To Governor S. B. Packard, New Orleans.

In answer to your dispatch of this date the President directs me to say that he feels it his duty to state frankly that he does not be the vegetarian flock. In this pamphlet I propounded a scheme for the renovation of my neighborhood on vegetarian principles. At this time I employed about eight servants, male and female, in the house and garden. I gave the men 14s. a week to find themselves, and they were allowed a certain proportion of such common vegetables as potatoes, carrots, turnips, and onions free. Being married men, they had each a distinct cettage, large and comfortable, with an ornamental flower-garden in front and a fruit garden at the back.
