COAL PRODUCTION CURTAILED.

Wyoming Operators Say Mild Weath er Has Decreased Demand.

Coal mines in Wroming are shutting down for want of commercial orders. This is the intelligence received today from the coal fields, and the reason given is that the unusually mild win-ter has resulted in a inrgely decreased consumption of coal. It is stated that the bulk of orders is now for ratiroad use, but in the same breach the infor-mation is given that the angplies of the ratiroady are now almost gone. City coal dealers have not received any notice from the operators of any re-duction in prices; but under the cir-cumstances there will be expectation on the part of the public of a material reduction. The contrast between pres-ent conditions and the unprecedented usi families of two years ago is some-what striking. given is that the unusually mild win-
