LIGHT ON THE HOLDUP BUSINESS.

How the Saloons Harbor Criminals and Abet Crime in Ogden City.

DEATH OF WM. ECCLES, SEN.

W. R. Emmett Wins Election Contest—Has Three More Votes than His Rival Mr. Driver—Personals.

At the afternoon session of the municipal court the preliminary hearing of George H. Wells, charged with being implicated in the hold-up of the Zang saloon on the night of Oct. 20, 1903, was taken up. The principal witness for the state was John Halling, the man arrested the night of the hold-up at the Ogden House by Officer Barlow Wilson. The witness testified that he was born at Brigham City and lived there until he was 20 years of age. He then left his home and went east and worked around for about two years, returning to the west and went to the coast, where he spent about five years, and then was sentenced to the Idaho state prison, where he stayed 23 months. He came to Ogden about the middle of October, where he met R. J. Hickey, or Dad, John Monroe, Purry or Dago, Nick, Quinley, Baine and Andrew. On the night of Oct. 17, 1903, he was in the O. K. saloon and got on speaking terms with Mr. Wells, the defendant, that evening. On Sunday night Halling was with Wells and said he had a talk with Wells, and said he thought of going to Salt Lake City, as he was too well known here in Ogden, and might get arrested, whereupon Wells told Halling that he wanted to stay in town and get arrested and was not caught right in the net he would furnish an alibi for him and if necessary go to the stand himself to prove the alibi. Monday night the same gang was in the saloon and they decided on a "stick up" at the card room in the rear of Munsey's cigar store on the fifth street. That evening, Nick and Winberg were to turn the trick. Two of the guns were furnished by Wells, and Monroe gave one to Halling, and Wells gave one to Winberg. When they got to the card room, it was closed, and they returned to the saloon. Tuesday night the gang met at the O. K. saloon again and planned the Zang hold-up. Wells, Hickey, Baine, Andrew, Nick, Purry and Hickey left the saloon, went down to Wall avenue and up Twenty-fourth street to the saloon, where they put red pocket handkerchiefs over their faces as masks. Halling and Hickey entered at the back door and Purry and Nick by the front door. Halling held the gun on B. Bello, proprietor of the saloon. Purry, through the cash till while the other two kept watch at the doors, and Nick went through Bello's pockets. They left the saloon by the front door and went across Grant avenue, the back of the saloon, where they turned down their coat collars and then went down Twenty-fourth street. They caught their guns and the watch back of the saloon, where they went to the O. K. saloon, entering by the back door and were in the winerom dividing the money when the officers came to the saloon. Monroe knew the saloon and the officers got into the back door and went to the room in the Ogden house where they were after, wards found by Officer Wilson, and Purry and Nick jumped out of the window and Halling, the witness, was caught.

The guns that were found in Wells' pockets by the officers were produced in court, but he could not identify them. He testified that he saw the guns, but said they looked very similar to the ones furnished him by Wells. Andrew E. Winberg was the next witness. He testified that he is a Southern Pacific fireman. That Monday evening, Oct. 19, the witness was at the O. K. saloon, where they planned the Zang hold-up. He saw Wells, who handed a gun to Winberg, also carried a gun and he with Nick and Halling went up to turn the trick, but the place was closed. The witness testified that Wells promised to furnish him a place in the rear part of the saloon for the guns so they could get them there instead of at the back. Winberg testified that Wells gave him 5 cents the next morning after the Zang hold-up. He said he saw the guns, but he was not sure he could identify them. He was in his room, 131 Twenty-sixth street, on Wednesday morning, he and Hickey in his bed. His back was hurt from the jump out of the Ogden house.

Sheff Joseph Bailey next took the stand and testified that a few days after the arrest of Wells he went to the O. K. saloon, where he found three guns and a red pocket handkerchief under the bar. That Mr. Wells told him two of the guns belonged to him and the cut-off and one to him. This completed the evidence in the prosecution and the case was continued until this afternoon at 2 o'clock, when the defense will put in their evidence.

Tames and John Monroe, the other two men in custody on the same charge as Wells, have secured a change of venue in their case, on application of their attorney, Soren X. Christensen, who also represents R. J. Hickey, the fourth defendant. It is expected that the preliminary hearing will come up at the beginning of next week.

WILLIAM ECCLES, SR., DEAD.
 William Eccles, Sr., died yesterday afternoon at his residence on Canyon road. The death was expected, as he had been ill for some time. He was 70 years of age and was of sturdy build. Although possessed of much wealth, he was a life of ease. He was a member of the Ogden City and a life of activity to him came with the beginning of next week.

EMMETT WINS OVER DRIVER.
 The contest of election brought by William Driver against W. R. Emmett for a seat in the Ogden city council for the next four years from the Fifth ward occupied the attention of Judge Rollap all yesterday and resulted in a decision in favor of Emmett. A decision was rendered by Judge Rollap, a majority of three. Mr. Driver was represented at the hearing by Judge A. R. Heywood and Mr. Emmett by Judge L. Maginins. The ballots cast for Emmett were 563, and for Mr. Driver, 560, and the court decided that Mr. Emmett was the duly elected councilman. The election was held on the 23rd of November, and the next two years have eight Republicans and two Democrats, Mr. Emmett and Max Davidson from the Fourth ward.

