent out in the hope of locating the men.

HOUSE GUARDED.

The police thought the men might have heard of the release of Mrs. Belcher, whose house Garcia roomed at and that they were making their way to that place. The house was quickly guarded and no trace of the criminals was found. There are now 12 or 15 officers out trying to locate the men seen by Kaat. According to Chief Pitt, there is a "thousand" such "clues" have been run down by the officers.

DR. ATTAS HEARD FROM.

Proctor of the Tribune Ships With $10,000 from Portland.

Dr. Attas, the Greek grafter, who was exposed by the "News" and naturally championed by the organs of the crooks in this city some three years ago, has been heard from.

This time he has succeeded in pulling the wool over the eyes of the residents of Portland, Or., to the tune of $10,000. When last heard from Attas was in Butte for a few hours en route to the east.

The versatile son of classic Athens pursued his old tactics, only changing his name to that of Dr. Cecil. In addition to his practice as a physician he started two confectionery stores and borrowed from all with whom he came in contact. When in the time of his last visit Dr. Cecil dropped out of sight with as much money as he could take with him.

Dr. Attas, as he was known in Utah, out quite a wide swath in Salt Lake for several months posing as an author who was traveling around the world. He was vigorously championed by the Salt Lake Tribune who engaged him as a special correspondent to run down a supposed murderer in Idaho. Attas "delivered the goods" so well that the Tribune's editorial in numbered among the stellas and breaks of local newspapers.

Following his career as a newspaper correspondent Attas was arrested here for practicing medicine without a diploma. He was released on bond and fled to the low country where he tried to organize a union. After collecting various "dues" he was arrested in Reno, Nev., where he was said to have married a rich woman.

When Nevada got too hot to hold him Attas went to Los Angeles and followed similar tactics.

Since that time the Greek papers in America have from time to time contained warnings against the fellow.

PRESBYTERIAN CELEBRATION.

The Sunday school auditorium of the First Presbyterian church was crowded last night, the occasion being the Christmas celebration. The decorations were in evergreens and red Christmas bells. Instrumental music was furnished by a quartet of 14 pupils, with Miss Helen Hartley as conductor. The feature of the evening was the fact that instead of the children receiving presents, they gave the presents themselves—necessaries of life for the poor and the needy. The names of deserving indigent people had been handed in to Supt. Wier, and provision for such was made by the purchases of the children. These included coal, crackers, flour, money, breakfast foods, potatoes, squashes, egg plant, tea and coffee, and a long list of necessities for the poor. Each class marched up in turn to the platform, where it deposited its gifts. The children were also gratified by the younger children whose cute and original interpretations greatly pleased the audience.

VOLUNTEERS SANTA.

The Volunteers of America, for whom Santa Claus has been a street corner at the side of children's boxes, will spend the money thus collected to make the poor and needy happy. It is expected that 1,000 baskets filled with all necessities for two to three good meals will be given away at the barracks, 11 east Second south street, today. Saturday afternoon is a date looked forward to by hundreds of children in destitute homes, for the Volunteers will bring their big Christmas tree festival then.

GREEN STILL ALIVE.

Man With Holes in Skull Talks and Getting Better.

Eddy Green, the man in whose skull numerous holes were made in the North Salt Lake hold-up a week ago, is alive and showing signs of improvement at St. Mark's hospital. The doctor says that he has never been seen in Salt Lake. Despite the repeated declarations of the doctors that he cannot live, Green tells them he will, and is far from being a near-dead man. If he lives, he will have to be done in several places, as the hold-ups simply beat holes through his skull, leaving his brain exposed. The time the doctor removed bits of bone and locks of hair from the tissue, and yet the man lives and shows full use of his mental faculties.

McCullough had gone to the station to meet a relative who was coming in on the train, and was standing by the track awaiting the arrival of the train. When it came in Brakeman Taylor approached McCullough and friends of the latter, say after a few words of conversation and without provocation raised his lantern and struck McCullough over the head, cutting an ugly gash and rendering the man unconscious. McCullough was picked up and taken to his home, and Sheriff Sebring was notified. Thus far, however, Taylor has eluded pursuit, and it is thought that he has gone to Salt Lake.

