NEVADA EDITOR HERE.

Sam Dunham of Tonopah Deplores the Mobocratic Spirit of His Section.

Sam C. Dunham, editor of the Tonopah, Nev., Miner, is in the city, after attending the Irrigation congress at Ogden. The gentleman publishes one of train, the newsiest weekly papers between here and the coast, and is one of Nehere and the coast, and is one of Ne-vada's hustling progressive, wide-awake citizens. Mr. Dunham deplores very much the mobocratic spirit which has recently made itself manifest in his sec-tion, and says with all other good citi-zens that those responsible for the out-rage on the Chinamen resident there, should be brought to justice and made to nay the negative of their wrongdding. to pay the penalty of their wrongdoing. Mr. Dunham is much impressed with Sait Lake, and is being shown about the city by W. P. O'Meara, who has extensive holdings in Tonopah.

Diminished Vitality.

Some people talk very flippantly about diminished vitality. They don't stop to think that vitality is the principle of life-that it is that is the principle of life-that it is that little understood something on which every function of their bodies depends. Diminished vitality is early indicated by loss of appetite, strength and en-durance, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is the greatest vitalizer. 2