TWIN GROVES, IDA.
DEATH OF HENRY WILSON.
 Nauvoo Veteran of 62 Succumbs to Dropsy and Heart Trouble.
 Special Correspondence.
 Twin Groves, Fremont Co., Ida., Nov. 30.—We have had beautiful weather here for some time past, with clear nights. The people observed with pleasure Thanksgiving day. After the home feasting the Twin Grove dancing hall was filled with guests, people from the surrounding country, who occupied the floor till 2 o'clock next morning.

This part of the country immediately east of St. Anthony, on both sides of the north fork of Snake river, is improving rapidly. A bridge costing $1,400 spans the stream on the northwest corner of the ward, so that the travel between Chester, Marysville, an Idaville, is greatly facilitated. The river is silted three and a half miles in going to St. Anthony.

DEATH OF HENRY WILSON.
 Henry Wilson died here of dropsy and heart trouble Nov. 28, surrounded by his family. The funeral was held at the Twin Groves meetinghouse Sunday, under the auspices of Bishop Willard. Deceased was born in Illinois, March 28, 1841, and went with his parents to Nauvoo when a child, his father, Henry H. Wilson, working on the temple. The family came to Idaho in 1849, and located at Twin Grove, Idaho. He was called a missionary to settle Dixie in 1863. He married Andrew Barlow in the St. George temple, Nov. 26, 1878, and came to Park City in 1890, and James faithful Latter-day Saint, a kind and affectionate husband and father, and leaves a loving wife, one son, four daughters and three grandchildren to cherish his memory.

PRICE.
WINTER WORK FOR RANCHMEN
 On Duchesne Railway Now Building Near Eastern State Lias.
 Special Correspondence.
 Price, Carbon Co., Dec. 3.—Hundreds of ranchmen of eastern Utah are being engaged with their teams to work on the Duchesne railway now building between Panguitch, Colo., and the Ashley country. There is good work for all till planting time next spring.

The Duchesne railway is a project of the St. Louis, Glasgow and Pacific company, backed to a certain extent by the Denver & Rio Grande system, for getting the gasoline product of the St. Louis concern to market cheaper than the present method of wagon transportation via Price. The road will first reach the White River mines of the company, just over the Colorado line, and eventually run into Vernal. The St. Louis company is paying out at this time about $85,000 a year to wagon freighters along the Price and Vernal road.

RAYMOND, CANADA.
SUGAR FACTORY RUN.
 Nearly Complete for Season—Social Events—More Cattle Importations.
 Special Correspondence.
 Raymond, Alberta, Canada, Nov. 25.—We are having weather that invites the farmer to prepare to resume his fall plowing, so suddenly stopped by the cold spell of a week ago.

The sugar factory is still emitting smoke, but the best cutting and extruding is over. Sugar making and cleaning up will go on for a few days and then the season's run will be a thing of the past. General satisfaction and encouragement is justified by the results of this enterprise.

Uncle Jesse Knight shipped in a train load of 770 choice young cattle last week and he himself arrived just in time to make the train into Vernal, brings pleasant and mild temperature.

The Magrath theatrical company presented a play here to a good house last Thursday night. Tomorrow is to be Relief society day. A fine program has been prepared and a good time is anticipated. The exercises will occupy the afternoon and evening, the latter time being devoted to an old-time picnic play.

On Friday evening the ward amusement committee will give a "tee and shadow" play.

The new piano recently purchased by the ward is one more factor for the refinement and advancement of this prosperous community.

ST. JOHNS, ARIZONA
ACADEMY WELL ATTENDED.
 Water Storage the Salvation of the Country—Drainage Needed.
 Special Correspondence.
 St. Johns, Apache Co., Arizona, Nov. 24.—The academy at this place is well attended and the pupils seem to have great confidence in the faculty. A goodly interest is manifested in the missionary class.

The St. Johns reservoir has more water in it than ever before at this time of the year. The people begin work on the strengthening of the dam next Monday. They now have plenty of irrigation water in sight. Nothing as yet has been done to make a drain to carry off the mineral water that accumulates in a swamp below the town.

This drain question is one of importance to St. Johns, for if successful it would redeem all the land below the town that is almost worthless on account of the mineral.

The cattle and sheep interests have flourished the past season. Most of the sheep are now moving to their winter range.

The fruit crop at St. Johns was a failure. A small fly seemed to destroy the apple bloom.

The wheat below the town known as the Meadows, that was broken by the flood of September, is again put in repair and is ready for the first water coming its way. The breaking of this reservoir filled the new reservoir for them down the river that has been constructed by President David K. Udall and others so it has plenty of water for the coming season.

IMPORTANT TO RETAILERS.
 To the Public:
 The Executive Committee of the Board of Directors will hold a regular office call compelled to call the attention of the public to the dangers to life and property from Christmas displays, decorations, signs, etc., in churches, public buildings, mercantile establishments, and especially department stores. The use of Christmas greens, harvest specimens and other inflammable material, such as candles, tapers, etc., in connection with electrical and other lighting systems, is decidedly an increase of hazard, it being impossible to make displays of this kind perfectly safe. One of the conditions of any insurance policy is that:

"This entire policy, unless otherwise provided by agreement, endorsed hereon, or added hereto, shall be void if the hazard be increased by any means within the control or knowledge of the insured."

The making of such displays, would, therefore, under a strict interpretation of the conditions of the policy, render the contract of insurance void, unless the policy is endorsed with a special permission for the increased hazard, which will generally be granted only in consideration of an additional premium commensurate with the hazard.

In addition to the danger to property from displays referred to, the danger to life by reason of a panic occasioned by a fire, even though it be small and easily controlled, is so great that the underwriters, who have made a study of such hazards, would only be partly fulfilling their duty should they fail to give this warning.
