To-day, about 12 o'clock, Frank lin Harmon, a boy aged 13 years, was out with his brother herding. While taking their dinner near a large creek, a bank caved in, and falling upon him he was completely covered up. His brother succeeded in getting him out, but he shortly expired. His mother, a widow, is very much bereaved.

Returned .- This morning we received a visit from Elder Joel Parrish, of Centreville, who returned recently from a mission to the States. He left here November 20th, and proceeded to Illinois, where he labored nearly the whole of the winter with the exception of a short time he spent in Missouri and lows. He visited a large number of his relatives, preached to the per (lity, can do so by applying people at the fireside, and also had some opportunities of addressing them publicly. He baptized three persons in Illinois.