Patean also aimed two shots at the cashier but both went wild. He then placed the revolver to his head to commit suicide, but the weapon failed to explode. Fifty persons were in the restaurant, a number of whom overpowered Patean and turned him over to a policeman.

The restaurant is in the center of the shipping district and the shooting caused much excitement.

"NO SALOONS."

Hudson, Ohio, Votes in Gift of Two Hundred Thousand Dollars.

Chicago, Dec. 24.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Hudson, Ohio, says:

Because a gift of $200,000 supposedly made by J. W. Ellsworth, millionaire New York coal man, which promises to make this town a model village provided that the sale of liquor ceases before the money is paid over, Hudson voted out saloons yesterday by a vote of 1,000 to 500. The town's sentiment is overwhelmingly "wet," but the chance to get municipal light and gas plants, with a sewage disposal plant and the remodeling of the old Western Reserve college, a cost of $100,000 overcame the saloon sentiment. The "drys" give all the credit to Ellsworth, who offered to permit the sale of beer. No law being found to exempt beer selling from the operation of an austere vote the amber beverage was sacrificed as well.

STEEL WORKS CLOSE.

ago, Dec. 24.—The South Chicago plant of the Illinois Steel company, employing 2,000 men, will be shut down today until after the holidays.

The employees understood that their services would not be required until March 1.

MEMPHIS SAVINGS BANK CLOSED BY COURT.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 24.—"This bank is closed by order of the chancery court. E. I. McHenry has been appointed receiver."

The above was posted on the doors of the Memphis Savings bank, one of the oldest institutions in the city at opening time this morning. It is understood that the officers went before the Helix court last night and applied for a receiver. No reason for the suspension has yet been given out.

C. W. Maclean, a well known capitalist and president of E. I. McHenry cashier. The bank carried deposits of over $1,500,000.

Several weeks ago a statement was published that the bank had been closed by order of the court on a certain concern upon which it could not realize. This set many rumors afloat and the bank inserted the following explanation in the daily papers:

"A misunderstanding seems to exist in regard to a supposed loss made by this bank. The facts are that an unpaid maturity was immediately made good to the bank by certain of its officers and directors and the bank sustained no loss whatever. The claim was bought at its face value by said officers and directors and is their property. Whatever is realized from it will belong to them."

President S. P. Read of the Memphis Clearing House association said today that the suspension of the Memphis Savings bank would not affect any other institution in the city. Mr. Read said he felt certain that all depositors in the Memphis Savings bank would be paid in full.

A statement of the condition of the suspended bank was made public on Dec. 11, and is as follows:

Resources: loans and discounts, $1,621,654; overdrafts secured, $28,597; stocks and bonds, $829,370; real estate, $17,215; cash and slight exchange, $236,585.

Liabilities: capital stock, $294,100; surplus and undivided profits, $77,624; bills payable, $250,000; cashiers' checks, $5,573; deposits, $1,531,949.

A SEA ROMANCE.

Mate of Long Lost Bark Arrives Home In Time for Christmas Dinner.

New York, Dec. 24.—With a tale of hardship and privation that adds gothic chapters to the romance of the sea, Mate Donald Morrison of the long lost bark Alexandra Oules has arrived at his home Southampton, L. I., in time for Christmas. The bark was wrecked in the Pacific near the equator and the crew picked up in the boat. One of the boats in which Mate Morrison resided was uninhabited island, where he and four others remained for five months until they were rescued by a ship, manned by the sailors who had got off from the other bark, who had finally reached the mainland. During the time they lived on the island and hardships, and all the water that was was from a small broken spring.

McDonald's Dutch chocolates will contribute their share towards the Christmas cheer.

Said a lady in one of the big stores yesterday: "Is this McDonald's candy?" Assured in the affirmative she continued "I am so glad—for the quality is all right."

A compliment for the man who has raised the standard of chocolates throughout the country. Dutch chocolates, half pound 30c; pound 60c. McDonald exclusive manufacturer of fine chocolates.
